

LIVESTOCK IS SOLD AT FAIR

Auction Staged at Pacific International Exposition Yesterday

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 30.—(AP)—Auction of livestock exhibited at the Pacific International Livestock exposition here by boys and girls in 4-H club work was the feature of today's long program.

Clyde Dunn, Wapato, Wash., sold his champion fat steer to Aaron Frank of this city for 50 cents a pound. The 10 month old shorthorn weighed 735 pounds. George Bahler, Boise, who won the championship for the best pen of hogs, obtained 14 cents a pound for his prize winning Duroc Jersey. Phillip Sawyer, Emmett, Idaho, received $11.15 cents a pound for his grand champion lamb.

The 4-H youngsters sold 21 head of cattle, 290 head of hogs and 50 head of sheep on the auction block.

In major competition awards in the sheep division were completed today. Cass A. Nichols, Salem, Ore., did unusually well in this department, winning five purple ribbons with his Chester whites. John B. Warren, Kingsburg, Cal., took the junior championship for sows in the breed. T. A. Dittmars, Gervais, Ore., and A. N. Doerfler, Silverton, split honors in the Duroc Jersey division.

J. M. Frantz, Cambridge, Idaho, won the senior and grand championship on sows and the junior championship on boards.

In the sheep department Harry T. Crandell, Cass City, Mich., took the championship on Cotswolds and Oxford rams.

Judging of Holsteins was completed today. The Western Canning and Dairy company, White Sulphur Springs, Mont., winner of the grand championship on bulls in that breed repeating on cows. The junior championship went to Hardgrave & Arnold, Norwalk, Iowa.

Adam Seitz and sons, Waukecha, Wis., took the field on bulls in the Ayrshires, winning the grand, senior and junior championships.

D. Eymann Huff, Orange, California, won all three bull championships in the Jersey class.

MILK SCANDAL IS EXPLAINED IN TALK

Portland's present agitation over its milk supply, really grew out of an effort already under way to improve a situation which was by no means the scandal it has been made out to be, it was stated by Dr. R. L. Benson of the Portland health bureau in an address before the Salem Rotary club at its Wednesday luncheon.

The program undertaken by the health bureau involved the removal of one man from the milk inspection force, and this man, backed apparently by a newspaper, which the speaker did not name, has created all the agitation.

Portland's infant death rate has been for several years one of the lowest in the nation among cities of over 100,000 population.

Of the standard specimens prepared by the state public health service, were pointed out by Milton M. Miller, associated in the work of that agency, who is seeking adoption of this ordinance generally in Oregon. Salem is the only city in Oregon which has adopted it.

The speaker explained that this ordinance does not bar any milk, but that it establishes grades based on sanitary precautions and bacteria count, and the public may choose whether to buy safe milk or product that may not be safe.

COMMISSION WILL ORDER MORE WORK

608; a dike a mile in length at Yaquina Bay, resurfacing of the Fox Orchard river section; a bridge at Wahanna creek and another at Larson Slough. Completion of these projects will leave the only unfinished gap in Douglas and Lane counties. Douglas county sent a letter which was read at the meeting offering to contribute $9000 to a project that will cost about $100,000 a mile north of Gardiner.

Expedition of construction of the Central Oregon highway was indicated by the statement that of the 130 miles between Bend and Burns, more than 30 miles were graded this year and the work is still progressing rapidly.

Because of the many angles and controversies over the location of the Central Oregon highway the commission announced it will make a personal inspection of the routes probably during the first week of December.

The last gap of the Mitchell-Deyville road, 10 miles in length, will be advertised in two units. It was decided at the meeting, providing engineers can complete plans in time. This project is listed for December letting, the road will be an important link in cross-state traffic.

Wins Honors

In the national rifle matches held at Camp Perry, Ohio, last August, Harvey Wright, senior in the University of Oregon, shot for third place. He was also individual high point shot in the U. O. T. C. at the university last year.

One of these three projects on the Old Oregon Trail will be advertised: La Grande to Hot Lake, 9 miles; Pleasant Valley-Durkee, 11.5 miles; or Wetsler Junction-Ontario, 20 miles.

The commission ordered a new bridge to cross the Rogue river at Grants Pass for the Pacific highway.

