Student Body and Class Officers With Faculty Advisors Chosen

FALLS CITY, Oct. 31.—Student body officers and class officers of the high school were elected Wednesday. For the student body the following were elected: Revelle Howell, president; Leroy Allen, vice-president; Velma Critchlow, secretary; Sam Speerstra, treasurer; Elsie Jones, roll leader.

Senior class officers were elected as follows: Revelle Howell, president; Cecil Carey, vice-president; Elsie Jones, secretary-treasurer; Leroy Allen and Clarence Olson, councilmen; Richard Paul, business manager; Mrs. Hatch, class adviser.

Naomi Robinson, a junior in high school, left school to be married to Frank Whitton. The young couple will make their home in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Wantenpouch entertained the teachers and their husbands at their home on Monday evening. Bridge and Pinc were played during the evening.

The high boys' basketball team started practice Monday evening with Mr. Wantenpouch as their coach. Four of last year's lettermen are back. The first grade school practice was held Tuesday evening under the leadership of R. E. Helm.

MAN WHO DESERTED WIFE IS ARRESTED

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—(AP)—Arrested yesterday after the death of the young woman with whom he had eloped from Raleigh, N. C., James N. Tudor, 41, who deserted a wife and two children, today was held in default of $2,500 bond for alleged violations of the Mann act and his hearing was set for November 2.

Tudor was arrested when authorities became suspicious of his recent flight. Miss Helen Butler, 23, with whom he eloped, he buried immediately. He said the young woman had no relatives who should be notified.

Miss Butler, who soon was to become a mother, died from injuries received when she fell down a stairway while romping with a child.

Told by police that he would be held pending an investigation, Tudor is alleged to have confessed the elopement, saying that he and Miss Butler had lived in Canada for several months before coming to Kansas City six weeks ago.

Brush College Players Appear At Tigard, Ore.

BRUSH COLLEGE, October 31.—Brush College grange sent a troupe of players to put on the musical comedy "The Courtship of Zachary and Peggy Jane" at the state grange at Tigard Thursday, October 24. The play was in four acts, "Zack plucks up courage," "Zack pops the question," "The Wedding of Zach and Peggy Jane" and "The Honeymoon." Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Scott were Zach and Peggy Jane; Roy E. Barker was the minister and Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, was accompanist.

An assembly of 300 greeted the players with round after round of applause and voted the comedy one of the best ever put on at state grange. Mrs. McCall later played for the fifth and sixth degree work and for various teams. Mr. and Mrs. McCall accepted an invitation extended to them by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rost to be their guests overnight.

Wins $75,000 for Thaw's Spanking

Marcia Estardus, Broadway entertainer, was awarded $75,000 by a jury in her suit against Harry K. Thaw, alleging assault. She had sued for $100,000, charging the Pittsburgh millionaire had beaten her with a hair brush in his apartment on New Year's Day in 1927.

OLD LIBRARY BURNS AT INDEPENDENCE

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 31.—The old library building on Monmouth street, was almost entirely destroyed by fire here this afternoon. It is believed that the blaze was started by sparks from a nearby chimney.

The building was one of the oldest in town and was situated between the B. F. Swopa office and the local fire hall.

All books and furniture belonging to the library had been moved from the building more than a week ago when the new library was opened so that the property loss was slight.

tion always on hand. But don't keep it just for emergencies; let it be an everyday aid. Its gentle influence will ease and soothe the infant who cannot sleep. Its mild regulation will help an older child whose tongue is coated because of sluggish bowels. All druggists have Castoria; the genuine bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper.

INDEPENDENCE FOLK AT ALBANY MEETING

District Conference of Women's Foreign Missionary Society Draws Many

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 31.—Several cars left here Tuesday morning bearing passengers to the semi-annual district conference of the Women's Foreign Missionary societies held in Albany. The delegation included Mesdames Sarah Irvine, Bertha Ferguson, Mary and Carrie Smiley, Seldie Kelley, C. J. Moyer, L. L. Herschberger, William Campbell, Peter Kurze, E. K. Barnes, Alice Kurze, and the pastor of the Methodist church, E. G. Ranton.

Two of this group, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Hershberger, had a part in the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle H. Willard, of Monmouth, and Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Ranton, of Independence, went to Dayton Tuesday evening to attend the revival which is being conducted by Rev. L. A. Meade of Kansas.

E. A. Niemeier, manager, of the J. C. Penney store, left here hurriedly Saturday night for Seattle upon receiving word from there that the body of his brother was found in the water near there.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church is planning a musical program for next Sunday evening, which will be given in the main auditorium for all who wish to attend. This will precede the church service.

Simple Pleasant Way TO LOSE FAT

How would you like to lose 15 pounds of fat in a month and at the same time increase your energy and improve your health? How would you like to lose a load of unhealthy fat that you don't need and don't want and at the same time feel better than you have for years?

When BABIES are upset

Baby ills and ailments seem twice as serious at night. A sudden cry may mean colic. Or a sudden attack of diarrhea—a condition it is always important to check quickly. How would you meet this emergency—tonight? Have you a bottle of Castoria ready? There is nothing that can take the place of this harmless but effective remedy for children, nothing that acts quite the same, or has quite the same comforting effect on them.

For the protection of your wee one—for your own peace of mind—keep this old, reliable prepara-
