SOUTHERN LINE BADLY CRUSHED

79,000 Fans Watch in Astonishment as Dope Completely Upset

By RUSS, LL. J. NEWLAND Associated Press Sports Writer COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 2.—(AP)—In the greatest, most spectacular upset this stadium has ever trembled to, California's under-rated Bears smashed their way to leadership of the Pacific Coast conference today with a nerve-racking 15-7 victory over the strongest eleven ever assembled under the colors of Southern California.

Some 79,000 persons jammed into this huge bowl could scarcely believe their eyes as a favored Trojan squad was battered to pieces by a California team of smashing power and unrivaled defensive play.

California's triumph left it as undisputed leader of the conference and winner over one of its greatest rivals.

California still has three conference games to play. Two should prove easy victories but a great battle is assured in the third, which pits the Bears against their conference rivals, Stanford.

Trojan Forward Carried Out Scoring the vaunted all round power of their Southern California rivals, the Blue and Gold stalwarts got down to business with the opening kick off. Before their tremendous rushes, the Trojan forward wall that held Stanford so effectively last week, crumbled today as though built of paper.

Southern California's famed four man interference bounced back or tumbled like ten pins before an almost impenetrable defense. The Trojans got past the first line they bumped into an air tight secondary wall.

A southern California fumble paved the way for the first touchdown. Musick, fullback, started on a yard-making trip from his own 35-yard mark. At the forty-yard line he smashed into Griffiths, husky Bear halfback. The ball bounced from Musick's arms. Five players dove for it. When the scramble of legs and arms had been untangled, Halfback Griffiths of California was using the oval for a pillow.

Southern California Junks Now Shattered This "break" broke the charm that heretofore had encompassed Southern California to make a team impossible to score upon. An alert Bear eleven saw and seized its chance. Low banged the line for gains of two yards, then three yards. On the next play he shot a pass to Eisan that headed for his own end. The ball bounced from his hands. Five Griffiths contributed his "bit" with a sizzling dash around left end, after shaking off two tacklers. When he dropped, he dropped a scant seven-yards from goal.

Gill, fullback, took up the burden. He carried the ball through for nearly four yards to stop three inches from the line. On the next play he drove over. Griffiths sent the ball sailing between the uprights with a place kick.

Low Gets Away for Touchdown After Penalty An outside penalty sent the Bears back to their own 15-yard line.

The crowd looked for a kick and got it, mentally, as the brilliant Low broke loose and weaved down a broken field for the second touchdown.

For 35 yards his flying cleats dug into the Coliseum's turf. Skirting left end first, he cut in toward the center of the field, then came back along the sidelines, dodging tacklers and bowling them over in the dash. It was a thrilling as any coast gridiron this season. Beckett's place kick try for point was wide.

Shortly before the half ended, California added two more points through a safety.

Whipped into a frenzy by the tongue lashing passed out by Coach Howard Jones during the intermission, the Trojans came back for the third quarter to sweep the Bears before them. They scored their touchdowns then. Pounding steadily at both tackles, they reached the 30-yard line with four downs to go. Saunders, quarterback packed the ball three times in succession to end up on the one-yard mark. Moses, fullback, crashed over and Baker converted.

Final Period Is About Even The last quarter was a great hand to hand conflict with advantage claimed by first one, then the other. The Trojan last minute rally was cut short by stonewall California defense and the Bears held the ball when the gun barked its final message.

CURT COMMENTS BY CURTIS

A week ago, not in this column but in a story about the Williamette-Idaho football game, we told about the Bearcat linemen who were crashing through into Idaho's backfield, and mentioned all of the linemen by name but Keith Jones. We hadn't seen him doing anything like that, so we figured opposite kept him out of there, and in the story indicated as much.

A few days later we learned the truth; on account of Idaho's unusual system, Coach Keene had given Jones different instructions from those generally handed out to a tackle, and he was filling his assignment to the letter. Like the rest of the boys, Keith reads the papers, and we wouldn't be surprised if he felt a bit hurt.

But we're not a bit sorry, because Jones was all over Pacific's backfield Saturday, and if he did it just to show us, that's O. K. He feil on the ball back of Pacific's goal line for Williamette's first touchdown, and he blocked the punt that resulted in the second one.

