

WALDO HILLS ENJOY PARTIES

Hallowe'en Affairs Delight Youngsters and Adults Of Community

WALDO HILLS, November 5.—Mrs. D. Gordon Simpson, teacher at Center, entertained her pupils Thursday at a Hallowe'en party at the school. The room was decorated in keeping with the day. The games were also such as we associate with this holiday as ducking for apples, biting apples, hung on strings and pinning the tail on a cat at which latter game George Haberly of the first grade won the prize. Refreshments of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, ice cream and cider were served at a beautifully decorated table. A number of mothers went to school to see the children enjoy the fun. Mrs. Simpson was assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Orr of Salem.

Mrs. A. A. Geer has been staying at the Jack Riches home in Silverton for two weeks caring for Miss Mary Wolfard who is seriously ill.

The work of painting the Willard community house was finished Saturday. They hope to begin on the inside work this week. It takes a long time to finish this building as the work is being done by the men of the community who have to do it when the weather is bad or between jobs on their own farms.

Roger Comstock is working on Saturday and after school at the Dickerson store in Silverton.

Frank Bowers returned home Monday from a week's visit with his brother, W. H. Bowers near Coquille.

Edith and Ethel Knight attended a party given for the Girl Reserves at the Walter Davis home in Silverton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mader returned last Tuesday to their home in Colfax, Wn., after a ten days visit with Mr. Mader's sister, Mrs. P. W. Neuswanger.

Burnett Haberly attended the Oregon State College-Washington State college football game in Portland Saturday.

Orville, Irvin and Harvey Kaser and Alvis Brunner spent the week end at their homes. They boys are picking apples near Sheridan and report a fine crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight and daughters Edith and Ethel attended the masquerade party given by the Pythian Sisters at their hall in Silverton last Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Haberly and children George and Phyllis Jean spent Sunday at the Will Krenz home at Victor Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Stadell Jr., and three small children and Mrs. Otto Gehring motored to Portland Sunday to spend the day with relatives.

Mrs. John Brunner entertained at a Hallowe'en party for her niece, Jane Ogden who makes her home with the Brunners.

The guests, members of the 7th and 8th grades of the Evergreen

SILVERTON TO VOTE BUDGET

School Meeting Scheduled For November 13 to Consider Finances

SILVERTON, November 5.—A school meeting of district No. 4 will be held at the Eugene Field Auditorium November 13 at 8 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the budget prepared by the levying board. The total amount of money needed by the district during the fiscal year beginning on June 17, 1929 and ending June 16, 1930, has been estimated in the budget and includes the amounts to be received from the county school fund, state school fund, elementary school fund, special district tax, and all other monies of the district.

The estimates are: personal service, $70,415.37; supplies, $4,308.89; maintenance and repairs, $1,590.00; debt service, $15,243.77; miscellaneous, $3,964.63; emergency, $1,500.00. This makes a total of $97,022.66. The total estimated receipts, not including proposed tax, is $47,511.79, leaving a balance amount to be raised by district tax of $49,510.87.

The amount of bonded indebtedness is $102,000.00.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Preston, who recently sold their Silverton business, the Silverton Electric store, have rented the room formerly occupied by the Lovett Barber shop and have put in a stock of radios. They will feature the Apex radio along with several other makes.

Frank John, the Silver Falls Timber company bridge foreman, whose skull was fractured on October 25th when he accidentally fell from a piling, is improving and every hope is now held out for his recovery.

Mr. John was brought to the Silverton hospital from Camp 16 where he was injured. He did not regain consciousness until the third day at the hospital.

Mr. John's home was formerly in Seattle.

Brush College to Have New Dryer

BRUSH COLLEGE, Nov. 5.—The heavy prune crop here this year and lack of drying facilities has caused a great many growers to think seriously of the possibilities of like yields in the future and to plan accordingly.

V. L. Gibson of Brush College and Dr. Hellwarth of Toledo are now excavating for a six-tunnel dryer to be erected soon. The building is to be on the V. L. Gibson property.

Hallowe'en Held Cause of Injury

SCOTTS MILLS, Nov. 5.—(Special)—Mrs. L. N. Vallen fell Thursday evening while going to her home from a neighbors. It being Hallowe'en the lights had been turned off, and she stumbled and fell, tearing the ligaments in her left leg and her right arm, but is getting along nicely.

Rickreall High Is Very Active

RICKREAL, November 5.—A Hallowe'en costume party was given last Friday night by the senior class of Rickreall high school in the Haunted Mill dance hall. The hall was decorated with orange and black crepe paper and orange lights, with jack-o'-lantern lights on the stage.

