

No doubt there will be much rejoicing among dem...

The Oregon Statesman

FOUNDED 1851

Salem, Oregon, Wednesday Morning, November 6, 1929

Clearing today, with Thursday fair...

PRICE FIVE CENTS

WALKER WINS IN CONTEST TO SUCCEED SELF

LaGuardia, Nearest Rival Eliminated in Four Cornered Fight

Norman Thomas, Candidate On Socialist Ticket, Draws Big Vote

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—James J. Walker, more familiarly known as "Jimmy" to the millions of the metropolis...

He defeated Congressman Fiorello H. La Guardia, candidate of the republicans and fusionists by a plurality of 497,165.

Walker, 865,549. La Guardia, 368,384. Norman Thomas, socialist, 174,931.

R. E. Enright, Square Deal, 5,958.

Aside from the democratic sweep, the feature of the election was the heavy vote polled by Norman Thomas. It was the highest total ever polled for a socialist here.

Republicans Reelect Borough President

The only grain of comfort left for the republicans was the re-election of George U. Harvey, as borough president of Queens, ordinarily a democratic stronghold.

Harvey received 143,219 and Edward W. Coy, democrat, 116,659.

The republicans had counted heavily on winning the district attorney in New York county, but former Judge Thomas C. Crain, democrat, defeated Frederick R. Coedert, Jr., republican by 214,967, to 118,104.

The republicans suffered another disappointment when Supreme Court Justice Stephen Callaghan went down to defeat for re-election by District Attorney Charles Dodd of Brooklyn, by about 50,000.

His district comprises the Long Island counties. The democratic leader in Brooklyn, John H. McCooey, refused to follow precedent and endorsed Callaghan.

162ND INFANTRY TO HOLD REUNION HERE

The annual reunion of the 162nd Infantry, the World War regiment composed of Oregon National Guard companies, will be held in Salem December 14, according to plans announced here Tuesday night.

The plan was presented by James Alexander of Portland.

The 162nd embarked for France, on December 12, 1917, and the reunion will mark the 12th anniversary of that event, it being customary to hold it on the Saturday nearest to December 13.

Company M, the Salem company, has held a reunion about the same time each year, and the plan this year is for Company M to invite the regimental organization to participate with it here.

Feet in Portland have not drawn a sufficient number of veterans from companies recruited in the upper Willamette valley, and it is hoped by holding it here to remedy this situation.

Page Elected to Head Kiwanians

U. S. Page was elected president of the Salem Kiwanis club for the coming year at Tuesday's annual election.

Dr. Fred Thompson was elected vice president, Dean Roy R. Hewitt trustee, and T. M. Hicks treasurer.

Salem of Today Is Found Far Different From City When Seen 45 Years Ago

A Salem which he had not seen for nearly 45 years was viewed in part yesterday by William B. Morris, retired Minneapolis business man who with Mrs. Morris and their son E. on his way to spend the winter in southern California.

Morris came to Salem in 1885, when he was a boy of 16 years, and immediately after he had finished high school in the east. He stayed here two years and worked on farms and in town, until he was able to return to Minneapolis to secure a university education.

He stayed in Minneapolis, this being his first trip back to Salem. Morris says he fell in love with the hills south of Salem when a boy of 18, and now that he has come back to see the town once again, he has fallen in love all over again—with a modern, beautiful, rose-hedged Salem. He recognizes but few of the present day buildings, principal of these ment, he was ordered to climb the

Reelected

MAYOR WALKER

GRAND THEATRE TO BE REOPENED SOON

Portland Man Will Operate Local Show House at Popular Prices

The Grand Theatre, located in the Odd Fellows building, corner Court and High streets, is to be re-opened for regular theatre purposes at an early date.

The theatre lease is held by George B. Guthrie, owner of the Elsinore, who recently leased the Elsinore to the Fox West Coast theatres.

Mr. Guthrie has sub-leased the Grand to H. J. Updegraff of Portland, who has a theatre at 72nd and Sandy. He will continue to operate the Portland theatre and the Grand, according to report yesterday will be managed by A. H. McMillan.

