Pythian Sisters Convention Date

HUBBARD.—Mrs. Cobie de Lespinaze of Hubbard, state press correspondent of the Pythian Sisters announces the thirty-sixth annual convention of the Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters of Oregon to be held at Portland October 15 and 16 in the Pythian building.

Mrs. Carrie M. Knight, grand chief, of Eugene will preside at the meeting. Desk officers will be Mrs. Rose Farrington of Portland and Mrs. Mabel Erickson of Salem. Mrs. de Lespinaze will have charge of the publicity.

Registration for both the Pythian Sisters and the Knights of Pythias will be held at the Imperial hotel Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock p. m. and a reception at which all officers, representatives and their families are invited, will be held at the Oregon-Washington Pythian home at Vancouver Monday evening.

The grand temple will convene for Tuesday's session on the 4th floor of the Pythian building while the Knights of Pythias will meet at the same time on the 5th floor.

Joint memorial services will be held under the auspices of the Grand Temple Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Initiation will be held Tuesday evening.

Sixty-six temples will be represented with the officers and past grand officers constitute the legislative body of the organization.

It is further announced that from all indications the order seems to be in a most promising condition.

Representatives to the convention from Arion temple, Hubbard, are Mrs. Mela Friend and Mrs. Susie Ott, past grand chief Pearl Kinzer and State Press Correspondent Cobie de Lespinaze will also attend.

Representatives from Knights of Pythias lodge, Hubbard, are H. C. Mack and Frank Thompson.

W. H. M. S. Plan For Jubilee Dinner

The Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church met in the church parlors at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. H. Vandervort, chairman of the committee handling the jubilee dinner plans which is annually sponsored by the society, announced the date to be October 30, the fifth Wednesday in the month.

Mrs. Almira Hale is to be chairman of the miscellaneous shower to be held in the rear future for the Methodist Old Peoples home on East Center street.

The home was founded in 1905. There is still a strong sentiment against the home but Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford announced in her report that the funds were coming in rapidly with which to wipe out this debt and that it was hoped that it would be possible to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of its building, October 29, with the home clear from debt.

There is a new home in connection with this old building which was only built in 1923.

Mrs. George Alden, chairman of the program committee of plans were completed for the year. Mrs. Harriet Durkheimer has been appointed to secure devotional leaders for the year. Mrs. J. O. Russell will be responsible for securing program leaders for the year's meetings.

Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford reported on the funds needed for the local Japanese work in Salem and in the Lake Labish region near Chemawa. The interdenominational council of church women have at the present a full time paid minister in the field.

New members announced at the Wednesday meeting were Mrs. Oliver A. Stewart, and Mrs. Martha Schmuck.

A penny march concluded the business session with Mrs. J. O. Russell who will serve as musician this year, at the piano.

The business meeting was followed by a short program arranged by Mrs. Benjamin Blatchford on the topic of "Immigration."

Mrs. Harriet Durkheimer had charge of the devotional and read from Genesis 12-19 which led up to the immigration discussion.

Those who assisted Mrs. Blatchford in the discussion were Mrs. Alden Mrs. Witter Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Way, Mrs. Lowther, Mrs. Harry Swaford and Mrs. Glover.

Miss Mary Allen of Willamette university and Miss Josephine Albin of the Oregon-Japan Mission accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Joseph Albert, Poems pertinent to the topic under discussion were read by Mrs. H. F. Shanks and Mrs. A. A. Underhill.

Salem Music Teachers association will hold the first meeting of the organization Tuesday night at the home of Prof. and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. Permanent committee will be announced and fall and winter work will be planned.

Miss Ruby Rotzén has been the guest of her brother Fred Rotzén and his family for the past few weeks. Miss Rotzén was a teacher in the Salem schools and has many friends in Salem. She left five years ago and has been in southern California near Miss Violet Rotzén, who was also a Salem teacher.

"Slender Lines in Black"

Pattern 8684 Statesman 15c Practical Pattern Particularly interesting to the woman who is no longer slender, are the slim lines created by the diagonal bodice closing of design 8684. The pleated skirt section offers graceful fullness and at the same time retains a straight silhouette. A pin or buckle finishes the side closing.

Design 8684 may be made with equally good results if silk or woolen material is used. Velvet, satin, flax crepe or moire are favorites of the mode among silks, while kasha, tweed and cashmere constitute the smart woolen group. Moire or faille is used for collar and cuffs.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of 54 inch material and 1 yard 40 inch trimming.

This model is easy to make. No dressmaking experience necessary. Each pattern comes to you with simple instructions, including yardage for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of 5 cents in coins care-fully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

The fashion book is 15 cents, but only 10 cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th Street, New York City.

