

BOARD EXPECTS CONFIRMATION

Federal Farm Group Likely To Remain as Outlined By President

By RAYMOND Z. HENLE
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—(AP)—Confirmation of all members of the federal farm board is looked for by administration leaders unless some unexpected change of serious nature is lodged against any of the eight members named by President Hoover.

Opposition on the floor of the senate to Chairman Legge and possibly two or three other members of the board, is considered inevitable. There is held to be no sign at present, however, of opposition based on past or present connections which might be construed as rendering any board member unfit to serve.

Administration leaders base their opinion that all will be confirmed upon the fact that they have been given various assurances given them by various senators in what might be considered the opposition groups. A number of prominent democrats and western independent republicans have indicated that while they believe the board will prove ineffective, they are not disposed to vote against its confirmation because they regard the difficulties in the farm relief legislation rather than in the men named to carry out its provisions.

A number of the senators, on the other hand, both republicans and democrats, have expressed a desire to confirm the board as soon as possible in the belief that it will inaugurate a constructive, long range program for the relief of agriculture that will be carried forward more rapidly once the board is entrenched in office.

Chairman McNary expects to close the agriculture committee hearings on the nominations Wednesday. The board members will be voted upon promptly by the committee but McNary does not believe a senate debate on confirmation can open before the following Monday or Tuesday.

The agriculture committee still must examine four commissioners of whom Carl Williams, of Oklahoma, who represents cotton on the board, and Sam R. McKelvie, of Nebraska, who speaks for wheat, apparently will be questioned at length.

Williams will appear tomorrow. After he was appointed several southern senators described him as not being "an out-and-out cotton man," and Senators Smith of South Carolina, Heflin of Alabama and Randsell of Louisiana, all democrats, have indicated they will examine him closely. Williams has been an official of the American cotton growers' cooperative exchange and the publisher of farm journals.

The committee will question McKelvie Tuesday. Coming to the board as the representative of wheat over whose problems there has been much controversy, he also appears to be slated for close questioning from senators in whose states the wheat surplus has presented a serious economic situation.

Williams was endorsed by Oklahoma's senators, one of whom—Thomas—is a member of the senate committee, but McKelvie had no endorsement from either Senator Norris, also a member of the committee, or Senator Howell.

Chairman McNary believes the hearings can be finished Wednesday by examining both William F. Schilling of Minnesota, representing dairy products, and C. C. Teague, of California, representing fruits and vegetables.

Mary Billings of Plaza street, Mrs. W. R. Anderson of Salem spent Sunday afternoon also with Mrs. Billings.

Mrs. J. N. Brinkley attended the Methodist Sunday school convention which was held at Kelzer Sunday.

Mrs. H. J. Harder of West Salem had as her Sunday dinner guests, Miss Elma Steingard and Miss Enna Harms of Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Allen, formerly of Colorado Springs, have rented the house on 1329 Plaza street until they find a suitable place to buy as they intend to make their home here.

A birthday dinner was given Tuesday honoring Mrs. I. L. Smith's grandson's fifth birthday. Those who attended Bobby Smith's party were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boydston and son, Jimmie of Dallas, Frank Smith of Kingston, Idaho, who is Bobby's great grandfather, and Bobby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Smith and daughter, Lea of Salem. The party was given at the Smith home on the corner of Franklin and Rosemont streets.

Mrs. Harry Carter recently received a telegram telling of the death of her sister, Mrs. S. A. Bler of Los Angeles, California.

Frank Forest and wife of the Silverton road visited with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barber of West Salem Sunday.

Mrs. P. L. Pratt of Salem spent Monday with Mrs. E. A. Martin of 555 Kingwood avenue.

H. L. Rimsditt is in Wheeler, Oregon, where he is temporarily working. He is working for the Southern Pacific railway company.

CLERK DISMISSED AS FUNDS SHORT

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—S. G. Herlinger, clerk in the city water bureau here for 16 years, was dismissed today by L. S. Kaiser, superintendent, following the asserted discovery of a shortage of $300 in his accounts.

A box of cigars proved Herlinger's undoing, Kaiser said.

Discovery that Herlinger bought his cigars by the box and that he had some other habits that the city officials thought a little extravagant for a man on a salary of $183 a month, resulted in an investigation of his books.

It developed, Kaiser said, that for about a year and a half Herlinger has been short-changing on receipts obtained from permits to building contractors and others for the use of water during construction. Money collected by L. S. Kaiser, inspector, for permits was turned over to Herlinger. He then was declared to have taken out a small amount and turned the rest over to the cashier.

Kaiser said Herlinger would not be prosecuted. He declared the clerk was bonded in the sum of $2,000 and that the bonding company will be reimbursed by Herlinger.

HOSS OBJECTS TO TITLES ON BALLOTS

Hal E. Hoss, secretary of state, in a letter to the attorney general voiced dissatisfaction with ballot titles prepared by the latter official for two motor vehicle amendments which will go on the ballot at the general election next November.

The secretary of state said the ballot titles were not explanatory, and would confuse rather than assist the voter in determining the meaning of the amendments.

The attorney general declared that while the ballot titles could not be changed at this late date, the secretary of state has authority to add a footnote to the ballot explaining the amendments in more detail.

The two amendments, if approved, would give the legislature authority to classify and reclassify property, including motor vehicles, for purposes of taxation, and, in providing for an excise or privilege tax, to take into consideration use, value and depreciation of the property affected, without specific assessment.

NEW RULE PLANNED
PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 30.—(AP)—The proposal that one-way streets in this city be abolished was made today by City Attorney Frank S. Grant.