According to the further report, the Grand will be run as a popular priced theatre. It may run a stock company offering "legitimate" theatricals, or as a movie or talk house. It is understood the change will take place next week, with the house opening after Armistice day.

Comparative few changes will be made now at the Grand, but some additional seats will be installed.

The Calvary Baptist church has been holding services in the theatre for the past year and is now forced to move. Rev. W. Earl Cochran, pastor, stated last night the theatre management has given the church permission to meet for the next two Sundays in the theatre building.

The church has as yet found no satisfactory place in which to hold services, he said.

BOURBON MAYORS APPEAR FAVORITES

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Majority elections in 50 upstate New York cities today resulted in 14 political overturns. Of these ten were in favor of the democrats and four to the advantage of the republicans.

Johnstown, Long Beach, Middletown and Poughkeepsie were cities which displaced democratic incumbents by republican mayors-elect, while the cities passing from republican to democratic administration were Amsterdam, Glen Cove, Hudson, Ithaca, Lackawanna, New Rochelle, Ogdensburg, Fort Jervis, Rennselaer and Utica.

Frank X. Schwab, who formerly was elected as republican mayor of Buffalo, but who this year ran as the democratic candidate for re-election, was beaten by Charles E. Roesch, republican.

Extradition to Be Authorized Here

Governor Patterson Tuesday honored papers for the extradition of George W. Rowland, who is wanted at San Diego, Calif., on a charge of issuing checks without having funds in the bank on which they were drawn.

Rowland is under arrest in Portland.

BOURBONS ARE VICTORIOUS IN VIRGINIA VOTE

John Garland Pollard Wins In Gubernatorial Race Over Dr. Brown

Bishop Cannon's Anti-Smith Faction is Decisively Defeated

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 5.—(AP)—John Garland Pollard, former professor of law at the College of William and Mary, was elected governor of Virginia tonight in what turned out to be a landslide for the democratic party.

The democratic nominee led his opponent, Dr. William Moseley Brown, nominee of the anti-Smith democrats and republicans, in every congressional district and with less than two thirds of the total vote tabulated, had amassed a lead of close to 50,000 votes.

Pollard's election was conceded by Brown headquarters at 10:40. At that hour returns from 1,080 of the state's 1683 precincts gave: Pollard 99,038, Brown 51,457.

Results Are Surprised To Both Factions

The overwhelming victory of the democratic party was a surprise to veteran politicians on both sides, although Pollard headquarters had made predictions of a "substantial majority" for the democratic gubernatorial aspirant.

The campaign preceding this election was the most spirited since reconstruction days. Anti-Smith democrats organized last year by Bishop Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, and other dry leaders, in opposition to the presidential candidacy of Alfred E. Smith allied themselves with the Virginia republican party in an effort wrest state control from the democratic party, which had held sway since reconstruction.

The campaign eclipsed all previous state contests for political oratory and debates between leaders.

TWO YOUTHS KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Another Seriously Injured and Three Escape When Car Hits Ditch

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Two young men were killed, another was injured and three escaped unhurt when an automobile in which they were riding ran into a ditch and upset 18 miles south of here on the Pacific highway tonight.

The dead: Emanuel Warner, 22, Baltimore, Ohio. Allan Milton, 19, Charlotte, N. C.

The injured: Charles Van Horn, 21, Philadelphia. Van Horn, driver of the car, was brought to the McMinnville hospital. He has a broken arm. Warner's body was also brought here and Milton's taken to Dallas.

Those who escaped injury were Elmer Brown, Portland, and Jack Fletcher and Tom McCarty, both of Seattle.

The six young men, the survivors said, were employed in soliciting magazine subscriptions in the Pacific northwest.

RICH WIDOW NAMED IN ALIENATION SUIT

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Wilson, 73, widow of the late Henry Wilson, millionaire San Francisco Bay region lumber magnate, today was named defendant in a $250,000 alienation of affections suit filed in superior court.

The complaint was her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Florence Wilson, 29, who charged that she alienated the affections of her husband, and opened the breach that resulted in divorce proceedings.

