Tryouts will probably be held next week, after all class manag- ers are selected. Coaches for the class teams are: Miss June Philpott, sophomores; Miss Cecil McKercher, juniors; and Miss Ada Ross, seniors. The subject for the debate is, "Resolved, That Ore- gon Should Adopt a Compulsory Insurance Law." District de- bates will not begin until later in the year.

FILM OF COLLEGE LIFE FULL OF FUN

By OLIVE M. DOAK
"College life" is a word that has a universal appeal because it stands for the fun and character- istics of youth, and the world in spite of itself, is interested in what the "young bidders" are do- ing. The show at the Capitol, "Words and Music" is nothing if not collegiate. It's full of fun and pranks and has laughs enough to last much longer than the show. When the mid-Victorian dean of women is mistaken for one of the sorority girls up to a good trick by members of one of the leading fraternities the fun starts and so do the laughs in the audience.

At Elsinore Tonight

Franklin Rasmussen as the British Envoy; Summer Chase Cobb as the Prince's Minister; Joa. H. Williams as the Prussian Colonel; in "Twelve Thousand," by Bruno Frank—Moroni Olsen Players.

Tonight at the Fox Elsinore theatre will be seen "Twelve Thousand," a scene of which is shown in the above picture. The play is one of intrigue, romance highly colored with the glamor of the Revolutionary days of America's early history. It is a suc- cess both as to cast and as to dramatic plot according to the re- views which have come in from the cities where the performance has been given. Seattle was es- pecially enthusiastic over the work of Janet Young the only woman in the cast and of Moroni Olsen.

INDEPENDENCE NOT TO AVOID PAYMENT

The state land board has no authority to dispense with royalty payments on sand and gravel tak- en from the Willamette river near Independence, according to a legal opinion handed down by the at- torney general here yesterday.

Citizens of Independence, at a recent conference with members of the state land board, declared that the channel of the river was changing, and that it would be necessary to eliminate a sand bar in order to protect property along the city's water front. The citi- zens urged that they be relieved from paying the royalty on this sand.

The land board referred the re- quest to the attorney general for legal opinion.

RICHMOND WILL GIVE PROGRAM

First Grade Pupils Present Instructive Numbers For Growups

First grade pupils of the Rich- mond school, under supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Maybelle Burch, will present a program be- fore parents and interested friends this afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock. This is the first similar event this year at the Richmond school and has been planned by the pupils that they may purchase curtains for their schoolroom. To raise funds for this purpose, a tea, towel, yard- stick holder and candy sale will be held following the program. Each towel prepared for the sale is fringed, the work having been done by the young pupils.

The program will consist of the following numbers: reading story by entire grade; song, "Night"; poem, "Someone"; reading story, "The Little Owl"; song, "Miss Muffet"; poem, "Jack O'Lan- tern"; dance, "Nixie Polka"; song, "Wedding Bells"; story play, "The Baby Black Bear"; and dance, "Chimes of Dunkirk." The toy rhythm orchestra, under di- rection of Keith Epley, will fur- nish features of the musical part of the program.

Following the program, witches will pass punch to the grown folk present and brownies will distrib- ute cookies and candy to the ti- ny guests. Every child in the room will have part in the pro- gram. Following are names of the pupils: Elizabeth Ann Her- rick, Ernest Hunt, Helen Corson, Emma Boatwright, Marjorie Young, Stanley Weltman, Emma Miller, Gilbert Pitney, Andrew Lallack, Joice Fuls, Robert An- drews, Eugene Schlag, Harold Spalding, Robert Butte, Kenneth Willison, Jeanette Stovell, Mar- guerite Goff, Dorothy Bannick, Lois Passig, Helen Kiff, Mary Louise Hansen, Jeanne Stanton, Marjorie Donaldson, Marguerite Lehman, Betty Lou Schleman, Robert Boatwright, John Riese- beck, Jack Davidson, Walter Bur- gess and Keith Epley.

The first graders have decorated their room in Hallowe'en motif for the occasion, with fall flowers, witches, pumpkins at- tractively arranged, not to men- tion bats and owls "flying" about the room on strings.

CHAMBER CHIEFS ARRANGE MEETING

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 31.— (AP)—Presidents and managers of the state chambers of commerce of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, met informally at a luncheon on the grounds of the Pacific Inter- national Livestock exposition to- day to discuss methods of work- ing for greater unity of the cham- bers. Plans for frequent meet- ings of the officers of the three cham- bers were made.

It was agreed by the six offi- cials that whenever a major prob- lem affecting the Pacific North- west is attached by one state chamber the others, equally inter- ested, should be consulted. It was pointed out that the development of Oregon and Washington ports depends in no small way on the development of a hinterland of which Idaho is a major part. Simi- larly, it was explained, the pro- gress of Idaho hinges on the co- operation of Oregon and Washing- ton ports.

Attending the meeting were R. E. Shepherd, president, and R. L. Brown, manager, of the Idaho state chamber of commerce; Frank E. Lamb, president, and Thomas E. Hill, manager, of the Washing- ton state chamber, and Roy T. Bishop, president, and W. G. Ide, manager, of the Oregon chamber.

Cooley, when an automobile in which he was riding with his father collided with a machine driven by A. B. Lucas of Auma- ville. The father sustained a wrenched back and Lucas was bruised and cut. The accident oc- curred early yesterday morning at the intersection of D and 15th streets.

Both cars overturned, the Cooley machine rolled over two times and finally came to a halt on its side about 60 feet from the intersection. The Lucas car over- turned and pinned its driver un- derneath, keeping him there for nearly 10 minutes before he was liberated.

Police investigated the accident and according to a report of George Edwards, investigating of- ficer, both machines were trav- eling too fast. Young Lucas was taken to a hospital where he was resting easily this morning.
