Birthday Dinner Will be Joint Celebration

Mrs. F. A. Elliott will entertain Thursday evening with a 6:30 o'clock dinner in compliment to the birthday of her husband, F. A. Elliott, her son Jack Elliott and P. D. Gumberry, all three of whose birthdays fall on the same date.

This "birthday dinner" has come to be an annual event in the Elliott home, and for the guests, who fifth few changes, make up the guest list each year.

Covers will be placed for 15 guests for the dinner tonight.

Dr. and Mrs. Canse Leave Today for East

Dr. and Mrs. John Canse will leave today for Portland on the first lap of their journey to the East where Mrs. Canse will go to Grand Rapids, Michigan, to attend the National Convention of Woman's Home Missionary societies of the Methodist Episcopal church which is in convention there, and Dr. Canse will go on to New York where he will attend to business in regard to Kimball College of Theology of which he is president.

Mrs. Canse is conference corresponding secretary for the national organization and as such attended the national conference in Wichita, Kansas, last year. Mrs. E. C. Miller, who is now in Illinois, where, with Mr. Miller, she has been visiting for some time, will also be attending the conference this year. Mrs. Miller is conference secretary of union work.

There are over 300 delegates, all officers, who attend this conference each year, and in addition to this are many visitors. Among the visitors this year will be Mrs. Helen Kelly Manley of Portland. Mrs. Manley recently gave $20,000 to complete the building fund for the Helen Kelly Manley community center which has been under the direction of the National conference in Portland, and which is at Woman's Home Missionary society.

The Oregon Conference of Woman's Home Missionary societies are the directors of the Salem Old People's Home and partially support it.

Dr. and Mrs. Canse will stop in Portland Friday where Mrs. Canse will address the Oregon Conference of Woman's Home Missionary societies which will have a program Friday afternoon as part of the state conference which is in session there this week. In this report which Mrs. Canse will give are two interesting statements, the first that there are 3,330 members in all branches of the Woman's Home Missionary society in Oregon, and that the yearly receipts for the national organization is $5,000,000. This money is spent for such work as settlements, hospitals, schools, orphanages, and other such like charitable works.

Enroute to their destination, Dr. and Mrs. Canse will stop for a week's visit at several places in Indiana. They will spend some extra time at Greentree, the home of James Whitcomb Riley, where Mrs. Canse was once principal of the high school, and which town they have not visited for 22 years. They will also stop in Chicago and Evanston.

The national convention in Grand Rapids begins October 9 and continues to October 15. Dr. and Mrs. Canse plan to return about the last of October.

Attractive House Dress

PATTERN 1767
The Statesman 15c Practical Pattern

Perfectly plain and very easy to make, is the dainty house frock shown today. Design 1767. And then, too, it opens out flat to make laundering easier. A colorful plaid gingham fashions this model and the collar, cuffs and sash are made of white lawn or organdie. Three pearl buttons fasten the frock on the left side.

Many housewives choose materials in colors that match their kitchen, and so the most delightful prints may be obtained in red, blue, green and yellow prints of white grounds. Other suitable fabrics are rayon, percale and wash broadcloth.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46.

Size 36 requires 2 3/4 yards of 36 inch material and 1 1/4 yards of 32 inch trimming.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience is necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple and exact instructions including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of 15 cents in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, dress, style number and size wanted.

The Fashion Book is 15 cents, but only 10 cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

D. A. R. Members Are Tea Hostesses

As has been the custom of the D. A. R. for many years tea is served in its booth at the state fair every afternoon during the Oregon state fair with members of the Chemeketa chapter or visiting chapters acting as hostesses. This year the D. A. R. booth is in the new fair building and the hospitality which is extended visiting D. A. R. members is being greatly appreciated.

The hostess committee Monday was Mrs. John Orr, vice regent of the Chemeketa chapter, Mrs. A. Underhill, Mrs. C. C. Best, and Mrs. Frances Cornell. Those acting as hostesses Tuesday were Mrs. M. P. Adams, Mrs. Herbert J. Ostlund, Mrs. William Farro, and Miss Ruth Rullifson.