Among the charges made by Mrs. Florence Wilson was one that her mother-in-law had enticed her son to move to her own home and prevented him from seeing his wife; and that she and her son virtually kidnaped their five year old daughter, Betty.

Diphtheria Case Found at Gervais

A serious case of diphtheria was reported late Tuesday from Gervais to Dr. Vernon A. Douglas, county health officer. The patient is a four-year-old youngster.

The health officer will go to Gervais this morning to investigate the case. Dr. Douglas said last night he understood there were some children from the family in school and at the same time urged the necessity for parents to have their children immunized against this disease.

Criticized

Andrew Mellon, secretary of the treasury and in charge of prohibition enforcement, who Senator Brookhart yesterday declared was unfit to remain in office due to his lax enforcement of the law.

Brookhart declared that President Hoover should demand the secretary's resignation.

BRITAIN PLANS TO RECOGNIZE SOVIET

House of Commons Takes Decisive Step After Long Debate

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The house of commons late tonight voted 324 to 119 for resumption of diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia after a long and somewhat acrimonious debate.

Earlier the house defeated by the same vote an amendment offered by former Prime Minister Baldwin deploring the "failure" of the new labor government to maintain the conditions which the prime minister and the foreign secretary had laid down for the resumption of diplomatic relations.

The vote of the house paves the way for restoration of the diplomatic ties severed in 1927 during the premiership of Mr. Baldwin. The Anglo-Russian trade agreement was terminated at the same time. The break followed a raid on the London headquarters of Arcos, Ltd., the Anglo-Russian trading organization. It was alleged that espionage and propaganda had been carried out under guise of the trade organization.

The next step toward resumption is an exchange of ambassadors which is expected to follow quickly. Soon thereafter new negotiations will begin for the settlement of outstanding questions and probably including drafting of a new trade agreement.

Johnson Is Snubbed By Mr. Hoover

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Official Washington was speculating tonight over the failure of President Hoover to invite Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, to the White House dinner tonight in honor of Ambassador Dawes.

The White House republican is the only member of the senate foreign relations committee who was not invited. All of the other members in the city were announced at the White House as dinner guests.

The exception of Senator Swanson, of Virginia, the latter announced that he declined the invitation as he is in mourning over the death of a brother.

The first Senator Johnson knew of the dinner was when he was asked about it late in the day. The word that the Senator from California's home state had not been invited quickly spread among his colleagues on the foreign relations committee.

12-Inch Fish Is Of Strange Hue Bend Folk Find

No little excitement was caused in Bend last week when Bert White, local barber, came in with a man of "goldfish" twelve inches long which he had caught in Todd lake.

Examination proved that the fish had teeth similar to those of meat eating animals so the gold fish idea was exploded. The specimen proved to be a blue backed salmon, known as "Yank" which were said to have been planted in the lake several years ago by mistake. The fact that the fish are spawning explains the autumn coloring.

White reported that the fish, maneuvering in schools, present an unusual appearance in Todd lake when viewed through the water. They resemble gold fish and are usually very hard to catch.

$30,000 Saved Consumers of Electric Power

Reductions which will save consumers approximately $30,000 annually, were announced by the public service commission here Tuesday in rates of the Mountain States Power company for commercial and residential lighting affecting Marshfield, North Bend, Myrtle Point, Powers, Coquille, Empire and Eastside.

The major reductions affect commercial and residential lighting, with minor reductions applying to customers using residential combination service. These rates will become effective January 1, 1930.

The reductions followed a series of conferences attended by members of the public service commission and officials of the power

NOTED LEADER OF U. S. FORGES SPEAKER HERE

General U. G. McAlexander is Scheduled for Armistice Day Event

Plans Announced at Legion Post Meeting in City Tuesday Night

Salem's Armistice day celebration this year will be honored by the presence as principal speaker of the day, of General Ulysses Grant McAlexander, one of the outstanding leaders of American military forces in the World war, who earned the title "Rock of the Marne" through his achievement in halting the German offensive in that bloody sector of the European battlefield.

