

GRUNDY BACKS UP AT SENATE PROBE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Explaining that he thought it would be improper for him to criticize "elected public officials," Joseph T. Grundy, president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers association, today declined to give the senate lobby committee his list of "common and preferred senators."

The white haired Pennsylvania, who was in a jovial mood, was excused from the stand after a brief exchange of banter with Senator Caraway, democrat, Arkansas, chairman of the committee.

Grundy was recalled as a result of his previous testimony that certain states were "backward" and that their senators should have little voice in framing tariff legislation. He was asked to submit a statement of what the committee termed "common and preferred senators," but the statement he sent was considered inadequate.

Taking the stand, Grundy was asked by Caraway if he was ready to give a list to the committee. "Upon reflection," he responded, "I think I made a mistake in promising to give the list. I think it would be very unbecoming of me to criticize elected public officials."

"All right," Caraway replied, "I just wanted to see if you would turn yellow at the last minute." He later withdrew this remark.

DETECTIVE KILLED IN PISTOL BATTLE

SPOKANE, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Detective Roy Fordyce, 54, was killed today in a three cornered pistol fight between two officers and a man they were questioning.

Ralph Larsen, 22, alias Richard Landis, who was charged with murder, had his left arm broken as they exchanged volleys, and his head was beaten by Detective George Bradley, Charles Dow, 20, alias Davis, was charged with being an accessory to murder, although police said he did no shooting.

Fordyce and Bradley saw the pair buy a .38 caliber pistol at a pawn shop, and followed them to their hotel room to ask the motive for the purchase.

Larsen and Dow said they intended to use the weapon for nothing unlawful, and the officers were about to leave.

Suddenly, Bradley said, Larsen pulled another pistol from his pocket and started shooting. Fordyce and Bradley replied with their pistols, the bullets pocking all over the hotel room. Police reported Larsen as called to Dow "shoot him! He's a killing machine!"

Bradley said he saw Fordyce fall, shot through the heart.
