Baking Contest

The Baking Contests will take place Friday and the judging will be held in the Johnson building on State street, former Kafoury store location. All the grand prizes will be awards for high places in the baking contests.

Contest Rules

1. The baking contest will be held in the Johnson building, former Kafoury location, on State Street, on Friday, October 11.
2. All entries must be brought to the building between 9 and 12:30 Friday.
3. Baked goods entered are to be turned over to the Salem Woman's Club and the club is to receive the proceeds of the sale thereof.
4. Any man, woman, or child, except professional cooks and bakers and members of families of staff of Oregon Statesman is eligible to compete for the grand prizes.
5. Entries must be baked in your own home and in your own oven, in whatever stove you have.
6. Contestants must use the ingredients advertised in connection with this school in The Statesman for Tuesday, Oct. 8, excepting such ingredients as are not advertised.
7. Containers for entries cannot be returned. Bring entries on paper plates; or they may be obtained free at the contest room. Contestants must unwrap their own entries on delivery to the contest room.

Proceeds of Sale of Baking Contest Goods Go to Building Fund of the Salem Women's Club

Immediately following the cooking school Friday afternoon, the crowd will repair to the former Kafoury store building on State street where the sale of baked goods will take place at 4 p.m. This will be in charge of the Salem Women's Club and the proceeds of the sale will go to their building fund.

WOMEN of Salem know the character of the free cooking schools which The Statesman presents. The school conducted last year was an outstanding success. Even more careful preparations have been made this year to have this Cooking School a greater success. The women of this community are cordially invited to attend any or all of the sessions.

Each day's program will be different. The instructor will give complete instructions about how to prepare the dishes and souvenir menus will be given out. Thursday a special style show will be featured.

There is no charge of any kind for attendance at the school. Valuable prizes are offered for skill in baking. Special attractions and worth while features offered each day for those who attend.
