NORTHERNERS PUT TO ROUT

Thundering Herd Gallops to One-Sided Victory in Conference Tilt

By FRANK G. GORRIE
Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The thundering herd of Southern California was a chain of lightning in northern Washington today, and with a mighty roar blasted the Pacific Coast conference championship chance of the University of Washington. The powerful Trojans trounced the Huskies 48 to 0.

After spending the first 12 minutes of the game with their backs against their own goal posts, the southern California warriors, led by their dynamic quarterback, Russell Saunders, burst into a mighty battering ram. The thundering herd stamped up and down the field, scoring touchdowns virtually at will. Four were scored in quick succession in the second period, two more were added in the third quarter and another was counted just as the final gun sounded. Huskies Catch Team

From South Off Guard
The Washington Huskies pounced on the gridiron primed to the minute. They caught the Trojan by surprise and worked the ball into U. S. C. territory before the game was five minutes old. Failing to gain more than a yard, Saunders punted from his 22 yard line. The kick was practically blocked and Johnny Stombaugh, Washington halfback, caught the ball on the Trojan 34 yard line.

Coach Elmer Bagshaw saw a chance to score and sent in his spectacular halfback, Merle Hufford to replace Pulver. After three Husky line smashes which gained seven yards Hufford took the ball and raced around right end to reach the U. S. C. goal line, but he had stepped out of bounds on the 17 yard line. Trojans Begin to Tear

Through Washington Line
Jesse Hill followed with another touchdown a few minutes later and Duffield gathered his second to wind up the scoring spree in the second quarter. Musick broke into the scoring column in the third period when he shot through right tackle, seven yards from the Husky goal and planked from the ball behind the line. Saunders piled up another touchdown a few minutes later when he circled right end for the necessary yard right end for the necessary yard after the Trojans had showed the Huskies backwards for 50 yards.

In the last period Coach Howard Jones sent the majorities of his regulars to the showers and a new combination took up the work. Washington waged a fierce battle against the substitutes in an effort to score but the Huskies pounded and passed in vain. Aspit Makes Score

Just as Gun Sounds
When it looked as if the scoring was over with, Major Aspit intercepted a Washington pass on the Husky 25 yard line and sprinted to the goal line as the gun terminated the game. Shaver converted the try for point while hundreds of persons swarmed on to the field.

Stanford's 11 Crushes Bruin Team

By PAUL B. ZIMMERMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A game that decidedly outclassed University of California at Los Angeles eleven which refused to step aside and let Stanford's starwars pass, was crushed before an avalanche of nine touchdowns here today. The score was 57 to 0. From the opening kickoff until the final run Coach Spaulding's Bruins bravely battled their giant opponents, and in the second quarter fought their way to the Cardinal four yard line in a startling offensive, which carried them 44 yards in reverses and spin plays. The efforts were of no avail, for Coach "Pop" Warner's rugged line turned the Bruins back and took the ball on downs. On one other occasion the U. C. L. A. team worked the pigskin to the Stanford 55 yard line, but not farther. Stanford's first score came after four and a half minutes of play. Chuck Smalling, Phil Moffatt and Phil Winnick led a 55 yard parade down the field and Moffatt scored on a six yard line plunge. He kicked goal for the point.

Oregon's Regulars Show Speed in Bearcat Game Running up 34 to 0 Score

EUGENE, Oct. 12.—(Special)—With all of its regulars clicking in their usual positions, contrary to Coach John J. McEwan's previous announcement, the University of Oregon football team defeated Willamette university here today 34 to 0.

Even with all of the lemon-yellow first string men playing, Oregon was unable to advance the ball consistently on straight football, and had to uncover some pretty lateral pass plays and shoot long forward passes over the heads of Willamette's reserve halfbacks, in order to score. Mason, Donohue and Kitzmiller did advance the ball on straight plays at times, but whenever Oregon tried that form of attack for more than a few successive plays, it was dumped for a loss.