A delegation from Morrow county was advised that its request for more work on the Hesperian-Spray road would be taken up with the forest service and United States bureau of public roads at the annual conference in December.

A delegation from Crook county was informed that until the Central Oregon highway is finished from Bend to Burns the commission does not want to start work on laterals. The Crook county delegation requested completion of the Bear creek road.

The commission indicated it intended to build a dike or approach into Yaquina Bay from the south and to operate a ferry across to Newport since a bridge across the bay will be one of the last projects of its kind for the coast highway.

The dike matter was said to be in the negotiation stage with government engineers. It was said the project probably would be offered for bids in December.

The commission announced it would prosecute persons who tear up old surfaces with tractors.

Linn county donated to the commission for public park purposes a small strip of ocean beach near Seal Rocks.

years hence, as the city's assessed valuations would then be greatly increased.

Firemen to Get No Vacation With Pay
Objection to the reduction in the fire department salaries budget was voiced by Alderman Dancy, chairman of the fire and water committee. He declared that the firemen would be deprived of vacations on pay, unless the $1920 budget for this purpose was provided. Mr. Purvins said in view of the two mill levy, the appropriation for fire protection seemed amply high, to which Mr. Dancy replied that this special levy could be used for improvements and their maintenance, only. The item was not increased.

A like fate was in store for Mr. Dancy's request that an item for betterment and repair, $700, be added to the fire department expense budget. Alderman Patton pointed out that the department had not expanded all of its allowance for gas and oil this year, suggesting that the surplus of this item might be devoted to repairs. Mr. Dancy replied that the estimate sheet's statement of gas and oil expenditure was erroneous, and added that two additional pumps will be put into use in the coming year.

Transfer of Funds
Not Decided on
Mayor Livesey broadened the matter of transferring back to the bridge fund, amounts which had been expended from it for bridge approaches, right of way and construction of sewers under new bridges. It was decided that this was not a matter for the budget committee, but for the council, to consider. No mention was made of the mayor's announced plan to devote a portion of the two mill levy for street and bridge repair, to replacement of dilapidated wooden bridges.

The members of the budget committee were Charles Pratt, Curtis Cross, W. E. Park, Paul Hauser, E. W. Cooley, F. H. Paul, A. N. Childs, James H. Nicholson, E. A. Rhoden, Dr. Fred Ellis, Walter Winslow, Harvey Girod and E. L. Weider in addition to the mayor and members of the council.

Committees Are Now Assigned By Chemeketas

At a meeting of the Chemeketa executive council Tuesday night, committee assignments for the general membership were announced as follows:

MADAME CURIE GIVEN $50,000

Hoover Makes Presentation Of Sum to be Used in Research Work

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—(AP)—In the presence of a distinguished company of American officials and scientists, Madame Curie was presented today with a bank draft for $50,000 by President Hoover to carry on her research in the Curie Polish cancer hospital and laboratory in Warsaw.

Recalling the important discoveries made by the French scientists with radium, the president said the gift was an expression on the part of the American people for their gratitude for the "beneficent service Madame Curie has given to all mankind."

Accepting the silver-encased draft, Madame Curie thanked Mr. Hoover in a voice scarcely audible in the vaulted auditorium. She promised to carry it back with her as a symbol of enduring friendship binding your country to France and to Poland.

The ceremonies, which were under the direction of Dr. William Welsh of Johns Hopkins university, Baltimore, were attended by several hundred persons including many prominent scientists, doctors and representatives from the senate and the diplomatic corps. The radium fund was raised under the supervision of Mrs. William Brown Meloney from contributions made by American women in all parts of the country.

Carl Ostrin Is Taken by Death Late Yesterday

Carl Ostrin, father of Carl H. Gustav A., and E. F. Ostrin of the Salem Sanitary Milk company, died at the residence at 1815 Trade street Wednesday night after an illness of pneumonia, which he contracted last Saturday. He had been well and working up to that time. He was born in Stockholm, Sweden, 25 years ago.

Mr. Ostrin came to this country 16 years ago, residing in Burlington, Iowa, until coming to Salem in 1912. He was a member of the Baptist church. Mrs. Ostrin died here five years ago last spring.

