

POLK FARMERS RECEIVE PRIZES

Farm Products Displayed at County Fair Are of Fine Quality; Win Prizes

DALLAS, October 19.—Polk county farmers displayed their usual skill at the recent county fair and the following prizes were awarded:

VEGETABLES
 Stock carrots, J. F. Heritage first; Mangel-wurzels, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. William Lee second; rutabagas, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. George Van Otten second; beans any variety, Imogene Tidd first; James Boydston second; beet any variety, T. J. Alsp first; J. F. Heritage second; cabbage any variety, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. Joe Rodgers second; carrots any table variety, Mrs. William Lee first, J. F. Heritage second; cauliflower any variety, J. F. Heritage first; Imogene Tidd second; cucumbers any variety, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. L. Williams second; onions any variety, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. J. E. Goetz second; parsnips any variety, Rogers & Sons first, J. F. Heritage second; peppers any variety, Mrs. George Ball first; Imogene Tidd second; tomatoes any red variety, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. Gus Prant second; tomatoes any yellow variety, J. F. Heritage first; potatoes any early variety, Imogene Tidd first, Mrs. J. E. Goetz second; potatoes any late variety, J. F. Heritage first; Mrs. Joe Rodgers second; squash any variety, J. F. Heritage first, Mrs. M. Arant second; muskmelons any variety, Lanaughn Bigelow first; J. F. Heritage second; watermelons any variety, J. F. Heritage (Falls City) first. Best display of vegetables of 10 or more varieties, Henry Domes first; J. F. Heritage second. Best display of certified potatoes not less than one bushel, J. W. Willis first.

HORTICULTURE
 Baldwin apples, J. E. Goetz first, for single, 3 and 5 tray exhibit; King apples, single tray, Dr. Powell first; Miles Davis second; Jonathan apples, single tray, John B. Ediger second; Spitzenberg apples, J. E. Goetz first for single 3 and 5 tray exhibits; Roman Beauty, single tray, W. H. Kerr first; Charles Guy second; 3 and 5 tray, Charles Guy first; Yellow Newton apples, single tray, J. E. Goetz first, W. H. Kerr second; 3 and 5 tray exhibit, J. E. Goetz first; Delicious apples, single tray James Boydston first, W. H. Kerr second; 3 tray, James Boydston second; Grimes Golden apples, single tray, W. H. Kerr first; Miles Davis second; 3 and 5 tray, J. E. Goetz second; Northern Spy, single, 3 and 5 tray exhibits, all first to J. E. Goetz; Orley apples, single 3 and 5 tray exhibits, all first to J. E. Goetz; Bosc pears, single tray, J. E. Goetz first; Clairgou pears, A. R. Ewing first; Concord grapes, Rogers & Sons second; blackberries, Mrs. Joe Rodgers first; Italian dried prunes, single tray, G. W. Curtis first; Rogers & Sons second; best display of 5 or more trays, G. W. Curtis first; Rogers & Sons second; Franquette nuts, Dr. Powell, Monmouth first; Mayette nuts, Dr. Powell, Monmouth first; Barcelona filberts, Dr. Powell, Monmouth first; Du Chilli filberts, W. F. McCall, Salem Rt. 1; best display of nuts, 4 varieties, Dr. Powell first.

FARM PRODUCTS
 Red winter wheat, any variety in sheaf, S. H. Robison, first; white winter wheat, any variety in sheaf, Ed Gwelchmal first and second; white winter wheat, threshed grain, Ed Gwelchmal first and second; white winter wheat, threshed grain, Ed Gwelchmal first and Henry Domes second; red spring wheat any variety in sheaf, Ed Gwelchmal first; red spring wheat threshed grain, Ed Gwelchmal first; White spring wheat any variety, in sheaf, F. E. Pence, first; White spring wheat, threshed grain, Ed Gwelchmal first; Club winter oats, any variety in sheaf, C. D. Malrn, first; Winter oats any variety in sheaf, Ed Gwelchmal first and second; Winter oats, threshed grain, Henry Domes, first; Spring oats, threshed grain, Ed Gwelchmal first; Winter barley, threshed grain, Henry Domes, first; Spring barley, threshed grain, Henry Domes, first; best display of oat sheaves, Ed Gwelchmal first and second; best bushel threshed wheat, Henry Domes first, Ed Gwelchmal second; best bushel threshed oats, Ed Gwelchmal first, Rogers & Sons second; Red clover, threshed exhibit, Henry Domes first; Orchard grass in sheaf, T. J. Alsp first; Eye grass threshed exhibit, T. J. Alsp first; Winter vetch, threshed exhibit, Henry Domes, first; Kale, 3 specimens, Mrs. Joe Rodgers first; J. F. Heritage second; threshed exhibit, Samuel Garner, first, William Garner second; best display of sheaf and threshed flax, Ed Gwelchmal first; 12 stalks ensilage corn, Mrs. Joe Rodgers, first; 12 stalks broom stalks of sunflowers, Miles Davis first; T. J. Alsp, second; 10 ears yellow dent corn, Mrs. Joe Rodgers first, E. E. Wann second; 10 ears early sweet corn, T. J. Alsp first, J. F. Heritage second; 10 ears late sweet corn, Mrs. T. J. Alsp first, Mrs. Joe Rodgers second; 10 ears popcorn, small, T. J. Alsp, first; 10 ears popcorn, large, Le Roy Bigelow, first; La Vaughn bale, Horst & company, Independence, first.