Breaks also figured in Oregon's scoring. Robinson intercepted a pass and a little later Oregon recovered the ball on a fumbled punt, to get in position for its first score. A pass: Robinson to Mason, took the ball to the one yard line. This was a "cross-over" pass, Robinson running to the left, then heaving the ball back to the left side of the field. Browne took it over in two tries. Bearcats Threaten Early in Game

Willamette had made its best threat early in the first quarter, when Cardinal intercepted an Oregon lateral pass on Oregon's 13 yard line. After advancing to within 11 yards of the goal, the Bearcats lost the ball on downs. Robinson again put Oregon in scoring position early in the second quarter, by running to Willamette's 22 yard line after receiving a punt. Mason went off tackle to the six yard line, and Donohue went over for a touchdown.

About this time Willamette braced up and began making some yardage itself. For the whole game, the Bearcats made ten first downs to Oregon's 16. But near the end of the second quarter, Robinson returning of punts for long distances put Oregon on top again, and after Lang, Bearcat fullback, had been disabled, the Oregon juggernaut got up steam and Mason scored the third touchdown.

Early in the third quarter Erickson, Bearcat halfback, executed an unusual play. He ran to the right, found the way blocked, dropped back about seven yards, reversed the entire Oregon team and made a 22 yard run for a 15 yard gain to Oregon's 30 yard line. A moment later, however, Oregon recovered a Willamette fumble and spoiled that threat. Webfoot Threat Averted As French Intercepts Pass

In this quarter also Oregon advanced to Willamette's two yard line, but Flock, Bearcat tackle, broke up two plays, forcing Oregon back five yards, and French intercepted a pass, carrying the ball back to Willamette's 35 yard line. Oregon returned the compliment, and had the ball on the 15 yard line again, when Faber picked up a fumble and ran 60 yards, which wasn't allowed under the new rules.

The ball seasawed in Willamette territory until nearly the end of the period, which was scoreless; but just before the teams changed ends, Johnny Kitzmiller, went in, took a lateral pass and dashed to the four yard line. Browne carried the ball over on the second play of the final quarter.

Kitzmiller dominated the scene from then on until another touchdown was scored. He ran a punt back to midfield, then from the 35 yard line ran to the eight yard line on another lateral pass play. He was stopped on the next play but got up and staggered over the goal line for the final touchdown. Long Pass Brings Ball Near Willamette Goal

Still deep in its own territory, Willamette made good yardage in the last quarter, but another break and a long pass gave Oregon the ball on Willamette's four yard line with a minute left to play. The Bearcats held for two downs and the game was over.

The feature play of the entire game was a kickoff return in the second quarter by Ferguson, who dashed through the entire Oregon team and was away for a touchdown, but was overtaken by an Oregon man on Oregon's 30 yard line.

Outstanding defensive work on Willamette's part was done by Carpenter, Lang, Cardinal, Flock, Jones, Ruch and Bashor. French, Lang and Erickson scintillated at times on offense.

GOLF ORGANIZATION PLANS CLUBHOUSE
Construction of an attractive clubhouse at the Salem Golf club course, is being planned by the members, and prospects Saturday were that excavation for the building, to be erected on the site of the present caddy house, may be started early this week. The clubhouse will be of southern Colonial design, sided with shingles. It will be a story and one-half building, 130 by 40 feet. The lower floor will include locker rooms for men and women members, a lounge, a small office and a kitchen. The upper floor will provide living quarters for the caretakers.

SALEM SCORES AGAINST ROOKS

Staters Win 32 to 6; High School Boys Make Good Showing Anyway

"Plenty good" was the opinion of Salem football fans Saturday afternoon as they watched the Salem high school team in the game with the O. S. C. freshmen. Although the high school team came out on the short end of the 32-6 score, the showing they made against their much heavier opponents was good.

The feature of the game was Salem's steady march down the field during the second quarter. Coffey returned the kickoff to the Salem 47-yard line. By straight line bucks, the Salem team marched down to the three-yard line, and Bob Kelly carried the ball over for the score. The line-buck to make the extra point failed.