General McAlexander was awarded the Distinguished Service medal and Distinguished Service cross by the United States government, the Official Legion d'Honneur and Croix de Guerre with palm of France, and the Italian Croce di Guerra.

General Well Known As Authoritative Writer

In addition to being one of the United States' most noted war officers, General McAlexander is a man of learning, being the author of several books on military matters, and is an able speaker. He is in great demand for occasions of this kind, and the Armistice day committee of Capital Post No. 9, American Legion, believes that it had added much to the interest in the occasion by obtaining the general's consent to speak.

The general has retired from the army after more than 40 years of service, and is now making his home at Newport, Oregon.

The announcement that he would be the speaker here next Monday was made by Col. Carl Abrams, grand marshal of the day, at the special meeting of Capital Post Tuesday night.

Mrs. Hinges Will Sing National Anthem

Mrs. Hallie Parrish Hinges will sing the national anthem at the formal exercises of the day on the courthouse steps after the parade, and the glee club of the legion auxiliary will sing. There will also be numbers by the several bands which are coming to participate in the parade.

These will include the Salem municipal band, the Shawana Indian school band, the Hubbard community band, the Salvation Army band from Portland, and possibly one American Legion band from a nearby city.

The drum corps of Capital Post (Concluded on Page 10, Column 4.)

HOWARD NOW WAITS EXECUTION IN CELL

HUNTVILLE, Tex., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Percy Howard, whose two appeals from a conviction for murder have been exhausted, today was sentenced to electrocution, sat nonchalantly in the death cell of the Texas state penitentiary today as his hours for executive clemency waned.

Howard was convicted ten years ago of the murder of N. V. Nixon, a taxi driver. The state charged that Howard forced Nixon to watch preparation of his grave. Howard was sentenced to four years in prison.

Dissatisfied, he appealed and was granted a new trial, which resulted in a conviction and a 45-year sentence. He appealed successfully again and drew a third conviction, this time with the death penalty.

Since that time gubernatorial clemency has thrice postponed the date of Howard's electrocution, now set for Friday.

Howard's trials brought out a strange murder tale. Howard and W. S. Ham, oil field workers, in 1920 engaged Nixon at El Paso to drive them eastward on an oil prospecting trip. After leaving Brown, Texas, according to Ham's confession, Nixon was ordered to stop the machine. Howard got out a shovel and dug a crude hole in the sand dunes while Nixon sat by and watched, unaware that his "prospecting trip" would end in that grave. The body was found long afterward.

William Doering Dies at Hospital In City Tuesday

William H. Doering, farmer who had resided for a number of years in Kings Valley in this county, died Tuesday at a local hospital, where he had been undergoing treatment for more than three weeks. He was 73 years old and a native of Indiana.

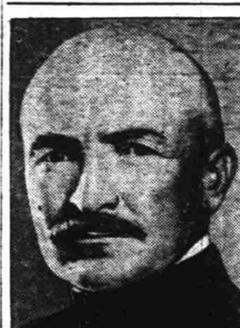

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Rigdon mortuary, with Rev. F. C. Taylor officiating and interment in the City View cemetery.

Mr. Doering is survived by three children: Mrs. Gertrude Miller of Wamic, Oregon; Millie Buchanan and Ora Doering of Kings Valley. One brother, E. F. Doering of Shattuck station, Oregon, also survives.

VOTER ACCOMMODATED

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The solitary voter of the 38th election district, of the 10th assembly district, for which four election clerks and a policeman had to keep the polls open 12 hours today, is a democrat.

Here 11th

General Ulysses Grant McAlexander, known to the A. E. F. as the "Rock of the Marne," who will be the Armistice day speaker in Salem.

CURLEY IS ELECTED MAYOR OF BOSTON

Plurality of 19,000 Puts Incumbent in Office to Succeed Self

BOSTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—James M. Curley was elected mayor of Boston for the third time today with a plurality of 19,000 votes. Curley was given a close race by Frederick W. Mansfield and both Curley and Mansfield far outstripped Daniel H. Coakley, who was credited with only a few thousand votes. All were democrats.