HONEY PRODUCTS
 Best fireweed honey in comb, Lucille Mead, first; valley honey extracted, Lucille Mead first, Mrs. Joe Rodgers second; beeswax, bright yellow, Lucille Mead, first and second; honey vinegar, Mrs. Hattie Black first, Mrs. Joe Rodgers second; collection of cooked food made with honey, Mrs. A. V. Oliver, first; honey plants mounted, Lucille Mead second.

Zena

ZENA, October 21.—Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Merrick of Zena are the proud parents of a baby daughter born to them Friday at 6:35 a. m. at the Bungalow Maternity home at Salem. The little girl weighed six pounds at birth. She has been named Audrey Ilene. A brother Chester, aged 5 years, welcomes the little new sister to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Grimm of Lincoln were agreeably surprised Wednesday when an old friend, Mrs. Lottie Perdue of Oakland, Oregon, whom they had not seen for 20 years, made them a visit. She was accompanied by Mrs. George Perdue and son Alven of Monitor, Oregon. Mrs. George Perdue is a sister of Mrs. Grimm.

Captain J. M. Spong of Salem was a dinner guest Thursday at the home of his brother-in-law, C. S. Crangle of Lincoln. Captain Spong has charge of the government lights between Lincoln and Salem.

Wayne D. Henry made a business trip to Portland Saturday accompanied by his nephew, Frank Crawford, Jr. They attended the football game between Idaho and University of Oregon in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Stephens and daughter Patie and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Low and their small son, Darrel, left here Friday enroute to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. The two families spent the fruit picking season in Zena on the ranch of W. T. Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fredericks of Portland were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Walling of Lincoln.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Worthington and son Dale were Wednesday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. G. McClaughey of Lake Labish.

Kenneth Hunt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Hunt of Zena is convalescing from a severe cold which threatened to become pneumonia. The lad finished the eighth grade at the Zena school and is now a student at the Salem high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Simpson of Salem were Sunday evening visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Crawford of Zena. Clyde Simpson is overseer at the Cottage farm at Salem.

Mrs. George Boyd of Lincoln motored to Albany Sunday to visit her sister, Miss Georgia Mills who is a patient at the Albany General hospital. Miss Mills is recovering satisfactorily from an appendicitis operation. She was moved to the home of her brother, Kenneth Mills of Albany Friday.

Dallas

DALLAS, October 21.—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Evans of Portland visited at the L. E. Viers home Monday. Mr. Evans and Mrs. Viers are brothers and sister, and the Evans' lived in Dallas until a year ago.

Mrs. Oscar Ellis drove out from Taft Thursday to bring her mother who is returning to Santa Barbara after a visit of several weeks here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Z. M. Knight of Seaside, are visiting in Dallas for a week or so. The Scotts are guests of their son, Ray and family, and the Knights are with their daughter, Mrs. John Hollingsworth. Both families lived in Dallas until a few years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Helgeson of Portland were week end guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hamilton at Rickreall. Mr. Helgeson was district attorney of Polk county at one time.

Floyd Senter, deputy in the sheriff's office, and Mrs. Addie Holman were married at the home of her parents Sunday morning. They will make their home on the Boydston orchard property just at the edge of town, and her parents will move into town to live.

Mrs. E. L. Sperry who committed suicide at the state hospital a few days ago, made her home in Dallas for several years. She was a widow and was taken to Salem at her own request some time ago.

Mrs. Lew Ballantyne is now able to be out following the amputation of a thumb at the first joint, after a serious case of infection.

Henry Fund and family of Mountain Lake, Minn., are located in Dallas for the winter, and may decide to purchase a place in the spring if they like the country. There are several families in Dallas from Mountain Lake.

Mrs. Wynne Johnson, a former resident, has been in Dallas for several days looking after the harvesting of the prune crop on her place in the Mt. Pisgah section. Mrs. Johnson has been making her home in Stockton, Calif., for some time.

M. E. Grant, P. J. Walton, Varum Shreve and Wayne Polk make up one hunting party who are in eastern Oregon. A second party of Hugh G. Black, Roy Black, Finley Whitney and Al Cagle are in the Oakridge section.