Powerful Drive Comes as Surprise
This brilliant offensive came as a surprise. Although the high school players had shown considerable spirit and fight in the first quarter, the State freshmen had things practically their own way, and had made their second touchdown shortly after the beginning of the second quarter.

The terrific pace which had made the Salem touchdown had dried the locals, and in the second half the Salem game was largely defensive. However, on receiving the kickoff, they made a first down by scrimmage. Then a punt by Hug gave the ball to the frosh on their 28-yard line. Two runs gave them 30 yards, but Salem rally held the frosh for downs and gave the ball to Salem. The Staters soon had the ball again, and made their third touchdown. Their fourth touchdown was made just before the close of the third period.

Game Listless After Fifth Touchdown Made
Two successive kickoffs at the opening of the last quarter rolled out of bounds and gave the ball to Salem on the 40-yard line. The Staters soon got the ball again and made the fifth score on straight line bucks. After this the game was rather listless, but closed with two beautiful passes by the freshmen.

Time was called only once because of injury to a player, and the penalties were given throughout the game. Persons accompanying the state college players admitted that their team was really the first string, rather than the second or third string which was advertised.

Columbia University Obtains Lone Score on Long Run Following Pass

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Oregon State celebrated Columbus day at the expense of Columbia university of Portland here by downing the fighting Irishmen 71 to 7. The Oregon parade began on the fourth play when Montgomery scored on a fake reverse and ended late in the fourth period when the diminutive Nosler ran back a punt of 55 yards for the eleventh touchdown.

Columbia's lone score came just before the first half ended, when Davis pulled the deadman stunt on his own 20 yard line, taking a pass from Costello and racing 65 yards to score. Only at one other time did Columbia get the ball in Oregon territory, and the Irishmen made no gains from scrimmage.

Opening Lineup Is Composed of Reserves
Coach Schisler started a team of reserves piloted by Montgomery, whose early score was followed by one by Essman. The third string went in at the quarter, making three more touchdowns.
At the half the first string came in to shove two more across. Owen and Essman did the scoring. The opening lineup returned for two more by Montgomery and Hughes and the third string finished the slaughter, Peterson and Nosler doing the scoring.

Columbia was most effective with passes, completing several long ones, but intercepted passes also accounted for two of the Stater's touchdowns, the stand was full of scouts, who saw little as Schisler used only simple plays.

Several times there were three of the five married men lining up in the backfield, but we don't recall that four of them ever were, unless Cranor, Erickson, Lang and Ferguson were all in there at one in the last quarter. Too bad, we didn't notice. Deets was in for a while, but that was while Lang was out.

Anyway those four men, along with French, did most of Willamette's ball carrying. All of them made some nice gains. The Benedict guards, Ruch and Gill, also gained the lightning. Ruch was captain for the day. It was a great day for the family men.

Yes, McEwan kept all his regulars out of the game—excepting Erdley, Colbert, Shields, Stadelman, Little, Christensen, Archer, Kitzmiller, Robinson, Mason and Moeller.

PACIFIC RALLIES TO BEAT ALBANY TEAM

FOREST GROVE, Ore., Oct. 12.—(AP)—A last minute rally by Pacific university pulled its game out of the fire for a 14 to 12 victory over Albany here today. A pass, Damhaff to Sinnaus, put the ball on Albany's five yard line and Gray smashed over for the winning touchdown. Albany had the game "on ice" until the critical stage was reached, then fell before a Pacific onslaught. Pacific scored early in the game on a pass from midfield, Frost to Walker. Charlton converted. Albany then started an aerial attack that netted two touchdowns in the second quarter. Albany withstood repeated Pacific charges under the shadow of its own goal posts.

