Junior Maccabees Organize Lodge In Salem

The Maccabees junior lodge, to be known as Booster court, was organized Wednesday evening, October 9, in the woman's club house. The work of instituting the new court was done by a representative of the home office of the Maccabees, Cora E. Phillips, of Detroit, Mich. She was assisted in the work of institution by great commander, J. W. Sherwood of Portland. The juniors entertained the people present, their parents and members of the Maccabees, by a short program of music and recitations. The exemplification of the junior ritual followed, which was beautifully done under the direction of Mrs. Phillips. Perhaps the most pleasing part of the evening's program were the speeches made by the juniors who had been elected as officers of the new court. The officers are as follows: court director, Florence M. Seder; past commander, Waneta A. Gilson; commander, Dorothy F. Seder; Lt. commander, Blanche McCrone; record keeper, Nellie Marie Adellhart; chaplain, Dorothy M. Manning; golden deeds recorder, Mary E. Gilson; sergeant, Charles L. Stewart; sentinel, Florence L. Stewart; national flag bearer, Lyman E. Simons; Maccabees flag bearer, Edward Hamilton, Jr.; first guard, Eldon W. Gilson; and second guard, Helen Hamilton.

At the close of the evening's program a social hour was enjoyed, at which time refreshments were served.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott, prominent club and church worker, who has entertained and been entertained the past two weeks.

Mrs. I. L. Patterson, who is honorary chairman of the Salem Chamber Music society which will give its first concert Monday night.

Mrs. Roy Keene, one of the first fall hostesses, and wife of Willamette University's athletic coach.

Chamber Music to Attract Salem Folk Monday

Those folk who are fortunate enough to hold a membership card in the Salem Chamber Music society or who take out such membership before Monday night will be delighted with the arrival of Monday night when at 8 o'clock they will hear for the first time the stringed quartet from Portland directed by Susie Fennell Pipes, violinist, and Sorenson, Vdovin, and Konrad, who make up the quartet.

The program is an interesting one to begin a series of three concerts with. It includes movements from Mozart's Quartet in D major. This will be followed by two numbers, "An Irish Melody" by Bridge, and "Valse from Five Novellettes" by Glazounov. The concluding number will be four movements from Tschalkowsky.

Mrs. C. S. Hamilton, president of the organization, will assist Mrs. William Lytel, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Monroe Gilbert, Mrs. William Burghardt, Mrs. Walter Denton, and Miss Lena Belle Tartar in receiving the guests.

Only those holding membership cards or student tickets, will make up the audience Monday night.

Miss Ellen McGregor, librarian at the Salem senior high school two years ago, paid a brief Friday visit to a few Salem friends on her way to Visalia, California, where she will take a position as cataloguer in the library. Miss McGregor has been librarian in the Casper Wyoming library for the past year.

Wisteria Club has First Dance Of Season

Castilian Hall was the scene of the first dance of the season for the Wisteria club, popular dancing club of Salem.

Nearly a hundred couples enjoyed this first party which had been so well arranged by the committee composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Neimeyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Doughton, Judge and Mrs. George Rossmann, and Judge and Mrs. Harry Bell.

The next dance will be given November 8. The committee in charge will be Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Laughlin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Peterson, and Dr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons.

Following close on the heels of the Wisteria club dance will be the old and well known Monday Night club dance which will hold its first dance October 14. The Frinda club which is also very active during the winter months with its Friday night dances will begin its season Friday night.

Farewell Dinners To Mrs. Young

Mrs. Ted Irwin and Genevieve Gray entertained Wednesday evening at Peggy's Tea room with a prettily appointed dinner in compliment to Mrs. Marian Young who left Friday night for the south where she expects to make her home.

The table color scheme was yellow with flower sand tapers carrying the color note. Covers were placed for the honor guest, Mrs. Marian Young, Mrs. Claude Johnson, Mrs. Fred Bernardi, Mrs. Ted Mesch, Miss Lucile McDowell, and Mrs. Irwin and Genevieve Gray.

Mrs. Ted Mesch was hostess at her home on Morningside with a dinner Thursday evening in compliment to Mrs. Young.

Pink button sinifas and pink tapers made the attractive center piece for the table at which were seated the honor guest, Mrs. Young, and Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Grace Crater, Mrs. Ted Irwin, Mrs. George Forge, Mrs. Byrd Lyman, Genevieve Gray, and Mrs. Ted Mesch.

Miss McNary Begins Weekly Bible Class

Miss Nina McNary announces the opening of her winter bible class conducted as a part of the Y. W. C. A. program each year in the social rooms of the Young Women's Christian association on North Liberty street.

Each Monday night these classes are open to the young women of Salem who are interested in coming. A no host dinner is enjoyed at 5:30 o'clock and at 6:30 o'clock the lesson is conducted.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bowersox have as their guest, Mrs. S. J. Bowersox of Portland, who with her husband, the late Rev. S. J. Bowersox, was formerly a popular resident of Salem. At that time Rev. Bowersox was pastor of the Evangelical church.

TURNER.—A surprise party for Rev. W. S. Burgoyne and family was very cleverly carried out Friday evening.

The Methodist church people and their friends gathered at the church and later at the parsonage while Mr. and Mrs. Burgoyne were being entertained at a friend's home. The evening passed quickly with a short program, sociability, and refreshments.
