Opening Fox Program to Include Fine Attractions

Elsinore Officials State

A stellar program to usher in the Fox West Coast regime, to Salem under the management of Col. David E. Dow, will be offered at the Elsinore, commencing Saturday, for a three-day engagement.

Fanchon and Marco are sending to Salem for the opening show under the new policy and management, one of their most spectacular and elaborate yet conceived, entitled "Jazz Chatterton Idea."

This production, which consists of many well-known theatrical favorites, recently was received with much acclaim. It was offered at the magnificent new $5,000,000 Fox theatre in San Francisco.

In this show are to be seen such outstanding artists as Roy Rogers, well-known comedian, Oscar Taylor, whose melodious sweet voice is a delight to his many admirers, Pauline Alpert, a versatile miss, and the beautiful 16 Sun-kist Beauties, which have been meeting with much favor in Salem.

On the screen will be presented Richard Barthelmess in his latest all-talkie success, "Drag."

This picture is reputed to excel any of Barthelmess' previous screen efforts, as it has a very original plot and furnishes the auditors with much entertainment.

In "Drag," Barthelmess portrays the role of a newspaper owner, who through peculiar conditions, is forced to leave town.

SNIPKOPH GETS OFF TO START

High School Dramatic Society Begins Active Year; Tryouts Started

The Snikpoph dramatic society at the senior high school has already got its year's program well in hand, with first tryouts to be held after school tonight to fill vacancies in the membership reports Miss Lella Johnson, faculty advisor.

The largest group of aspirants ever to seek positions on the club roster has signed up, with 79 girls' and 27 boys' names already on the list and more expected. There are quite a number of vacancies to be filled, and with the number of aspirants it will be several days before these are filled.

Miss Johnson Tuesday announced that the feature Snikpoph play will be presented Friday, December 13, although she has not yet selected the vehicle.

This year as last, each member of the club will have opportunity to appear in some play, as the one-act play started last year will be continued through this year, one to be given each four or five weeks. Faculty members who will coach these plays, each to direct one of the series, have been chosen as follows: Margaret Burroughs, Mrs. Grace Hockett, Miss Leah Ross, Miss Cecil McKee, Mrs. Ellen Fisher and Norborne Berkeley Jr. Miss Burroughs, who will direct the first play, Miss Ross and Mrs. Fisher are all new to the one-act presentations this year.

Snikpophs will hold elections next week sometime, officers for the new year to be chosen from the old membership. David Eyr was president last year. Immediately following selection of the new club members, the annual initiation rites will take place at the home of Eleanor Wright.

School Boundary May be Changed

Mr. Hug Asserts

Because of overcrowded conditions in two schools, Highland and Grant, in the northern part of the town, a change in the boundary line between Grant and Garfield is under advisement, it was reported Tuesday from the superintendent's office. Garfield attendance is not up to last year, while that at Grant is more than can be adequately handled by the force.

The crowded condition at Highland may be overcome by addition of another teacher and removal of some of the students to a basement room after some remodeling has been done. The beginning class at Highland has 43 pupils now enrolled, which number is more than one teacher can easily handle.

MACDONALD PARTY NEARING AMERICA

S. S. BERNENEGARIA, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The party of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald engaged in little activity today while this vessel pushed its way steadily over smooth seas toward New York, where it will arrive Friday morning.

Mr. MacDonald paid a brief visit to the sun deck in the afternoon where he played shuffle-board with Robert G. Vanstitt and W. L. Craigie of his staff. "I had a great game," he remarked as he descended.

Captain Sir Arthur H. Rostron gave a small tea in his cabin on the British at which former Ambassador James W. Terard and Mrs. Terard were guests as well as the British premier.

Miss Isabel MacDonald kept up her attendance at the evening dances with various partners, one of the privileged few being Tom Melion, nephew of the secretary of the treasury.

Miss Mary Findley, Oregon secretary of the National council for prevention of war, addressed Willamette university Tuesday at chapel. She characterized the modern nations as families living in an apartment rather than families living on widely separated farms, and declared that it behooves modern persons to learn to live with a different technique than they have been used to.

Miss Findley stated that provincialism of nations was often an inciting cause of war, and that provincial citizens made provincial nations. She urged the university students to read newspapers regularly and carefully that they might keep abreast of world affairs.

