

Mrs. L. Griffith Entertains for Bride-Elect

MRS. L. GRIFFITH entertained with a bride tea at the Griffith home Saturday afternoon in compliment to her daughter, Miss Ruth Griffith, who it was announced at this time will become the bride of John B. Stump, Jr., November 30.

The guest rooms were beautifully arranged with chrysanthe-mums and autumn leaves. Low bowls and deep baskets of the great chrysanthemums in deep bronze and yellow shades were effectively placed to form an artistic setting for the card tables where bridge was in play for the afternoon hours until 4:30 o'clock when tea was served. The shades were drawn and the light of many yellow tapers added to the room of soft beauty to the guest room.

Honors for the afternoon went to Mrs. E. L. Baker, Miss Leah Ross and Miss Olive Baker.

Following cards tea was served at the small, white linen covered tables. Mrs. Bert Ford, Mrs. John Caughell, Jr., Miss Edith Bragg, Miss Olive Baker and Miss Leah Ross, assisted in the serving.

Miss Griffith is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Griffith. She is a graduate of the University of Oregon and a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She has been a popular member of Salem's younger crowd since her high school days.

D. A. R. Celebrate Birthday of Chapter

The 14th birthday of Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was celebrated with a luncheon at the Marion hotel Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Mrs. E. C. Apperson, state regent was the honor guest and was also the chief speaker for the program hour. She gave an excellent account of the national convention of the organization in Washington, D. C., from the standpoint of the executive.

At the business session preceding the luncheon a movement was seriously started toward the formation of a chapter of Children of the American Revolution. Mrs. Seymour Jones called a meeting for Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mrs. C. C. Clark at which time members of the Regents' club of Chemeketa chapter will discuss the organization of the children's group. Mrs. F. S. Gannett, of Eugene, state chairman of the division of Children of the Revolution will be present and assist with the organization work. The organization will be sponsored by the Regents' club.

At the luncheon table covers were placed for 65 guests. Lavender and yellow was the color scheme carried out. Yellow chrysanthemums added greatly to the beauty of this color scheme. A birthday cake with 14 lighted candles centered the table and was cut at appropriate time by Mrs. W. C. Dyer, the first regent of the chapter.

Many out of town guests were present for this meeting which proved one of the most delightful of the recent months.

Winning the Golden West

Back in the days before the wide open spaces of the Golden West were all golf courses, the white men "won" the land from the Indians. History doesn't tell us how, but it's our guess that when shooting and fighting failed, doughnuts did the trick.

Imagine how these Indians would have fallen for our doughnuts. They're just bubbling over with deliciousness... (we mean the doughnuts not the Indians)... distinctively flavored... packed to the crust with nutrition, "pep" and strength and done to the most appetizing shade of golden brown you ever saw.