There were about 50 different costumes.

Several snappy games were played.

Lunch was served at 10 o'clock, which consisted of pumpkin pie and cider.

The party was sponsored by F. M. Mitchell, S. H. Huth and Doris Phenice.

Best Students Needn't Study

SILVERTON, Nov. 5.—The study hall exemptions for the students in the Silverton senior high school are as follows: students having four A's are exempt from all study halls. Students having two A's and two B's are excused from the sixth period providing they have no classes.

MOLDY STRAW KILLS COWS

Botulinus Poison Fatal to Fine Jerseys on W. S. Bartlett Farm

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 5.—Willard Bartlett on the Buena Vista road has lost five registered Jersey cows in the past few days through botulinus poisoning. They had eaten some moldy straw which was found to contain the poison. A sixth cow also had eaten of it, but a veterinarian was summoned in time to save it.

Mr. Bartlett has just brought home the Jersey bull, Tiddledywinks, which took second prize at the International Stock show in Portland. It had defeated the grand champion Jersey in 1927, at the same time taking first place over the Island of Jersey animals. The bull is a Kings Victor and is owned by W. S. and Pearl M. Bartlett.

DALLAS FIREMEN ARE BUSY SUNDAY

DALLAS, Nov. 5.—(Special)—Sunday proved a busy day for members of the Dallas fire department, they being called out about 10 o'clock in the morning for a balagee amount to be raised by district tax of $49,510.87.

The amount of bonded indebtedness is $102,000.00.

Seniors of Gervais High Entertain

GERVAIS, Nov. 6.—The senior class of the high school held their annual class party at the school building Thursday evening. Members of the class and invited guests to the number of fifteen were present and thoroughly enjoyed themselves. Decorations, games and the refreshments were in keeping with the Hallowe'en season.

Rev. Walter VanNuy spoke at the local Presbyterian church Sunday morning, taking as his subject his trip to the Holy Land of last summer. Rev. VanNuy told some very interesting things about the people and their customs. At the evening service at Aurora Rev. VanNuy illustrated his talk with stereoptical views taken during his trip. The local church is now well organized for the winter's work and the Sunday school and church services are both well attended, and a good chorus choir renders appropriate music. Autumn roses, chrysanthemums and gladioli formed pleasing decorations for the service Sunday.

TRINITY CHURCH HAS ALL DAY SERVICE

SILVERTON, November 5.—Sunday was a big day at Trinity church at Silverton. The annual festival was held, opening at 11:00 o'clock with the Rev. Carl Foss of Seattle in the pulpit.

The Rev. Mr. Foss elaborated on the divine and human side of salvation. He stressed the point that God gave man facilities to use and that prayer should be accompanied by work and vice versa, if the full benefits of life were to be gained. "A farmer can sit all summer in his field and pray," he said "but unless that farmer works, by autumn he will have no crop. Work and prayer should go together." Rev. Mr. Foss carried his illustration from material to spiritual work.

Both the junior and senior choir gave selections at the morning service. The morning offering amounted to $359, which about completes the $1174. Trinity's portion of the budget for synodical work.

Following the services dinner was served in the church social rooms and this again was followed by a program sponsored by Trinity Young People's society of Seattle in the pulpit.

The program consisted of a vocal solo by Hazel Goyette; piano solo by Viola Larson; instrumental duet by Norman Jensen and Palmer Torvund; violin solo by Oscar Setrum and the address of the afternoon by the Rev. Carl Foss.

JEFFERSON FOLK ENJOY COAST TRIP

JEFFERSON, November 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lynes, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Phelps and sons Gerald and Francis; Harry McKee of Jefferson and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fraley and daughter of Maupin, formed a party who went to Waldport Sunday on a fishing trip.

They returned Sunday evening, having had a fine time; but the fish seemed to be on a strike and would not bite.

Mr. and Mrs. George Vail of Jefferson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fortmiller of Albany motored to Springfield Sunday to spend the day with George Vail's grandmother who is 90 years old.

Mrs. Whitsell went to McMinnville last week where she will be employed at the cannery. She expects to be away until Christmas.

Robert Terhune, a farmer living one mile north of town is making some improvements on his ranch, by building a new hen house 18x36 feet in size, in which to house his flock of white leghorn chickens. He expects to keep 150 pullets for laying purposes.

Mrs. Gertrude Weddle, Mrs. H. E. Jones and daughters Geraldine and Shirley were guests of Frank Weddle's near Albany Sunday. Other guests at the Weddle home were Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fraley and daughter of Maupin, Oregon.