But Saturday's big hero was Johnny Steelhammer, who is something like a third string end on the Williamette squad. What he did? Well, at the end of the last period, Johnny came tearing in and just about pulled a Pacific man to pieces. This fellow was trying to pass; Johnny made him drop the ball, and then fell on it.

Then a little later, Johnny went down under a pass, charged in among three Pacific men who were grabbing at the ball, batted it around with them and finally emerged with it in his possession. In both of those feats, the tall

Ashland 11 Ties With Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Nov. 2.—(Special)—The Oregon Normal and Ashland Normal football teams battled to a scoreless tie here today, leaving unsettled the question of gridiron supremacy which looms as the major interest at both of these schools each year.

The local team came nearest to scoring, working the ball down to Ashland's 14 yard line in the third quarter, there to be held for downs, after which Ashland punted to safety.

Though devoid of scoring, the game was replete with thrills, the first being a 60 yard run by Jones of O. N. S. one minute after the game opened. The remainder of the first period was marked by numerous attempts at aerial threats on the part of both teams, none proving effective.

In the second period, the ball was kept close to midfield, with no advantage for either team. After the local threat in the third period, the final quarter was again featured by repeated forward pass attempts. In all, Monmouth completed eight passes out of 20, Ashland three out of twelve. Monmouth made ten first downs to Ashland's nine.

Hines, negro halfback on the Ashland team, was the outstanding player of the day.

LINFIELD WALLOPED BY IDAHO COYOTES

CALDWELL, Ida., Nov. 2.—(AP)—The College of Idaho Coyotes out-charged the Wildcats of Linfield college here today to win a 26 to 6 victory. It was the first northwest conference victory for the Coyotes in three games played and the third straight defeat for the Wildcats.

Idaho was unable to score in the first half, chiefly because of numerous penalties, but in the second half the Coyotes settled down to football and ran up two touchdowns in the third quarter and two more in the final period. Linfield made a threat for a touchdown in the final two minutes of the game with a forward pass attack which carried the ball to the ten yard line. Captain Warren started for the visitors while Rutledge carried the brunt of the Coyote offense. The Idaho line showed its power time after time, opening wide holes for ball carriers.

Idaho made 15 first downs to five for Linfield.

WEBFOOTS WIN OVER BRUIN 11

Oregon Grid Team Has Little Difficulty Beating Invading Crew

HAYWARD FIELD, Eugene, Ore., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Playing a slow and uninteresting game, the University of Oregon defeated a hard-fighting University of California at Los Angeles eleven 27 to 0 here today. Neither team showed much in the way of brilliant plays.

Billy Reinhart, who handled the reins for Oregon while Coach John J. McEwan scouted the Oregon State-Washington State game at Portland, ordered all trick plays shelved soon after the opening gun. Oregon's first string was soon withdrawn from the contest and Johnny Kitzmiller, the Webfoot's chief offense, watched the game from the bench.

Robinson, halfback, got into the contest long enough to score one touchdown when he snared a forward pass in the last period and loped across the Ucla goal.

Reserves Show Strength On Offensive Drive Oregon's reserves showed great offensive power at times. Johnny Londahl, Kitzmiller's understudy, tore off long gains. The Webfoot took advantage of most opportunities to score, but the Bruins passed up two easy chances when they muffed passes that should have gone for touchdowns.

Oregon scored soon after the game started. George Christensen, powerful Webfoot tackle, recovered a fumble on the Ucla's 20 yard line. A series of line runs and Harold Hatton's 12 yard run put the ball over. Londahl converted.

The Webfoot scored again in the second period after the Bruins had forced their way to Oregon's 20 yard line. Londahl broke away and was not stopped until he had covered 52 yards. Londahl and Hatton Take Turns Running Londahl and Hatton then tore off a series of short gains and Charley Spear went through center for a touchdown. Londahl failed to convert.

Several times in the third period the Oregonians were hard pressed. The Ucla drove them deep into their own territory and Reinhart sent in two regulars to hold the offensive. A touchdown seemed imminent, but Leonard Wellendorf muffed a perfect pass from Simpson and the Bruins' most serious threat was ended.

Two more touchdowns were added by Oregon in the fourth period, one by Robinson, and the other when Wally Shearer, a third string sub, crashed six yards through right guard after the Webfoot had banged their way up the field.

W. S. C. ROOKS WIN

MOSCOW, Ida., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Washington State college freshmen defeated the University of Idaho first year football team, 25 to 0 here today.

