Formal Afternoon Tea is Lovely Affair

Complimenting their house-mother, Mrs. W. B. Johnson who is with them for the first time this year, members of the Alpha Phi Alpha sorority were hostesses for a formal tea at the sorority house on Oak street Friday afternoon between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock. One hundred and twenty-five invitations were extended to members of the university circles and to newspaper.

Greeting these folk as they came to the door was Miss Georgia Stryker who introduced to the line headed by Miss Dorothy Gordon, and Mrs. W. B. Johnson, Miss Olive Dahl, Mrs. F. M. Erickson, and Mrs. Wayne Robertson.

Presiding at the tea table for the first hour was Miss Alida Gale Curry and Miss Lella Johnson. During the second hour, Mrs. Alice Fisher and Mrs. George H. Alden presided at the tea table.

The tea table was unusually attractive with its lace cloth centering which was a low beaten copper bowl filled with carnations, maidenhair fern, pink dahlias and baby villas. On either side of the bowl were beaten copper holders containing green tapers. Both the receiving rooms and the tea room were lighted with the soft glow of many candles—those in the receiving room were yellow and those in the tea room were green.

About the receiving rooms were baskets of pink zinnias, pink dahlias, yellow chrysanthemums, and salmon pink gladioli, all of which were enchanting in the soft candlelight.

Violin numbers were given by Miss Lucille Flannery, and Miss Lulu Allen and Miss Grace Henderson gave a piano number. Miss Lois Plummer and Miss Marjorie O'Dell were the accompanists.

Members of the house who assisted in serving were Helen Brethaupt, Lois German, Josephine Tonn, Helen Styles, Maxine Ulrich, Jerene Low, Gretchen Melh, Marjorie O'Dell and Lucille Fisher.

Those who assisted about the rooms were Dorothy Rossen, Irene Cochran, Ellen Jean Moody, Estelle Chaney, Donna Hildesheim, Sarah Poor, Elvina Brethaupt, Dorothy Taylor, Helen Kafoury, Ruth Burch, Helen Ferry, Helen Brethaupt, Gladys Miller, Benita Edwards, Dorothy Eastridge, Gladys Taylor, Henrietta Bishop, Muriel White, Rosie Smith, Edwina Broadbent, Esther McMinnime and Constance Fisher and Margaret Warnke.