Mrs. George King Is Kensington Hostess

Mrs. George King was hostess with a one o'clock luncheon at her home on Fairmount street Thursday to members of the Kensington club which opened its season with this luncheon. The affair was delightfully informal and exceptionally attractive.

The luncheon table, where covers were laid for nine, was centered with French marigolds with slender soft toned green candles arranged on either side of them.

Clever place cards carried out the green and gold color scheme which predominated the luncheon. Places were arranged for Mrs. Harry J. Mohr, Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. F. S. Annuen, Mrs. Charles Hudkins, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. L. M. Doughton, Mrs. Herbert Hauser, and Mrs. King.

CHRIST LUTHERAN FESTIVAL SUNDAY

Rev. Amos L. Minneman Gives Sermonette on Meaning Of Mission Observance

Christ Evangelical Lutheran church, 18th and State streets, Rev. Amos E. Minneman, pastor, will hold it annual Mission Festival services Sunday with Rev. O. T. Just, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Portland, preaching both at the German services at 10:30 a. m. and at the English services at 2:30 p. m.

During the intervals between services luncheon will be served in the church parlors. Each family will bring its basket of luncheon.

Mr. Just for years served in the Home Mission field, for three years served as president of the Northwestern district of the Joint Synod of Ohio and at present is pastor of one of the oldest Lutheran churches in Portland. Out of the fullness of this rich and varied experience Mr. Just has a vital message for occasions like this, according to the local Lutheran pastor.

In connection with the Mission Festival, Mr. Minneman offers the following sermonette: "Go ye, therefore, and disciple all nations," is the Master's bidding to His disciples of that day and of this day. If a good soldier will heed the command of his captain and go forth to do bloody destruction to his foes, shall not the soldier of the cross heed the last command of his captain of salvation and go forth to bring sweet peace to sin-slaved hearts and to put to rest the foes of his eternal welfare?

To friends and neighbors we may go in person; to the outlying districts of the Home Mission field and to the heathen lands across the sea we may send our moneys to extend our influence where we ourselves may not go.

Her entire sustenance the widow in the gospel gave into the Temple-praised! No wonder the Master praised!

Rich gifts likewise flowed, Nor did the Lord despise the bounties of service, whether of gifts or abilities; yet these did not reach to the fullness of the widow's two mites since the element of sacrifice was lacking,—these gave of their abundance, she of her poverty.

Each according to his ability,—this is the new dispensation law of service, whether of gifts or abilities. To lay special emphasis upon this truth and by the legitimate use of every agency that bears the warrant of scripture to stress such duty is the purpose of the so-called Mission festival that has become a permanent fixture in the Lutheran church throughout the world, because we hold that missions are the very heart-throb of the Christian church.

Discussing sugar as a satiation factor, he said: "Topping off the meal with a sweet dessert, gives a sense of satiation . . . an important item in the diet."

The scientist pointed out that "Sugar as a staple fuel ranks with starch . . . sugar is more rapidly digested than starch; otherwise they are entirely comparable fuels."

He then defined the use of sugar as an emergency fuel. "The process of respiration is so rapid," he said, "that sugar appears in the muscles (the fire-box of the body) within a few minutes after ingestion."

So it is that sugar is one of the most useful and least expensive of foods. As a flavor alone, it deserves a place in every diet for making other healthful foods delicious.

Eat all kinds of healthful fruit and canned fruits and vegetables, sweetening for pleasure, remembering the satiation value of ice creams, cookies and cakes for dessert. The best cooks are generous with sugar. The Sugar Institute.

Sugar's five uses in the diet . . . Authority explains this delicious food

WE RECENTLY asked the food scientist at one of the great universities to describe the rightful place of sugar in the diet. "Sugar has five distinctive uses," he said. "1. A conserving agent. 2. A flavoring substance. 3. A satiation factor. 4. A staple fuel. 5. An emergency fuel."

The scientist showed that sugar is used as a conserving agent, especially in fruits. Discussing sugar as a flavorer, the scientist said: "One of the most praiseworthy developments of the modern diet lies in the expansion of the use of fresh fruits . . . contingent on the free availability of sugar."

Discussing sugar as a satiation factor, he said: "Topping off the meal with a sweet dessert, gives a sense of satiation . . . an important item in the diet."

The scientist pointed out that "Sugar as a staple fuel ranks with starch . . . sugar is more rapidly digested than starch; otherwise they are entirely comparable fuels."

He then defined the use of sugar as an emergency fuel. "The process of respiration is so rapid," he said, "that sugar appears in the muscles (the fire-box of the body) within a few minutes after ingestion