CURT COMMENTS BY CURTIS

EUGENE, Oct. 12.—Eugene high school promises to be a real contender in football this year after a couple of poor seasons. It showed a world of offensive strength when it walked on the Redmond high eleven here a week ago, but its defensive capabilities were not tested out, as Redmond tried few plays, putting on first or second down every time it got the ball. "Assistant" Coaches Huntington and Manerud have the team further advanced in offensive play than it has ever been at this time of year. Green and Near are the outstanding threats.

Eugene high's strength will be tested more effectively next Saturday when it plays the Fishermen at Astoria.

We don't essay to be a real prophet in this realm of sport. We just make a guess based on what information we have. There is one perfectly safe system which is worked by an eastern paper. This paper is able to do it, because it is a big concern and is able to employ two sport experts. When a big event like the world series comes along, one of these high priced boys picks one team, the other picks the other, and then when it's all over, the paper proudly announces that it had the straight dope from the beginning.

Nevertheless we scored perfect on four guesses Saturday, which brings our guessing average up to .619; 13 right and eight wrong.

The big kick in the Oregon-Willamette game at Eugene Saturday was seeing Ferguson run through the entire Oregon team, returning a kickoff. He was off for a touchdown, but somebody overtook him. Spec's famous wedge worked perfectly that time.

We got another big boot when Erickson, another married man, ran toward the right and was blocked off for a prospective seven or eight yard loss; then cut back, clear around the Oregon team, and ran about 25 yards forward for a 15 yard gain.

The first score came in the opening period when Oregon Normal drove to the Chico 17 yard line. Phillips closed in with his quarterback behind the line, took the ball direct from center and crashed through for a touchdown. He failed to convert.

Chico battled on even terms with the Monmouth eleven until the third period when the sneak play again got Phillips across. Chico displayed a strong offensive but failed time after time when in scoring territory. In three games this season not a point has been scored against Oregon normal.

MISSIONS LOSE BY 6-3 SCORE

Sheiks Continue With Winning Ways After Two Early Reverses

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The Hollywood Stars continued their winning streak at the expense of the Missions today, taking the fifth game of the Pacific Coast league split season playoff by a 6 to 3 score. It was their third straight victory. The Reds won the first two. The Missions led two to nothing when the Stars went to bat in the fifth, but bunched hits gave Hollywood a one run lead. The Missions tied the count at 3 to 3 in the sixth. The tie was short lived, as Hollywood raised the ante to four in their half and in the next inning clinched the game with two more. As a result the Stars were more confident than ever the title series would end tomorrow in their favor.

Angie Johns went the route for the Stars, receiving a surprise call from Oscar Vitt to face Dutch Reuther, whom Red Killercher, Reuther and Johns battled it out in the first game of the series in San Francisco with Reuther winning. Dutch was lifted at the end of the sixth, after the Vitemen had discovered his injured leg made it impossible for him to field bunts, and scored a run as a result of slipping two bouncers through for hits. Krause pitched one inning, but was retired for a pinch hitter, and Hubbell finished the game. Reuther was charged with the defeat.

Hoffman and Slade each hit for the circuit for the Reds, but the less brilliant and better bunched bingles of the Stars proved more effective. Funk got a triple, a double and a single in four trips to the plate, scoring only once. Each team tallied ten safe hits. Clubs Hollywood.....3 2 6-9 Missions.....2 3 4-10

YALE BULLDOG IS BEATEN IN SOUTH

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Yale's big blue team was repulsed in its first southern invasion here today when an inspired University of Georgia team, doped to lose by at least three touchdowns, stopped the vaunted eastern spin plays dead and won 15 to 0.

The game, the first major upset of the current season, dedicated Sanford field, Georgia's new bowl, and was witnessed by a crowd estimated between 30,000 and 35,000.

Airman Waugh, fleet Georgia halfback, who jumped from a third stringer to a hero in the Furman game last week, was a constant threat to the Yale goal, but it was the Georgia line that won the game. The easterners shot everything in the football category at the Georgia wall, but failed to dent it for enough yardage to score.