The Dallas members of Chemeketa chapter were hostesses Wednesday. Those serving were Mrs. R. G. Morrison, Mrs. John R. Allgood, Mrs. J. E. Sibley, Mrs. C. L. Crider, Mrs. H. C. Eakin, Mrs. J. B. Eakin, Mrs. Oscar Hayter, and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg.

Today members of the Champeog chapter at Newberg will act as hostesses, and Friday the Multnomah chapter will send a group of its members to act as hostesses. This group will be headed by the Multnomah regent, Mrs. John Y. Richardson. Mrs. Seymour Jones and Mrs. U. G. Shipley of Salem will assist this group.

Complimentary Tea To Kentucky Guests

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilson, parents of Mrs. R. L. Payne, who are visiting here from Louisville, Kentucky, are the inspiration for a tea which will be given at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Erickson, 1696 State street, Friday afternoon between the hours of 2 o'clock and 5 o'clock.

Hostesses for this occasion will be Mrs. E. M. Bailey, Mrs. James Foster, Mrs. W. H. Meeker, Mrs. Theodore Roth and Mrs. Mark Skiff.

All members of the First Baptist church and all friends of the church are cordially invited to attend this tea.

Bert Fords Have A Wee Son

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ford Wednesday morning at the Salem General hospital and it is reported that both Mrs. Ford and wee son are progressing very satisfactorily.

Mrs. Ford before her marriage was Margaret Griffith, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Giffith. This is the second son to Mr. and Mrs. Ford. The wee son's older brother is Thomas Griffith Ford.

The Home Kitchen

By ALICE LYNN BARRY

"What's the use of preparing pleasant special dishes if you've a family that never comes home to dinner on time?" demanded Mrs. B., very cheerful mother of five.

"They come trooping in anywhere between 8:30 and 8:30 hungry and inclined to be a bit cross if everything isn't piping hot and ready. Oh, I suppose there's a good reason—you know, had to work late or meet a man or missed the train. There's always something. Last year I got so annoyed I said there wouldn't be any dinner unless everybody came home at a fairly regular hour, say 7 to 7:30. What happened? Well—they won. They said it was a shame poor mother had to fuss, and so they began eating out. Which I didn't like either. So I hung up a little sign in the kitchen. 'Meals served at all hours of the day and night. Look in the icebox.'"

"That's not so bad," retorted Mrs. C. "I bet last year you cooked the same thing for your family because they are all grown. But look at mine—the two youngsters want to eat between meals and scarcely any other time. Mary comes home from the office so tired that she can't bear anything substantial—a little crab-flake salad or a chicken patty. That's the limit of her appetite. Bill does not think a dinner is a meal unless there's a steak or roast beef. Ted must have lots of potatoes. If I serve soup I have to remember who likes it clear and who likes it with all the vegetables in. I practically bribe them to eat some by

Guests Entertained At Mark Skiff Home

Mrs. Mark Skiff and Mrs. Fred A. Erickson were joint hostesses to members of the Missal class of the First Baptist church Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Skiff.

Asters in pink and white lent a beautiful decorative note to the guest rooms. Following the business and social hour, Mrs. Skiff and Mrs. Erickson served at a late hour assisted by Mrs. Gladys Edgar.

Mrs. E. J. Ayers, teacher of the class, presided during the business meeting. At this time a committee was appointed to plan and arrange for the interior decoration of the Missal class room which is now being redecorating. Mrs. Erickson led the devotions.

Mrs. J. Wilson of Louisville, Kentucky, was a special guest.