With the score deadlocked at 0-0, Coach Biff Jones sent his regulars into the fray at the start of the third period and Cagle, Murrell and company tallied four touchdowns in little more time than it takes to tell about it. Cagle himself scored the ball over the line for two Army scores. Murrell scored another and the Messenger the fourth.

ARMY TEAM WHIPS SOUTH DAKOTA 33-6

WEST POINT, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Army crushed South Dakota's plucky football team under a 33 to 6 score today, but only after the westerners had surprised the 30,000 spectators by holding the Cadet second string team to a scoreless tie for two periods. Throughout the first half the South Dakotans more than held their own against the cadets, gaining ground consistently on a straight running attack but army's kicking game kept the westerners away from the goal line.

Independence 11 Wins Friday Game

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 2.—(Special)—The Independence high school football team defeated Junction City high here Friday 12 to 6. The local lineup included M. Newton and Johnson, ends; Sloper and Burton, tackles; D. Newton and McBlowney, guards; Rainey, center; Hestelberger, quarter; Kelley and Mattison, halves; Harding, fullback.

Salem High Trimmed by Fishermen

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A powerful Astoria high school line tore great holes in the forward defenses of the Salem high school football team here today and the Astoria backfield romped through the gaps for a 44 to 6 victory.

Astoria plunged through the line and around ends for six touchdowns and took a seventh by the aerial route. Salem's lone score came in the final quarter when Kelly tossed a pass to Reid and the latter raced across the goal line.

Only once during the entire contest was the Astoria eleven forced to punt and five Salem punts were blocked.

Soderman, Astoria fullback, scored three touchdowns; Thibault, half, two; Bowers, right guard, one; and Ystad, tackle, one.

Astoria started with 19 points in the first quarter but was held scoreless in the second quarter. Kelly, Salem quarterback, starred for his aggregation. The Astorians made 21 first downs to one for Salem.

FLORIDA DEFEATED BY HARVARD ELEVEN

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 2.—A reorganized Harvard football team, depending mainly on line plays, battered out a 14-0 inter-sectional victory over the Florida eleven here today in a bruising contest before 35,000 spectators.

The invaders, apparently suffering from the same case of stadium fright contracted here seven years ago on their first trip north, made only one bid for a touchdown during the entire game. This try was launched in the fourth period, but the southern ball carriers fumbled at every vital moment.

Barry Wood, starting his first game as a Harvard quarterback, was always on the scene when these misplays occurred and he fell on three loose balls in as many minutes during the final quarter.

GIL DOBIE'S TEAM WHIPS COLUMBIA 11

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 2.—(AP)—A forward passing attack carried Cornell's light but aggressive defense to victory over Columbia today, by 12 to 6, and kept the Ithacans' record clear of defeat or tie. These teams have played scores games in the past two years.

Overweighed 20 pounds to the man on the line and beaten to the punch when Columbia scored in the opening period, Cornell came back with all the fighting fire of the best teams Gil Dobie ever turned out here and passed its way to victory. Both of the winning touchdowns came on long heaves that travelled 40 yards.

COUGARS WHIP OREGON STATE

W. S. C. Strong Contender For Northwest Honors After 9-0 Win

By FRANK G. GORRIE Associated Press Sports Writer MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Nov. 2.—(AP)—An Oregon Beaver gave a Washington Cougar a stubborn battle before 15,000 persons in this stadium this afternoon, but the Cougar won as a Cougar should.

The Washington State college football eleven put in a sincere claim for the northern section Pacific coast conference championship when it conquered the Oregon State college combination, 9 to 0. The Washington State goal line was threatened on several occasions but timely interception of Oregon passes by the wide-awake Cougars stopped the Beaver thrusts.

Washington Batters Way To First Period Goal Midway in the first period the Washington Staters started a power drive that carried them to the O. S. C. 37 yard line. Using only brute strength Ellingsen, Schwartz and Buckley took turns battering their way through the Beaver line.

A W. S. C. off-side penalty gave the Washington Staters the next play. Instead of rammng at the line again, Archie Buckley called for a forward pass. Ellingsen dropped back 15 yards and shot a long spiral directly over the center of the line. John Hurley, flashy end, sneaked around the Beaver defense man and snared the ball in clear field. He romped ten yards to the Oregon State goal line for a touchdown before the safety realized what had happened.

