

TURNER SCHOOL IN GOOD SHAPE

County Supt. Mary L. Fulkerson Finds System Well Organized

TURNER, Nov. 14.—County Superintendent Mary L. Fulkerson was a recent visitor at the Turner school. She found teachers and pupils working together hoping to accomplish much in book learning and outside activities. The enrollment of the intermediate room is nearing 40. Mrs. Crystal Edwards is teacher.

A new radiator has been installed in the teachers' rest room. The room is also used by members of the health clinic staff.

The Journalism class of the Turner high school is publishing a monthly paper called the T. H. S. Beacon, to which all members of the Journalism class will contribute. It will be printed on the mimeograph bought recently by the Turner school district.

Mrs. Brazier Small, an officer of Marion county health clinic has secured Mrs. Mildred Cox for the manager of the Christmas Red Cross seal sale, in Turner district. The sale will begin the last of the month.

The Turner football team will complete its schedule Friday, November 15, when it meets Brownsville on the Brownville field. This will be the last game played for Turner high by five of the boys who will graduate this year. They are Willet Jesse, James Denyer, Willard Bear, Cecil Miller and Louis Fowler.

Mrs. W. S. Burgoyne spent several days in Salem with Mr. Burgoyne's mother, who is ill. Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Riches entertained with a party for a number of their friends Saturday evening.

Is He Heir to Her Ills?

Mrs. Ethelwynne Mertz, of Newark, radium poison victim, and her son, Edward, six, to whom she fears she has transmitted the incurable malady. On his account she is one of the plaintiffs in a $500,000 suit against the United States Radium Corporation.

Recent claims totaling $1315,70 have been paid to holders of Oregon Statesman, North American Accident Insurance Co., policies.

VALSETZ ROAD HAS BEEN IMPROVED

VALSETZ, Nov. 14.—The road between Falls City and Valseltz was closed November 13, 14 and 15 in order to repair a few bridges. The closing was necessary as detours are impossible. C. M. Barnhart, district road supervisor, had notices posted to that effect in both Valseltz and Falls City.

Big improvements of the road, have been made under the supervision of Mr. Barnhart, in the past two years, considering the condition the road was in and the finances allowed by the county.

Residents of Valseltz are very grateful for all work done on the road.

Mr. and Mrs. John Zack, of St. Helens, Ore., drove in Friday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brink over Armistice day. Mrs. Brink and Mrs. Zack are sisters.

Friends Surprise Mrs. Bert Terry

SILVERTON, November 14.—Mrs. Bert Terry was taken by surprise Tuesday evening when a group of Royal Neighbors walked in on her. The callers were all in costume and some very amusing costumes there were, according to all reports. A pot luck lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Present were: Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Charles Hartman, Mrs. Martin Warwick, Mrs. Fred Otjen, Mrs. A. W. Green, Mrs. Martin Peel, Mrs. Charles Morley, Mrs. Frank Morley, Mrs. Bertha Morley, Mrs. Clarence Morley, Mrs. Joe Staynor, Mrs. Ralph Adams, Mrs. Fred Baker, Mrs. Ira Stewart, Mrs. L.

Tucker, Mrs. Ines Heater, Mrs. Earl Garver, Mrs. E. T. Miller, Mrs. Anna Cross, Mrs. Theodore Grace.

Wm. G. Townley Passes at Amity

AMITY, November 14.—Wm. G. Townley, eastern Oregon rancher and an Amity resident for the past year, passed away at his home in Amity Sunday night. He was born January 19, 1862, at Briggsville, Wisconsin. He was 67 years of age.

He is survived by his widow, Mary T. Townley, and a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Bidler of Union, Oregon. The body will be taken from the Ladd funeral parlor in McManville to Union, where the deceased formerly lived.

Mr. Townley was a member of the Shrine, the Blue lodge and was a Knight Templar.

Hedges Enjoy the Philippine Islands

SILVERTON, Nov. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hedges write from the Philippine Islands that they like the country quite well there although it has been very warm. But they have all been feeling very well including the new daughter, Margaret Ellen, who was born September 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. Hedges left for the Islands early last spring. Mr. Hedges, who was construction engineer for the Silver Falls Timber company, is with a lumber company on the island. At present they are living seven hours from Manila.

Rosedale Has Many Guests

ROSEDALE, November 14.—Mrs. E. B. Stroud and two children are visiting relatives in Portland and Rainier.

Mrs. A. J. Haldy and baby

Frances are in Portland at the home of her parents for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Cole visited Mr. Cole's mother in Portland last Sunday.

The Carter family has moved from the house in Rosedale and is now outside the school district. The Baldwin family has also gone, having started for California last Monday.

Mr. Steier has removed some of the extra seats from the school as it is not nearly so crowded as at the first of the year.

FORTY HOUR SERVICE

GERVAIS, November 14.—Forty-hour services were held at the Catholic church beginning Sunday and closing Tuesday evening, and were well attended. Father Knoll of Wilsonville and Father Kraus of St. Louis assisted Father Orth.

SELL LAND
GERVAIS, November 14.—Ted Stuber recently sold to A. Grosse of Salem 37 acres of the Johnston estate west of Gervais. This is timber and beaverdam land and was unimproved. Mr. Grosse is now clearing the land and getting ready to improve it.
