

GRANGES HAVE JOINT MEET

Marion County Pomona and Surprise Granges Meet At Turner

TURNER, October 18.—Marion county Pomona grange met with Surprise grange Wednesday October 16. The morning session was taken up with business, Master W. A. Jones in the chair.

Election of officers for the coming two years was the main business transacted. Resulting in election of the following officers: Master, L. S. Lambert of Stayton; secretary, Mrs. W. A. Jones, of Macleay; treasurer, S. H. Trump, Salem chaplain; Mrs. Anna Farris Turner, lecturer; Frank Bowers, of North Howell; steward, H. Taylor of Salem; assistant steward, Arthur Edwards; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Tina Edwards of Turner; gatekeeper, Ellis Steward, North Howell.

A bountiful lunch was served at noon in the dining room to 125. The program was given in the afternoon with Mrs. Alice Funston in the lecturer's chair in the absence of the lecturer, Frank Bowers.

The program opened with a song, "The Grange is Marching On." Instrumental duet, violin and cello by Kenneth and Louis Fowler, with Josephine Gilstrap at the piano. Vocal duet "Spring Time and Melody" by Misses Ilene Robertson and Josephine Gilstrap. They also gave "Playmates," and "Where the Sun Shines." Readings by Mrs. Jennie Van Trump. "Bobolink" by Bryant and "To an Irish Blackbird."

Mrs. A. Williams of Stayton gave a humorous selection "The Fish Story." Mrs. Alice Funston by request, gave a reading "A Woman Farmer's Life." Musical selections by Roy Meyers and Otto Whitides, on accordion and mouth harp. The speaker of the day was given by S. H. Shrock on "The Good of the Order." Mr. Shrock was a visitor and as master of Clackamas county Pomona. Closing song, "Oregon Suits Me."

The next Pomona grange meeting will be with Monitor grange in January. All were urged to go to the national grange meet in Seattle in November.

Miss Bertha Beck, state secretary of Albany, was a visitor, and gave a helpful talk.

A. MOORE INJURED WHEN LADDER SLIPS

SILVERTON, Oct. 18.—A. Moore, who was brought to the Silvertown hospital Tuesday with a broken leg and badly bruised arm, is resting easier and not in quite as much pain as he was at first.

Mr. Moore is a painter. He was painting his own house on his farm three miles east of Silvertown when the accident occurred. The ladder on which he was standing slipped throwing him twelve feet down onto a concrete sidewalk. Both bones in his left leg were broken right above his ankle and his one arm was painfully bruised.

IN HOSPITAL
DALLAS, Oct. 18.—E. J. Howe, surveyor for Polk county was taken to the state receiving hospital in Salem, Thursday morning by Sheriff T. B. Hooker and Judge G. L. Hawkins. Mr. Howe has been in ill health for some time and it was at his own request that he was taken to the hospital for observation and treatment.

Hobo Appropriates Auto Robe at Jefferson Home

JEFFERSON, Oct. 18.—Hoboes find it real uncomfortable sleeping out doors these cool nights without bedding. Tuesday evening at about eight o'clock a hobo spied an auto robe lying on the K. S. Thurston porch, appropriating it for his own use that night.

Later in the evening the hobo was at the Stage Terminal, having a robe around his shoulders.

At the time, nothing was thought of that. The next morning the McKee Bros. found the robe lying in the laundry room; the hobo leaving it, when he left.

Thurston's missed the robe the same evening, but never expected to see it again; and were surprised when they learned that the robe which was left at the Terminal proved to be theirs.

MARION CLUB HAS A FINE PROGRAM

MARION, Oct. 18.—The Marion Community club held its second meeting of the season at the W. O. W. hall Tuesday evening with a very good attendance.

After the transaction of the usual club business, presided over by Mrs. Herbert Dune, a very enjoyable program was presented consisting of a piano solo by Miss Lula Lewis, "Irish Wash Woman Dance" by Hazel Murphy, piano duets by Miss Ida Deefler and Miss Lula Lewis of Stayton and a piano solo by Master Wilburn Russell and it goes without saying that every one enjoyed the program.

The assistance our neighbors give us in putting on these programs is most assuredly appreciated by the club.

SILVERTON ELECTRIC STORE IS SOLD

SILVERTON, Oct. 18.—The Silvertown Electric store, owned and managed by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Preston, was sold this week to Frank Berry and Ivan Talbot of Hood River. Mr. Berry and Mr. Talbot were formerly employed by the Apple City Electric company.

Mr. Talbot is the son-in-law of Rev. and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone of Silvertown. Both Mr. Talbot and Mr. Berry expect to move their families to Silvertown in the near future. Mr. Berry said that his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Neill, also expect to make Silvertown their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston have been in business at Silvertown for the past 23 years. At present they have not decided what they will do.

SILVERTON HAS TWO GROCERY STORES

SILVERTON, Oct. 18.—Silvertown is to have two new grocery stores in the near future. The one is the Piggy Wiggy which opens in the Walford building here on October 26th. Frank Doane of Albany will manage this. The other store will be a cash and carry opening under the firm name of Julius Alm & Son. This will be located in the newly completed Warden building. Henry Alm will manage this. The firm already has one grocery store, the old Julius Alm & Son which has been here for over 25 years. This will not be discontinued but will continue to operate as a credit store.

Woodburn High Elects Yell Leader And Song Queen

WOODBURN, Oct. 18.—Woodburn high school held tryouts and elected the cheer leaders for the following year Thursday morning.
