

How to Play BRIDGE Series 1929-30 by Wynne Ferguson Author of "PRACTICAL AUCTION BRIDGE"

ARTICLE No. 1 "Bug" Baer, the well-known humorist, has some amusing ideas of the game of Auction Bridge, of which the following are some of the gems:

- Hearts—3, 2 Clubs—J, 7, 6, 4, 2 Diamonds—K, 5, 3 Spades—A, 8, 6, 4 Hearts—K, 8, 7, 5, 4 Clubs—none Diamonds—Q, J, 10 Spades—K, Q, J, 10, 9

No score, rubber game. Z dealt, bid four hearts, A doubled and all passed. A led the king of spades. How should Z play the hand to make game against any defense? Figure this out before reading the following solution.

The mistakes that most players will make with this hand are as follows:

- (1) Allowing A to win the first trick. In this case, if the ace of spades is played from Dummy on the second round A can defeat the contract if he refuses to win the first trick in hearts.

(2) A great number of players after winning the first trick with the ace of spades in Dummy would make Dummy lead a club, which, according to

Problem No. 1 Hearts—3, 2 Clubs—none Diamonds—10, 9, 8, 7 Spades—5, 2 Hearts—J, 10, 9 Clubs—7, 6 Diamonds—none Spades—J, 10, 9

Diamonds are trumps and Z is in the lead. How can Y play the hand so that they will win all of the tricks against any defense? Solution in the next article.

NEGLECT AND STRAIN DANGEROUS TO SIGHT

Failure to Heed Warning of Eye Pains May Lead to Trouble, Says Authority, Urging Examination and Correction of Possible Physical Causes.

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M. D. United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

PERHAPS there is no more common symptom than pain in the eyes. It may be constant or fleeting. It may be an ache, a grumbling sensation, or it may be an acute and cutting pain.

Pain may be the only symptom, but sometimes there may be redness of the lids or eyeball. There may be swelling or drooping of the lids or they may stick together.

The pain may be in the eyes, or over the eyes, or around the eyes. It may shoot into the temples, or up over the head.

Sometimes the pain takes the form of a headache. Perhaps it is a sick headache, the pain running from the eyes to the stomach.

You may go to bed apparently perfectly well and suddenly awaken from sleep, conscious of excruciating pains in the eyes. I doubt if any kind of severe pain is more agonizing than the pain from inflammation, or ulceration of the eyes or ears.

The causes of eye pain are many. Perhaps the most common is eye strain. This may be due to the excessive use of a pair of normal eyes, or it may come from the need of glasses.

VALSETZ HAS GAY TIMES Social Activities of Mill Town Numerous During Fall Season

VALSETZ, Oct. 23.—The social activities for the winter began Thursday night with a big card party in the community hall, under the auspices of the P. T. A.

Eleven tables of bridge and seven tables of "500" were in play during the evening. Two high score prizes were given for both games.

A birthday dinner was given Mrs. Tom Dimitry at her home near Camp 1, Wednesday. The guests were Mrs. Guy Lewis, Mrs. Jerry Morris, Mrs. Charles Kellogg and Mrs. Fred Zaver.

The season's first dance was given Saturday night in the community hall by the Community Club. A four-piece orchestra, composed of home talent, furnished the music for the evening.

INDEPENDENCE COW BREAKS RECORDS

Lion's Liliac, Owned by H. D. Iliff, Adds to Record Breaking Fame

INDEPENDENCE, October 23.—A new world championship dairy production record in the Jersey breed has been established here by the Lion's Liliac, a three-year-old cow owned by Harry D. Iliff, a dairyman of this vicinity.

This cow produced 926.65 pounds of butterfat and 13,844 pounds of milk in 305 days, breaking the world record of the breed in all ages.

This same cow already holds the world record for yearlings of the breed, having produced 742.44 pounds of butterfat and 10,752 pounds of milk in a 305-day test two years ago.

Completion of this record gives Mr. Iliff the distinction of being the first Jersey breeder in the world to have four cows that have yielded 1000 pounds of butterfat each in a year.

Broccoli—the Artistic Cabbage— Becomes a Real Favorite

BROCCOLI used to be in the "pate de foie gras" class—something served only in expensive dining places. It still remains a high-priced item on restaurant menus.

Broccoli is botanically, of the cabbage family. But in appearance it's a cross between cauliflower and celery.

Rev. Cole is moving to Jefferson where he will be pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church at that place. The evening was spent in singing, playing games and in conversation, after which refreshments were served.

B. M. DIMICK RITES HELD AT WOODBURN

WOODBURN, Oct. 22.—Funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal church Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock for Benjamin M. Dimick, old time resident of this district and friend of many.

1 teaspoon lemon juice 1 teaspoon chopped pickle 1 egg yolk water Melt butter, blend flour and boiling water, adding gradually so that only enough is used to make a smooth mixture.

Broccoli, Butter Sauce. 2 lbs. broccoli, cooked 4 tablespoons butter 2 tablespoons lemon juice 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/4 teaspoon pepper Melt butter, add lemon juice and seasonings, and while hot pour over the hot broccoli.

Broccoli, Tartare Sauce. 2 lbs. broccoli, cooked 1 tablespoon butter 1 tablespoon flour cold broccoli. Broccoli makes an excellent salad, and can be served with any of the cooked or mayonnaise dressings—just as one does with asparagus. No other green or lettuce need be used—it should be served by itself. Indeed few cooked greens combine with any of the raw lettuces, since one is naturally limp and the other crisp.

Chill the broccoli, and just before serving place a tablespoon of mayonnaise on top of each plate. Or serve broccoli separately accompanied by a bowl of mayonnaise or Russian dressing.

Chill the broccoli, and just before serving place a tablespoon of mayonnaise on top of each plate. Or serve broccoli separately accompanied by a bowl of mayonnaise or Russian dressing.
