

DELEGATES TO MEET ELECTED

Hubbard Club Will be Represented at Convention at Mill City Soon

HUBBARD, Oct. 17.—(Special)—At the "Guest Day" meeting of the Hubbard Woman's club Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Waldo F. Brown delegates to the fall meeting of the Marion county federation of Women's clubs to be held at Mill City October 24, were appointed.

The five delegates were Mrs. Edna Mack, Mrs. Louise Grimps, Mrs. Sadie Scholl, Mrs. Sadie Rich and Mrs. Maud Bidgood.

Mrs. Sadie Rich gave a complete report of the organization meeting for district three of the Oregon federation of Women's clubs, which was held at Salem October 9.

The afternoon's study was "Geography of the Table," and topics as follows were discussed: salt, Eunice Braden; pepper, Kathleen Beckman; tea, Louise Grimps; coffee, Rebecca Cleaver; sugar, Sadie Rich; spices, Edna Mack; chocolate, Maud Bidgood; gelatine, Margaret Anderson; bananas, Ellen Carl; figs and dates, Cobie de Lespinasse, and pineapple, Sadie Scholl.

Told at Roll Call

Response to roll call was made by giving "My Favorite Dish." As Mrs. Merle Stewart, a member of the club quartette, was unable to attend, the remaining three members of the quartette, Mrs. Sadie Scholl, Mrs. Ella Stauffer, and Mrs. Lois Miller sang. The quartette accompanist, Mrs. Kathleen Beckman, was at the piano.

"La Zingara," a piano solo, was played by Miss Betty Brown.

The hostesses, Mrs. Blanche Brown and Mrs. Frances Erickson were assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Brown's children, Betty, Boyd and Wallace. Guests present were Mrs. D. W. Linn, Mrs. Alvin Earl, Mrs. Charles Vredenburg, Mrs. Earl Hecker and Mrs. Mattie Crocker.

MINISTER PENSION PLAN IS EXPLAINED

DALLAS, Oct. 17.—(Special)—E. V. Stivers of Eugene met with the official board of the first Christian church Tuesday evening to lay before them a plan for pensioning retired or disabled ministers of the Christian churches throughout the world.

By this plan every minister agrees to pay into the fund 2½ per cent of his yearly salary and the church puts in a sum amounting to 8 per cent of the salary. In this way a fund is assured to care for the retired or disabled ministers.

So far some 2700 ministers have signed in favor of the plan. No action was taken by the local board of trustees at their meeting, although the sentiment seemed to be favorable, according to members who attended.

Not Guilty is Jury's Verdict

DALLAS, Oct. 17.—(Special)—Mrs. Steena Frederickson was found not guilty by the jury after an hour's deliberation Tuesday evening. Mrs. Frederickson, who was arrested on charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor and possession of liquor, was defended by Oscar Hayter,

Called as Witness

Dr. Thomas Ballard, of New York, former suitor of Mrs. Virginia McPherson, found dead recently with a pajama cord tied around her neck, who appeared at the Department of Justice today and gave what is believed to have been startling information concerning the mystery that has all Washington puzzled. He is shown after conferring with agents.

Community Clubs Are Organizing For New Season

ZENA, Oct. 17.—(Special)—Community clubs of this and neighboring communities are organizing for the season. The Zena club will hold its first regular meeting Friday, October 18, at the Zena school house and officers will be elected.

The Lincoln community club will meet on the fourth Friday in the month as usual, October 25. An hour's program has been planned to be followed by the serving of refreshments.

Graydon Stetson, trustee of Boston university, goes Prof. William E. Rogers one better by urging every girl to be a snob—and marry one.