The Oregon Statesman, The Northwest Poultry Journal, The Pacific Homestead, one full year by mail, $3.75, order now.

AIRWAY LIGHTING SOON ADVOCATED

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Two petitions asking Senator Charles L. McNary to urge immediate action by the department of commerce in lighting the Portland-Spokane airway for night flying of air mail have been forwarded by the local chamber of commerce, officials revealed today.

Julius L. Meier, chairman of the aviation committee of the chamber, declared lighting of the airway to be of sufficient importance to call for emergency measures by the department of commerce if necessary. He pointed out that eastbound mail planes will be forced to fly "blind" if beacon lights are not installed before winter.

West Salem

G. W. Richardson of Rosemont avenue has been very ill since Friday night. It was necessary to have the doctor for him.

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Smith motored to Newport Sunday where they spent the day.

Mrs. S. C. Hess of Portland and mother of W. H. Hess has returned home after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Hess of West Salem. They attended the fair while she was here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hess and Mrs. S. C. Hess spent Sunday at Buena Vista where they visited Mrs. Hess' uncle, W. D. Sumner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess are going Tuesday to Newberg where they will get Mr. Hess' aunt, Mrs. N. Caldwell, who has been visiting there but whose home is in St. Louis, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Foley of Corvallis, Mrs. Jack Miller and four daughters of Lebanon were Sunday dinner guests at the Billings-McAdams home on Plaza street. Miss Virginia Miller, daughter of Mrs. Jack Miller, spent the week end there also, as she came over to attend the 4 H club.

Miss Betty and Ruth Bedford spent Sunday evening visiting Mrs. Lottie McAdams and Mrs.

STOCK PRICES YET GO DOWN

Wall Street Structure Regarded as Overbought By Speculators

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—(AP)—The trying ordeal of hammering down what is now generally regarded as an overbought speculative structure was resumed with determination in today's stock market. Dozens of leading issues were depressed to the lowest levels of the movement, and extreme declines ran from 10 to nearly 40 points. Short covering in the last hour moderately reduced some of the losses, but without marked effect.

The day's news was largely favorable, particularly that relating to the steel industry. U. S. Steel and Bethlehem were said to have stepped up their operation about 4 per cent to around 90 per cent of railroad capacity, presumably reflecting the heavy buying of railroad equipment. Montgomery Ward reported that September sales increased more than 25 per cent over that month of last year. This failed to approximate optimistic estimates, but was generally regarded as satisfactory. Crude Oil production was reported to have declined a little last week, but Pennsylvania crude prices were cut again.

U. S. Steel was again under pressure, sagging to 218 3/4, a new low for the movement, and closing at 221 3/4, off nearly a point. Motors continued to sag into new low ground for the year or longer, Chrysler reaching 54 1/2, contrasted to the year's high of 135. Central Electric, after dropping to 351, rebounded to 390, up nearly 2 points net. A few specialties moved up into new high ground, including Beatrice Creamery, Burroughs Adding, Myers and Bros., and Remington

Brand, with a gain of about 2 to 4 points. Radio turned upward, making a new gain of nearly 5 points. In the rails, Atchison sold off 4 points, then rebounded more than 5. American Telephone was heavy for a time, dropping about 8 points, but regained most of its loss before the close.

In the utilities, Standard Gas and Electric, a recent high flier, tumbled more than 20 points, and closed near the bottom. American and Foreign Power and American Power and Light dropped 14 to 10, then reduced their losses to 8 each. American Water Works lost about 6 points. Other soft spots included International Combustion, which tumbled about 13 points to a new low at 42, and closed at 45 1/2; Air Reduction, off more than 9, and Marmon, dropping about 7 points to a new low at 37 1/2, then rallying 5. J. I. Case had one of its wild movements, tumbling 39 points in a small turnover.

Recent claims totaling $1315.70 have been paid to holders of Oregon Statesman, North American Accident Insurance Co., policies.

EXTRADITION OF RUSSELL ORDERED

Governor Patterson Tuesday Authorized the Extradition of G. F. Russell of Gladstone, Who Is Wanted at Los Angeles on a Charge of Grand Theft, but Ordered that he Remain in Oregon until Habeas Corpus Proceedings can be Filed in his Behalf.

The complaint offered at the hearing charged that Russell, after losing his position with a California paper manufacturing company, indorsed and cashed a check made out by his employers to another person in the amount of $295.

Russell alleged that he was given the check by an employe of the paper company when he called at the office for his wages, and that he did not know it was made out in favor of another person. He said he later went to a bank, indorsed the check with his own name, and obtained the money. Russell declared that he then joined his family and returned to Gladstone.

Twenty affidavits signed by Clackamas county merchants, officials, bankers and lawyers, attested that Russell had lived in Gladstone for more than 20 years, and in the opinion of the makers of the affidavits, had always been an upright and honest citizen. A number of prominent Clackamas county citizens attended the hearing here today.

Attorneys for Russell alleged that the check was cashed by mistake, and that there was no intent to commit a crime.

Habeas corpus proceedings probably will be filed Thursday. In the meantime Russell will be detained in Salem.

BOND HOUSES ARE NOW CONSOLIDATED

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 1.—(AP)—Consolidation of the local bond-houses of Ferris and Hardgrove and Murphey, Favre and Company was announced here today. John J. Hess and Edward M. Adams, executive officers of the two firms, said the new organization will be known as the United Oregon corporation. Ferris and Hardgrove and Murphey, Favre and company were both organized some years ago as Spokane bond houses. Both firms established branches here and recently affiliated with the United National corporation of Seattle. The branches, however, were continued and until today maintained their original individuality. Read the Classified Ads.