Curley, who waged an independent fight which saw him in harmony with most of the democratic leaders for almost the first time, had 116,010 votes to Mansfield's 97,200 when all returns were in.

Coakley trailed with 26,969. During the campaign, which was not as intense as past campaigns Boston has witnessed, Curley was backed by the democratic machine.

Mansfield found his chief support in the backing of the Good Government association. Coakley's interest in the race was evidence in the fact that in most of his campaign speeches he assailed Curley and praised Mansfield.

STANFORD WOMEN DECLINE TO MARRY

PALO ALTO, Cal., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Of 600 young women students of Stanford university, only five intend to marry, the rest prefer careers.

At least this was indicated by the result of a survey conducted by the special advisory committee of the Associated Women students, results of which were announced today. Of the remainder, 86 said they wanted to become writers, 79 will teach and 78 have dramatic aspirations.

Others have their eyes on business, learned professions, diplomacy, social service science, persomel, work, politics, tourist guidance and one wanted to enter a museum.

Only five said they wanted to wed.

DOGS ATTACK BABY

SPOKANE, Nov. 5.—(AP)—It took 110 surgical stitches today to close wounds on the face and head of a five months old baby attacked by five dogs.

Laboratory Real Benefit To Community in Keeping Diseases Under Control

Editor's Note: The Statesman today presents the twentieth of a series of daily articles designed to acquaint the people of Marion county in a comprehensive manner with the accomplishments of the Marion county health demonstration and with the proposals of the program of health program will be carried forward when the demonstration withdraws at the end of this year.

By GENEVIEVE MORGAN

A service of the child health demonstration with which few persons came in contact but which is nevertheless a major factor in keeping down communicable diseases is the laboratory facilities and tests offered.

The laboratory services are a most important factor in the control of communicable diseases for two reasons; first, because through the laboratory devices for it is possible to identify organisms which might be cause of disease; and second, with the laboratory method it is possible to

Carousing Senators Attacked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Senator Brookhart of Iowa thrust his heralded expose of "Wall Street booze parties" before a keenly attentive senate today in an atmosphere alive with suspense generated by the recurring furor over drinking among the nation's lawmakers.

His eyewitness account of a dinner held for some republican senators in the Willard hotel three years ago occupied more than an hour. Throngs in the galleries who had expected names of all the legislative guests to be revealed were disappointed, however. The Iowa mentioned none of his colleagues as having imbibed from the "beautiful silver flasks" which were the dinner favors.

Smoot and Gooding Given Clean Slate

The only word he gave about any senator's use or abuse of the attractive "containers of Scotch" was that Senator Smoot of Utah and the late Senator Gooding of Idaho had not availed themselves of the refreshment.

HUNTERS FLAY SHORT SEASON AT MEET HERE

Opening Date Postponement Condemned by Sportsmen in Session

Aggravation of Forest Fire Danger is Denied by Many Speakers

Deer season, its opening and closing dates and the manner in which it is being handled by the governor, was the target of considerable comment and discussion at the meeting of the Marion county game and protective association held at the chamber of commerce rooms Tuesday evening.

So much interest was shown in discussing the subject it was decided that the November meeting would feature the matter and an attempt to secure legislation for an earlier opening will probably be made should a plan to that effect be evolved.

It was denied that deer hunters have aggravated forest fires and it was brought out that most of the fires evident during the latter part of September and early October were fires that are started by mercenary persons who seek to use the money earned from fire-fighting for their livelihood.

Split Season Idea Thrown Out

A split-season was mentioned but this plan was discarded for the proposal of an opening of the season in August, approximately two months earlier than the opening of the season this fall. Fire hazards are said to be less during this month than in October and the deer are practically as mature and the meat in as good shape as it is in October.

The meeting, being the first one held since the closing for the summer months last spring, was largely devoted to business affairs although nominations for new officers were not made last night. Important to members not present at the session was the adoption of a three-dollar annual membership dues fee, two dollars of which is to go to the state association and the third dollar for the Western Out of Doors, official publication of the state body.