J. C. Uglow, Mrs. Oscar Hayter and Mrs. Ivan Warner were in Salem Monday evening for the opening program of the Chamber Music society. They have a season membership.

Jack Eakin has received his commission as captain in the quartermaster corps reserve.

George H. Eberling, radio operator of the S. S. Van Vincent, made a short visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Eberling. For some time he was with the geodetic survey along the coast, but has been on the present ship some eight months.

Mrs. Saldie Orr-Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, will be the afternoon speaker at the session of the Polk county Pomona grange to be held in Rickreall October 26.

Jud Foster who has managed the farm of his father in the Bridgeport section for several years, is leaving for Marshfield where he has purchased an interest in a garage with Austin Titus a former Dallas man.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, Oct. 19.—Miss Hazel Sherwood, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherwood of near Marion, who fell from a horse while riding horseback, broke her wrist. Dr. Van Winkle reduced the fracture and Miss Hazel is carrying her arm in a sling. She is a student of the Jefferson high school.

Herbert Looney underwent a major operation Wednesday morning at the Salem hospital. Dr. Robertson performed the operation.

J. L. Jones of Portland spent the first of the week in Jefferson looking after property interests.

Mrs. Pearl McKee, Mrs. Charles Miller, Mrs. Fred Looney and Chester Miller were Salem business visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Kate Spragg is having extensive improvements made on her house on Third street. T. O. Keeter is busy putting new underpinning under the house, and the inside walls will be refinished. Mrs. Spragg and son Gilbert spent Wednesday evening in Albany, where Mrs. Spragg attended the Royal Neighbor lodge.

Fred Seehale left Thursday morning for San Francisco where he will enter the S. P. R. R. company hospital for treatment. Mr. Seehale returned to work as seamstress man after his last illness about two weeks ago, but was unable to continue with his work.

Dr. Douglas of the Marion County Child Health Unit will hold a toxin-anti-toxin clinic for pre-school and school children at the school house in Jefferson, Monday, October 21, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. S. E. Roland and Mrs. Pickard of Marion, were guests of Mrs. J. H. Roland Thursday afternoon.

Mountain View

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Oct. 19.—Guests of Mrs. William Bouffler and of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bouffler, Sunday, were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. DeLap of Auburn. The Boufflers and the DeLaps are friends of many years standing, having been neighbors long ago in Wisconsin.

Mrs. Osie Best who teaches the Popeora school is staying at the home of her sister, Mrs. Robert Adams, while her husband, James Best, is in southern Oregon hunting deer.

Miss Pauline Patterson of Salem, was a dinner guest at the J. R. Chapman home Tuesday evening.

Mrs. William Bouffler is suffering from a badly infected hand. The trouble was caused by an imbedded blackberry brier. She is under the care of a physician and the hand is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Rourke and daughter Winifred, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Chapman Sunday afternoon. The home of the O'Rourkes is at Dundee but Miss Winifred is employed in the insurance department of a real estate firm in Portland.

Ben Belts and family are moving from the J. E. Chapman tented house to the little green cottage on the Mike Schwartz place.

L. Geice and James Best started Saturday morning for Lake county in quest of deer. George Doran, Lester Lippert and Mr. and Mrs. Will Best of Newberg, who are to be members of the same camping party left Tuesday. They expect to hunt in the mountainous region adjacent to Paisley.

Fox Elsinore-Now

FREE BOOKLET
 Describing Causes and Effects of PILES and other RECTAL and COLON AILMENTS
 CURING PILES WITHOUT SURGICAL OPERATION
 WRITE OR CALL FOR BOOKLET TODAY
DR. CHAS. J. DEAN
 RECTAL and COLON CLINIC
 624 N. 4TH ST. - OPP. COURTYARD HOUSE
 7TH & MAIN STS. - PORTLAND, OREGON
 TELEPHONE AT WATER 2001
 APPOINTED OFFICE 2
 287 N. SAN FRANCISCO
 LOS ANGELES

Colored violet

Valvoline GASOLINE
 for easy identification

"A Loaf of 'SNOWFLAKE' please"

HERE IS THE wholesome, appetizing loaf that best serves the bread needs of the average family; and most economically, too. Weighing a full pound and a half, it is the right quantity for nine out of ten families . . . big enough to provide plenty of bread for every meal of the day, and still small enough so that it is used up without waste.

And such flavor! The pure, first-quality ingredients, perfectly baked in a modern, spotlessly clean bakery, combine to give you a loaf that is a delicious filler for any meal and a loaf which is preferred by good cooks for use in the many recipes that call for bread. For sandwiches and toast you will find the square slices from this delicious loaf just right.

ORDER IT TODAY FROM YOUR GROCER!

HILLMAN'S Snowflake BUTTER-NUT BREAD

CHERRY CITY BAKING CO.