

BROOKS SCENE BIG REUNION

Members of Family From Idaho and Montana at Harris Home

BROOKS, November 14.—Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris had as their guests the past week three sisters and their brother. They were all elderly folks and when their ages were added together plus Mr. and Mrs. Harris' ages the total was $41. The ladies were Mrs. Sarah Barnes and Mrs. King of Jasper, Montana, Mrs. Swatsiger, of Fall, Montana and their brother, Alex Carnegie of Idaho. The group will visit in Oregon City and from there they will go to Portland where they will be guests at the homes of Mr. Carnegie's two daughters, Mrs. Sarah Barnes and Mrs. King will return home with their sister, Mrs. Swatsiger where they will spend the winter, and Mr. Alex Carnegie and his three sisters will also visit another brother, Mr. and Mrs. John Carnegie at Albany, Oregon.

Mrs. Jennie Gilbert and Keith Williams have returned home from a week's visit at the home of Mr. Williams' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Williams at Tacoma, Washington. They also visited Mr. Williams' sister, Mrs. Henry Warren, and his two aunts, Mrs. William Howe and Mrs. McKenzie, and a cousin of Mr. Williams, Harry Brown all of Tacoma. Charles Williams, of Lewiston, Montana, brother of J. T. Williams was also a guest at the Williams home.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Cook of Grants Pass, Oregon, were week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Harris.

Mrs. Maysel Cooper and son Teddy Cooper have returned home from Arlie where they had been visiting for a week at the home of Mrs. R. D. McAlpine.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ramp returned home Tuesday from an extended trip. They visited their son, Floyd Ramp and family at Roseburg, and from there they went to Gold Beach and visited another son, Rollie Ramp and wife. Mr. O. O. Epley took care of their farm during their absence.

H. E. Taplin of Coehran, Ore., has been a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffindaffer the past week.

Mrs. Ellen Aspinwall and her two grand-children, Clarice and Ted Bussell of Salem were week end guests at the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Aspinwall and family.

Gridiron Heavyweight

John Valenti, of the Pierce School, Philadelphia, who is the heaviest scholastic football player in the country. Despite his 302 pounds and 6 feet 3 inches, Valenti is so fast on his feet that he is used at both fullback and tackle.

Mrs. Cecil V. Ashbaugh who has been ill the past two weeks is much better.

Monmouth and Dallas Cars Hit

MONMOUTH, November 14.—Mrs. Glen Whiteaker and Mrs. E. J. Sivier, of Monmouth, driving a car owned by Art Cutler also of Dallas. Mrs. Whiteaker's car lost the left front wheel and sustained a badly smashed fender, and the Dallas car in which a Mr. Marsh, also was riding, was considerably damaged. L. E. Haselton, who lives near the scene, assisted the Monmouth folk in getting home as their car had to be towed in. Observers said that Mrs. Whiteaker was on her own side of the road.

BRUSH COLLEGE CLUB HAS MEET

Community Club Enjoys Big Armistice Day Program Monday

BRUSH COLLEGE, November 14.—The Brush College community club held an Armistice day program at their regular meeting, November 8. After a short business meeting and appointing of committees and interesting program was given.

Dr. Norman K. Tully of Salem gave the address of the evening, speaking on the "Peace Pact." The children of the school gave a splendid play portraying the different aspects of war from the time of the Civil war to the World war. Donald Ewing represented "war" and Margaret Christensen represented peace, the other character choosing war or peace. Irene Cutler took the part of Red Cross nurse and Billy Utley sang several songs among them being "The Vacant Chair," "Yankee Doodle," and "In Flanders Field." The fourth grade children gave the "American Creed."

Mr. Fred Ewing and Mrs. Charles McCarter, refreshment committee served an appetizing lunch in the club kitchen following the program.

CAR MINUS LIGHTS WRECKED ON ROAD

MONMOUTH, November 14.—Mrs. Gail Kennedy, manager of Gridler's department store and president of the Monmouth business and professional women's club, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cochran, managers of Arnold Arms, a large student home, narrowly escaped serious injuries late last night when the lights went out on their car as they were returning from Portland. They had attended the Passion Play and left Portland about midnight. When about 2 miles north of Tigard, their lights went blank, and Cochran drove the car as far off the side of the highway as he dared without ditching it, and he armed with a flashlight attempted to warn traffic of his plight, and avert collisions.

R. Olsen of Sherwood enroute home from Portland, failed to see Cochran's flashlight signal, and rammed the dark car in which Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Cochran were sitting, one in each seat. Cochran leaped aside in time to avoid being run down.

Leaving their badly wrecked car, the Monmouth folk gladly accepted a proffered lift from two Oregon State college men students who were enroute to Corvallis.

Cochran's car was too badly damaged to warrant repair, and he could collect no damages as he was parked partly upon the pavement. He turned it in at once on a new car.

INDEPENDENCE CLUB ENJOYS MEETING

INDEPENDENCE, November 14.—The Independence commercial club met Tuesday evening in the dining room of the Presbyterian church. After dinner followed the business meeting at which time Glen Smith was made secretary in place of Elmer Addison who resigned.

The Smith Hughes judging team of the Pacific International stock show represented by Hugh Hannah was then heard from.

Miss Robinson of the 4-H club team also gave an account of their trip.

Mr. Montgomery who has just returned from an extended trip through the south and east told of his interesting experience.

Methodist Church Club Busy New Furnace Will be Installed

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 14.—The Boosters club of the Methodist church met Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Elmer Barnhart. After sewing and visiting a while the president, Mrs. Barnhart conducted a short business meeting. At 10 o'clock the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Ed. Kelly and Mrs. Arlie Anderson, served delicious refreshments.

Present were Mesdames Berry, Hewitt, Mack, Irvine, Kelley, Hannah, Naslund, Herschberger, Mary Smiley, Carrie Smiley, Krueger, Sylvester, Anderson, Ranton, and Barnhart.

The next meeting will be in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Cora Berry.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Methodist church Wednesday evening, it was decided that a new furnace be installed in the church immediately.