Goal From Field Is Final Score Although Buckley missed the try for point, the dazzling little quarterback made up for the lost point in the dying minutes of the last quarter when he scored a field goal for his team which took the last hope from victory away from the Beavers.

With only five minutes left to play and the Oregon Staters throwing passes left and right in a desperate effort to break away from a touch down, Elmer Schwartz intercepted a long spiral from Tom Dryman for W. S. C. to halt the aerial attack. Failing to gain on the O. S. C. 26 yard line and too close to punt, Buckley called for a place kick. He dropped back to the 37 yard line and sent the ball straight and true between the goal posts which assured the Cougars of victory.

Joplin, Missouri Lad Has Three Strokes Less Than Harry Cooper of Buffalo

By A. E. HARRIS Associated Press Staff Writer

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 2.—(AP)—Horton Smith, the golfing boy wizard from Joplin, Mo., whose tournament victories since the first of the year outstrip all other noted professionals and amateurs, added another title to his enviable list by winning the third Oregon open golf championship today by three strokes under Light Horse Harry Cooper, Buffalo, N. Y., his nearest competitor.

Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland's golfing dentist, runner up in the national amateur at Pebble Beach, and defending champion of the Oregon open, maintained his superiority over the other amateurs and made such a gap between scores that other amateurs ceased playing after the eleventh and twelfth. Willing's card was 72-70, a total of 290 for the 72 holes.

Gallery of 2000 Sees Golf Stars Perform Smith, who was matched with Cooper and Rudy Wilhelm, Portland amateur, furnished the thrills of the day for the gallery which grew from 1,000 to double that this afternoon when word spread that two favorites were matched together. The wonder from the "show me" state, who piled up an overwhelming lead yesterday by finishing out in front of Cooper, now munched the killing pace throughout the day.

He rounded the final 18 in 74 and came home in two less bringing his total to 280. Cooper, although he used every club and trick in his bag, failed to reduce the 71 he shot on the first 18 and toured the final 18 in the same figures, shooting his total to 283.

With the same erratic, but on the supreme golf, Smith smacked them down the fairways for from 250 to 300 yards, then easily pitched to the green with unerring accuracy. His golf was not spectacular, merely excellent.

Ed Dudley, from back east in Delaware, a semi-pro, who at the end of the day yesterday stood seventh in line of the 15 who were to be in the money, found the course much to his liking today and finished third with a card of 72-69, a total of 284.

Mortie Dutra, Tacoma, finished with a 74-71, total 285 after the Washington professional resumed his natural stride and slashed three from his first qualifying score.

Walter Hagen, Detroit, whose very name is synonymous with the game, went "haywire" on the final 18, found all the traps and bunkers on the fairway and ended up with a 72-76, total 288 which dropped him into seventh place from third which he held yesterday. Hagen's iron were not working, although he managed to drive a fairly straight ball. But when he attempted to pitch the green, the great Haig was plainly off his game.

Others of the 15 professionals and amateur which placed with scores are: Tommy Armour, Detroit, 73-69-285; Craig Wood, New Jersey, 71-69-287; Billie Burke, New York, 74-69-289; Dr. O. F. Willing, Portland amateur, 72-70-290; Willard Hutchinson, Chicago, 72-75-292; Olin Dutra, Los Angeles, 74-77-292; Frank Rodia, Seattle, 74-74-295; Dave Black, Vancouver, B. C., 73-75-295; Johnnie Jones, Seattle, 72-

Perfect-Vision Most Valued Possession

Eyesight is unquestionably the most important of the five special senses and one of the most highly prized by the great majority of human beings.

What greater calamity can befall one than complete loss of vision, how pathetic, even for the observer, are the sightless days for those who have previously delighted in occupations that depend upon their eyes; think how terrible is blindness to one who has loved books and who has derived his chief pleasure in life from reading. To be deprived of the enjoyment of art, to be shut out from observation of all of the beauties of nature, can anything more depressing be imagined? If one pauses to consider these things, the appreciation of good sight is immeasurably enhanced.

If then we fully realize the fact that perfect vision is one of our most valuable possessions it would seem well that every one should have an examination of this important organ—the eye—at least twice a year.

This examination should always be made by a competent Optometrist to determine the fitness of this important organ. Years of scientific study is the valuable service rendered the patient who consults the competent Optometrist.