Members of the class who were present were Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mrs. B. G. Wayman, Mrs. T. W. Edgar, Mrs. J. F. Chamberlain, Mrs. B. E. Darling, Mrs. R. L. Payne, Mrs. Lane Morley, Mrs. W. H. Meeker, Mrs. T. H. Meeker, Mrs. Elizabeth McAdams, Mrs. E. J. Ayers, Mrs. Elizabeth Sidall, and Mrs. L. G. Prescott, and Mrs. Erickson and Mrs. Skiff.

FUNERAL IS STAGED FOR MRS. WALKER

Funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the Rigdon mortuary for Mrs. Georgiana Durbin Walker, prominent Marion county woman and member of a pioneer family, who died Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer, at 495 North Summer. Mrs. Walker, who had lived practically all her life in Salem, had been ill of heart disease the past two months.

Rev. W. C. Kantner, retired pastor of the First Congregational church, officiated at the funeral and burial which she was a member, will officiate at the funeral and burial which will be made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Georgiana Walker was born in Salem 71 years ago, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Durbin. Her father crossed the plains to Marion county in 1849 and her mother came five years later. Georgiana Walker was married to Clayborne Walker, Marion county farmer, who died here nine years ago.

She is survived by her only daughter, Mrs. Dyer; a sister, Mrs. J. H. Koltes of Long Beach, Cal.; a brother, Charles B. Durbin of Portland; and two grandchildren, William Connell, Jr., and Clayborne Walker Dyer of Salem.

TILLAMOOK CHEESE RATES HIGH AT FAIR

Tillamook and cheese have come to be almost synonymous wherever cheese lovers get together. Yesterday proved that Tillamook is still going strong when two of her citizens took first and second prize at the Oregon State Fair for fine cheese. Marshfield, in Coos county, Tillamook's old rival, placed third with Chester Collier.

B. & P. Women Hear W. C. Hawley

The first dinner and business meeting of the fall season for the Business and Professional women was celebrated at the Knight Memorial church social rooms Tuesday night beginning at 6:30 o'clock.

Following the dinner meeting Congressman W. C. Hawley spoke to the group concerning some of the problems of the United States with especial reference to those of the ways and means committee in dealing with the tariff question.

Miss Rachel Bain, club soloist sang two numbers accompanied by Miss Ruth Bedford. The first number was "The Answer" by Terry, and the second was "Today" by Heester.

During the business session it was voted that the Salem club endorse the publication of a state magazine. Mrs. Susan Varty, president, will communicate this decision to the state president, Miss Cecelia Beyler.

It was also decided at this business session to extend an invitation to Miss Mary Stewart to be a guest for luncheon given in compliment to her. Miss Stewart is assistant commissioner of Indian affairs, and will be in Salem October 5, at which time she will pay an official visit to the Chemawa Indian school. Miss Stewart is the author of the club collect and has been active in B. & P. work for several years.

Today there has been no definite place of meeting for the members of the club and in order to correct this difficulty a committee headed by Mrs. Donna Aileen, was appointed to select a suitable location.

Committee chairman reported on the plans for the year's work, and the business meeting was over.

Special guests for the evening were Congressman and Mrs. W. C. Hawley, Mrs. Pierson of Chicago; Mrs. Emma Beckett; Mrs. Dodge, Woodburn; Miss Isabelle Becker, Woodburn; Mrs. Eugene F. Hubbard, Corvallis; Mrs. Lynn of South Dakota, and Miss Ruth Bedford.

Thick, wavy hair!

You, too, can have long, soft abundant hair. It's simply a matter of using this easy method; approved by hair-specialists; endorsed by stars of stage and screen; used by millions who haven't time for the more laborious treatments.

Tonight when you arrange your hair, just put a little Danderine on your brush. Then as you draw the bristles through your hair, see how the scalp is toned and soothed. See how the hair becomes softer, easier to manage; how its natural color is brought out; how it takes on new brilliance and lustre!

Danderine dissolves the crust of dandruff, helps stop falling hair; keeps hair and scalp healthy; encourages the growth of long, silky, abundant hair. Five million bottles used a year. That proves Danderine's effectiveness!