More than 40 sportsmen were present at the meeting and Dr. L. D. Idleman and Chris Kowitz served as president and secretary, respectively. The terms of these men expire at the next meeting at which time new officers are to be elected. It was voted to continue to use the chamber of commerce rooms as a meeting place of the organization.

Judge Kenyon Listens in Gallery to Answer

William S. Kenyon, a member of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, and beside him there was Senator Morris Sheppard, of Texas, the "father" of the eighteenth amendment. Judge Kenyon later conferred with Brookhart, said he "enjoyed" the talk and remarked about the commission's interest in the situation.

Tomorrow Brookhart will answer a subpoena to go before the District of Columbia grand jury to tell his story of the 1926 Faby dinner. He promised the senate to answer every question put to him in the grand jury room, and said the three reporters for the Washington Times who are in jail because they would not name those from whom they said they purchased liquor should have given the grand jury whatever information they had.

Senator Moses Urged Attendance, Says Brookhart

Telling his story of the "Wall Street booze party," Brookhart said he was urged to attend by "our distinguished president pro tem." The president pro tem is Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, and he was presiding at the time.

The Iowa said Otto Kahn, of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, had sat on his right at the dinner on E. E. Loomis, of Morgan and Company, on his left.

Senator Moses had to rap severely for order when Brookhart read a letter to himself which said "to broadcast tales about his host, the suspicion that you are charter member of the Great American Polkaet club seems amply confirmed." The chamber roared with laughter.

Senator Edge of New Jersey (Concluded on Page 10, Column 2.)

Carousing Senators Attacked

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Senator Brookhart of Iowa thrust his heralded expose of "Wall Street booze parties" before a keenly attentive senate today in an atmosphere alive with suspense generated by the recurring furor over drinking among the nation's lawmakers.

His eyewitness account of a dinner held for some republican senators in the Willard hotel three years ago occupied more than an hour. Throngs in the galleries who had expected names of all the legislative guests to be revealed were disappointed, however. The Iowa mentioned none of his colleagues as having imbibed from the "beautiful silver flasks" which were the dinner favors.

Smoot and Gooding Given Clean Slate

The only word he gave about any senator's use or abuse of the attractive "containers of Scotch" was that Senator Smoot of Utah and the late Senator Gooding of Idaho had not availed themselves of the refreshment.

"As to whether the other boys did, they can answer for themselves," Brookhart told the senate. He named Walter J. Faby, New York broker, as the dinner host.

While the Iowa condemned alcohol in a high pitched voice as an "evil" and "poison" and in fast words told his story of Washington liquor parties and prohibition enforcement in general, another prohibitionist, Senator Howell, of Nebraska, was busy preparing an address on his research into lawlessness in the capital.

Judge Kenyon Listens in Gallery to Answer

William S. Kenyon, a member of President Hoover's law enforcement commission, and beside him there was Senator Morris Sheppard, of Texas, the "father" of the eighteenth amendment. Judge Kenyon later conferred with Brookhart, said he "enjoyed" the talk and remarked about the commission's interest in the situation.

Tomorrow Brookhart will answer a subpoena to go before the District of Columbia grand jury to tell his story of the 1926 Faby dinner. He promised the senate to answer every question put to him in the grand jury room, and said the three reporters for the Washington Times who are in jail because they would not name those from whom they said they purchased liquor should have given the grand jury whatever information they had.

Senator Moses Urged Attendance, Says Brookhart

Telling his story of the "Wall Street booze party," Brookhart said he was urged to attend by "our distinguished president pro tem." The president pro tem is Senator Moses, of New Hampshire, and he was presiding at the time.

The Iowa said Otto Kahn, of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, had sat on his right at the dinner on E. E. Loomis, of Morgan and Company, on his left.

Senator Moses had to rap severely for order when Brookhart read a letter to himself which said "to broadcast tales about his host, the suspicion that you are charter member of the Great American Polkaet club seems amply confirmed." The chamber roared with laughter.

Senator Edge of New Jersey (Concluded on Page 10, Column 2.)