Besides the three sons, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. M. R. Mohr, of Salem and seven grandchildren. No funeral arrangements have been made. The remains are in charge of the Clough-Taylor company.

Complain Against Peddler Nuisance

Bothered for years by house to house solicitors selling almost every conceivable article of merchandise local housewives are complaining of the increasing number of calls being made on them this fall by people selling Christmas cards.

Seldom do these solicitors represent local merchants. When they do housewives do not object to their calling.

As one indignant lady put it, "When every Tom, Dick and Harry goes into the Christmas card business and camps on my front porch day after day, keeping me from my work, I get tired of it."

"It doesn't seem to me that it is quite fair to our local merchants to allow such people to sell cards when they pay no taxes or license fee for the privilege. It's bound to hurt the merchant's business and anything which hurts local business doesn't do the town any good."

"I, for one, am going to buy my cards from a regular card dealer, just as I did last year. So all these Christmas card peddlers can strike my name off their list of prospects. I'll save them a lot of time and me a lot of bother."

Recalled by England

General Nuri Pasha, Iraq's Minister of Defense, taken at the Iraq Diplomatic Agency following his recall. It is said that England's new defense policy necessitated his withdrawal following the decision of Great Britain to support Iraq's entry to the League of Nations in 1932.

This will be the fourth of a series of church night gatherings. At 6:30 o'clock there will be a potluck supper, followed by a group sing after which Mr. Thompson will speak. There will be a story hour for the children under the direction of Mrs. Johanna Ulrich.

ROY OLMSTED NOW INFORMER

Notorious Liquor Runner is Declared to Have Told On Associates

SEATTLE, Oct. 30.—(AP)—The Seattle Post-Intelligencer will say tomorrow that Roy Olmsted, convicted liquor runner and once head of a large liquor distribution industry in the Pacific northwest, has "laid his cards" before the department of justice in Washington, D. C., Olmsted, former Seattle police lieutenant, is now serving a term in the federal penitentiary at McNeil island for conspiracy to violate the dry law.

The paper will say that Olmsted's affidavit now before the department is understood to reveal to whom he paid various sums in the course of his transactions and that 16 other persons, most of them members of Olmsted's former organization, have given corroborative affidavits.

These documents, the Post-Intelligencer will say, are said to have enabled the department to verify other evidence previously in its possession and that a special federal grand jury is expected to be called shortly to consider the allegations.

Olmsted and those members of his former organization who are now in prison, the paper will say, are expected to be taken before the grand jury when the investigation reaches that stage.

Swope Resigns Job as Chief Of Lions Club

Cecil A. Swope, who has been president of the Salem Lions club since the annual election last summer, is announcing his resignation from that office in the club's weekly bulletin which will appear today. He gives as his reason for resigning, inability to devote sufficient time to the work in view of his other interests.

The Lions' charter provides that a vacancy in the office of president shall be filled by the first vice president, who is C. F. Giese. Mr. Giese spends several days each week in other cities of the Willamette valley, and it is not known here whether he will accept the office. If he does not, Frank Doolittle is next in line.

World's oldest flying organization endorses new fuel that gives 26% quicker starting without loss of Mileage.

WITH 42 complete air schools already in operation, Curtiss-Wright Flying Service has taken the lead in training pilots to meet the urgent demands of our rapidly expanding commercial aviation.

Its pilots and instructors are drawn from the Army and Navy. Its planes are recognized as the safest that can be built. Its ground and air courses are as complete as those of the military schools.

To serve this winning combination Curtiss-Wright has just announced, after careful consideration of many motor fuels, the selection of New Super UNION Gasoline.

Starts 26% Quicker
Tests on full, half, and no choke have proved this fuel to be 26% quicker starting than ordinary gasolines. Other definite features are elimination of slow speed "bucking" previously apparent in most winter gasolines... improved performance throughout entire driving range... minimized knocking and slightly increased power.

Yet all these advantages are obtained without loss of Mileage, which has long been an outstanding feature of UNION Gasoline.

Accept no substitutes
Remember that in the New Super UNION or UNION ETHYL only, can you obtain these advantages that have won the endorsement of such leading firms as the Curtiss-Wright Flying Service.

So to guarantee yourself the best results in motoring this winter, make it a daily habit to stop at the Blue and White UNION or UNION ETHYL pumps.