The three attitudes most frequently met by workers for world peace are hostility, indifference and indifference. No nation, she declared, can successfully carry on a war without a favorable public opinion. In like manner the peace movement must depend upon persons who will help develop a peace-minded public.

When told of Eugene reports that Miss Maxwell had been allowed dining privileges in the dormitory, the father said: "If they can't do any better than that we will have Maxine come home. When Maxine asked the university authorities why she could not have a room in the dormitory they replied that they were afraid it would hurt some of the girls' feelings."

Miss Maxwell is a graduate of the Salem high school, and is a talented musician. Her parents contend that she is entitled to the same housing privileges at the university as are enjoyed by the daughters of other citizens and taxpayers.

PRUNE CANNING IS PUSHED STEADILY

(Continued from Page 1.) making a heavy run on prunes, which will last for a week or so, when pears will be taken on again and the season finished on these.

The Paulus cannery is making a run on prunes only, but will resume on pears, now in cold storage, and make a run of two or three weeks, beginning about Monday. There will come carrots and perhaps some more beets—having made a short run on the latter already.

Prune harvest is going forward in good shape. The output will be as large as expected; overrunning estimates in some sections and under-running in others.

The fruit is coming down well now, with a fine quality for drying. Most of the dryers have small help, and there seems to be little or no complaint about a shortage of pickers.

The prune growers need a week to 10 days or two weeks more of fair weather, in order to save all their fruit in good condition.

WEDDING PARTY FINED
MEDIPORE, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—C. B. Mays was arrested here today because he, his bride-to-be and their two witnesses all occupied the single seat of a coupe. In justice court Mays was fined $5.

FIGHT PLANNED TO RETAIN RED TRAINS

(Continued from Page 1.) that the west side trains have not been self-sustaining, and with the tendency of persons to travel by private cars and stages, they were not justified in continuing service any longer.

It was decided by the representatives from the various towns that an association be formed to take the matter under consideration and seek some solution of the problem. The title of West Side Chambers of Commerce Association was selected, and every organization on the west side will be invited to select three members from their chamber of commerce to form an executive board, who will select a president and secretary from their number, the secretaries from the chambers of commerce to be ex-officio members of the board.

A meeting to perfect this organization and select officers will be held at the chamber of commerce room in McMinnville on Monday evening, October 7, at 6:30 p.m.

HURRICANE MOVES OVER GEORGIA AREA

By the Associated Press
Rains fell throughout the southeast Tuesday night as the tropical disturbance that brought gales to the Florida coast moved slowly northeastward over Georgia, after striking inland from the Gulf of Mexico near Pensacola, Fla., late Monday. High winds blew along the Georgia coast.

C. F. Von Hermann, United States meteorologist at Atlanta said the disturbance apparently would remain over Georgia until Wednesday and probably would move into the Atlantic ocean in the vicinity of Charleston, S. C., unless it changed its course. The disturbance was moving slowly, but its intensity had greatly diminished with wind averaging from 22 to 30 miles an hour.

Mr. Von Hermann said rains were general throughout South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, and that it would cause flood conditions through Georgia.

BRITAIN AND RUSSIA ARE FRIENDS AGAIN

LONDON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The resumption of diplomatic relations between the labor government of Great Britain and the Soviet government of Russia now awaits only approval by the British parliament and formal ratifications by the two governments.

Foreign Secretary Arthur Henderson, and Valerian Douglavsky, Russian ambassador in Paris, agreed on a treaty today in a secret conference at Leves in Sussex, on the procedure for settling the difficulties which have kept the two powers apart since the conservative raid on Arcos house in 1927.

Real Dyes are easier to use

DIAMOND DYES are used by practically the same method as any other dye. They go on easier, though—more smoothly and evenly; without spotting or streaking. That's because they are made from real anilines, without a trace of fillers to injure fabrics or give things that redyed look.

Diamond Dyes contain the highest quality anilines that money can buy. That's why they give such clear, bright, new-looking colors, which keep their depth and brilliance so remarkably through wear and washings.

Next time you have dyeing to do, try Diamond Dyes—at our risk. See that they are easier to use. Then compare results. You will surely agree Diamond Dyes are better dyes. They dye more evenly and more brightly than any other dye. They are the highest quality dye, prepared for general use. It will dye or tint silk, wool, cotton, linen, rayon or any mixture of materials. The blue package is a special dye, for silk and wool only. With it you can dye your valuable articles of silk or wool with results equal to the finest professional work. When you buy—remember this. The blue package dyes silk or wool only. The white package will dye every kind of goods, including silk and wool. Your dealer has both packages.

