MONMOUTH, October 23 .-Shop equipment of the Monmouth Bakery was sold under foreclosure yesterday by Sheriff T. B. Hooker of Dallas, to E. Myers and W. B. Wheeler of Salem. V. E. Silcott was the legal property holder. The bakery, formerly operated by J. D. Haussler, was closed because of litigation proceedings 6 weeks ago. It will be opened this week in the same location by Myers & Wheeler who are adding additional equipment including bun divider to the already modern furnishings of the shop, and who will maintain a complete bakery line, both wholesale and retail.

Myers has served as shop fore-man both for the Dixle and Cherry City baking companies of Salem; and Wheeler as pastry cook for the Cherry City firm, and both men plan to move their families to Monmouth for permanent residence as soon as business negotiations can be consummated. ACTIVE MANY LINES
