Fair Glances

As an expression of appreciation and friendship, the "Boys of Barn 3" presented Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Finnicum, McMinnville with two beautiful gifts. For his services as superintendent of the beef cattle department Mr. Finnicum received an inlaid silver cane, and for being general helper and inspiration Mrs. Finnicum was presented with a lovely silver mesh bag. Both declared they were more pleased than if they had received a grand championship award.

Senator and Mrs. L. Norblad, Astoria, were Saturday visitors at the fair.

Mrs. A. N. Orcutt, Roseburg, was the guest of Mrs. H. B. Crawford at the fair on Saturday, while Mrs. Charles Fox, Marshfield, was her guest on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal McNair, Ashland, attended the fair on Saturday. Besides being a banker, Mr. McNair is manager of the playgrounds of southern Oregon, and he was much interested in the children's program Saturday.

Miriam Shepard, Hillsboro, was in Salem yesterday visiting friends, and attending the fair.

Will Admitted—The will of A. J. Basey has been ordered admitted to the courthouse. Mr. Basey has been appointed executor, and George H. Riches, C. M. Cox and J. P. Aldrich are appraisers, according to an order filed yesterday in the county clerk's office. It is reported that the estate is valued at nearly $8,000 and is to be distributed among eight heirs.

Accident Reported—J. H. Pierce, driving a private passenger car, was crowded off the pavement about four miles out of Salem on the Dallas road Friday evening, according to a report filed in the sheriff's office. The driver of the car is unknown.

Sale Confirmed—An order confirming the sale of property was filed in the county clerk's office yesterday in the case of the Williams Valley Mortgage Loan company, against Peter Mathiot.

Bishop to Oregon—Robert Bishop left Saturday for Eugene, where he will enter the University of Oregon.

There was one little boy who was certainly working his hardest yesterday afternoon. That was the little fellow who did the realistic cork-crowling in the song by the chorus of the Boys Training school in front of the grandstand. If energy counts for anything, he is an embryonic Caruso.

Andrew Hanson, of the office force at the state fair, and in ordinary life a traffic cop at 4th and Yamhill, Portland, declares that he saw as many people go by the fair office in one day as at his post at the city street.

There are a lot of people out at the state fair who know their wheels go round so smoothly, and one of them who has been on hand for a long time is S. Simon, Spokane, who has been putting out the grandstand and the night horse show programs and the premium list for a dozen years.

Not missing a year since 1917 at the Oregon State Fair, Mr. Simon, a veteran in the business, put out the programs at the Washington State Fair from 1911 to 1926. He also has the Multnomah county fair on his list, as well as a number of other county fairs in Washington and Oregon.

Boy Held—Jack Waite, 17, of Mount Vernon, Washington, who was found working in a restaurant at the state fair grounds, is being held by the county sheriff. It is believed that the youth ran away from his home some time ago, and his parents have been notified.