ARMED GUARD FOR FITTS IS ORDERED

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Captain Thomas J. O'Brien, chief of the district attorney's investigation bureau today ordered an armed guard for District Attorney Burton Pitts, after announcing he had unimpeachable information that a group of bootleggers and underworld characters plotted his death.

O'Brien said a detective lieutenant, whom he trusted, reported over-hearing gangsters pass the word that "we are going to burn down Pitts and McDonald the first time we catch them alone."

The McDonald referred to was believed to be J. B. Westman, alias Harry D. McDonald, whose confession to Pitts that he had paid $500,000 in bribes to police for protection of his bootlegging establishment resulted in bribery indictments by the grand jury against nine policemen, among them Thomas Washburn, now on trial. Westman is in jail.

Out of Washburn's trial another investigation which may result in a wholesale police shakeup has grown.

THREE KILLED WHEN HUNTING IS BEGUN

SEATTLE, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The opening of the hunting season in Washington today took a toll of three lives, those of a woman, a man and a boy.

Mrs. Ruth Rhodes, 32, well known as writer on aviation subjects and as a travel lecturer, was found dead on Mount Walker, on the Olympic peninsula near Port Townsend, Wash., with a rifle bullet wound in her abdomen.

Frank Cartiotti, 17, of Port Townsend, Wash., died from a charge from a shotgun in the hands of Earl Enos, 17, also of Port Townsend. Enos and John Fish 19, were being held by the coroner. Enos was to be prosecuted on a charge of reckless shooting, officials said, while Fish was held as a material witness. Officers were informed they said, that Enos fired at a deer with his shotgun, the charge striking Cartiotti full in the face as he stood on a stump a few feet away.

Derubi Bellandi, 27, bled to death from a charge fired by Caspar Kennell, with whom he was hunting birds on the tide flats near Tacoma. The accident was pronounced unavoidable.

Alleged British Documents Will be Viewed After MacDonald Visit

He said he turned the document over to the navy and later to former Senator Reed of Missouri but he did not know what use Reed made of it.

Within a short time after the committee hearing closed, a telegram from William Wiseman describing the document as a "clumsy, absurd forgery" was received by Chairman Shortridge.

VETS OF THIS CITY CHEERED

Local Drum Corps Cheered Enthusiastically at Legion Meet

(Continued from Page 1.) es, the hair is thin under those gaude helmets and gorous shackles. A few years ago now, when the convention has become a reunion, there will be the faltering steps as the head will be held high. A few years ago these men were in the first blush of young manhood, called from schools and beginnings of a touch of the cake walk in today's pageant. This year they were at the happy in-between stage where first enthusiasm has given away to steady purpose.

Every profession, every race, color and social scale was represented in the line of march. There was a uniformed drum and bugle corps made up of men connected with the Chicago Board of Trade, and there was a post from Indiana which marched behind a standard announcing that every member is a union coal miner.

Oklahoma Group Led by Indians
Indians led Oklahoma's section, and a drum and bugle corps composed of negroes from Charlotte, N. C., added a touch of the cake walk to the goose steps while the spectators shouted, "Get hot, boys."

The musical organizations and drill teams were every conceivable type of a uniform, making the spectacle as seen from a high vantage point a lot of color, green, gold, blue, red, orange, yellow, white, brown, gray—with the trimmings and stripes adding kaleidoscopic variety. Several states had impressive floats.

One organization easily won whatever prize may be offered for the Chattanooga, Tenn., drum and bugle corps appeared in muddy, ragged, ill fitting service uniforms, with trench helmets and gas masks in similar condition. Except for their musical instruments and their jaunty step they might have been mistaken for a show detail which had just crawled from a shell hole.

The biggest delegation of all seemed to be that of Indiana, home of Commander McNutt. The Bloomington post, accompanied by the Indiana university band, proclaimed him as a charter member.

Malady Fatal to Goose Lake Fish

Some mysterious malady or catastrophe has apparently killed almost all of the fish in Goose lake, in the northern part of Marion county, reports Ben Claggett, district game warden. Thousands of bass, crappies and sunfish were seen floating on the surface of the lake Monday. A few of the fish which stayed near the shore where fresh streams fed the lake, survived, Claggett reported. Some of the dead fish and a sample of the water will be sent to the offices of the state game warden for examination.
