Capitol Club Will Begin Season Today

Mrs. William Dancy will be hostess for members of the Capitol club, one of the outstanding bridge clubs of Salem, this afternoon at her home. This will be the first meeting of this club since its resumption of activity after the summer vacation period. An interesting feature of the club is that it has many special evening meetings.

Mrs. J. A. Bernardi Division Hostess

Mrs. J. A. Bernardi was hostess Monday afternoon for a group of women from the institutions department who have as their chief project, work for the feeble minded folk. These women finished a project which they have been working on for the past few weeks that of making scrap books for the children at the feeble minded institute.

Monday afternoon saw the completion of 150 of these books, the cloth pages of which are gay with attractive pictures, and the edges of which are neatly finished to stand wear. Much credit is due the chairman, Mrs. Bernardi and her group of workers for colorful and attractive work that they have done, according to Mrs. S. M. Elliott, general chairman of the department who was a special tea guest for this meeting.

Following the completion of the books Mrs. Bernardi served tea. Those present Monday afternoon were Mrs. Carrie F. Fowle, Mrs. Mary Johnson, Mrs. Lorena Berthel, Mrs. Mary Starr, Mrs. Ida L. Miles, and Mrs. Endicott as a special guest.

Pauline Knowland Goes to Pasadena

Miss Pauline Knowland, popular bride-elect for whom many affairs have been given in the last few weeks, left Tuesday for Pasadena, California, in company with her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Knowland, where she will be the guest of Mrs. Roy Wesley Burton, nee Zeta Rosenberg of Salem, at her home on Eldora road.

At the Burton home November 23, Miss Knowland will become the bride of Burton T. Randall at high noon. Following the ceremony the young people will take a short wedding trip through southern California and then be at home in Glendale, California, where Mr. Randall is in business.

Harvest Home Festival Tea Friday

Each year the members of the Home Missionary societies of the three Methodist churches sponsor a harvest home festival tea at the Methodist Old People's home located at Center and 16th streets. This tea comes just at Thanksgiving time and therefore takes the form of a "festival" with gifts of all sorts of vegetables and fruits in any edible form, presented to the home by its many interested friends.

This year the tea will be held Friday between the hours of 2:30 o'clock and 5 o'clock in the social room at the home. Mrs. F. A. Legge has general charge of the tea arrangements. A short program will be given.

Passion Play Is Reported Remarkable

Mrs. W. E. Anderson returned from Portland Tuesday where she had been visiting since Saturday and where she saw the Passion Play Saturday afternoon.

Edward Hurleman, concertmaster of the Portland symphony, directed the chorus of Portland people who sang for this beautiful and most pretentious production which has never been shown in Portland. Mr. Hurleman directed the chorus in person Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Anderson saw and heard him in the symphony concert.

In speaking of Fasschat, the tenor who took the lead in the Passion Play, Mrs. Anderson expressed the opinion that he had a more beautiful tenor voice than any artist who had ever appeared in the auditorium. Another thing of special interest concerning the play was the vast numbers of German folk who came with their families of three—four or more to hear their native language as it was spoken and sung in this play.

Monday night Mrs. Anderson heard Gaili Curel for whom she brought home no enthusiasm.

Etakta Club Has Annual Tea Meeting

Each year the Etakta club has a silver tea for the benefit of the Children's Farm home near Corvallis. Tuesday afternoon between the hours of 2:30 o'clock and 5:30 o'clock Mrs. H. S. Bossard was hostess for the tea for this year. Mrs. Gertrude Eakin was assistant hostess.

The affair was delightful. Large baskets of bright hued chrysanthemums were arranged everywhere they could be placed to add effectiveness to the attractive guest rooms. The tea table was centered with the same flowers and adding to their beauty here shone lighted candles in harmonizing shades.

Mrs. Vard Hughes and Mrs. F. N. Toothace presided at the tea table.

Assisting with the serving were Miss Henrietta Bishop, Miss Kathryn Elgin, Miss Marian Britz, Miss Gertrude Oelger, and Miss Dorothy Bossard.

Mrs. S. B. Gillette and Mrs. T. E. Graber assisted about the rooms. This latter group of women with Mrs. Vard Hughes as chairman acted as the social committee to arrange the tea.

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd added much to the afternoon's enjoyment with an interesting talk on art. Music given by Mrs. Malson Bishop and Mrs. Darlow Johnson also were attractive additions to the program.

Monday Night Club Has Attractive Dance

An unusually attractive dance was that for which the Monday Night Dancing club was host at Castilian Hall Monday night. A large number of the membership were present and the evening was highly suggestive of the approaching Thanksgiving season.

Among the several dinner parties given preceding the dance was that for which Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Baum were hosts at the Marlon Hotel.

A. R. in this new C. A. R. organization. Portland has a very large and very active organization, and much is hoped for the Salem group.

Mrs. C. C. Clark is chairman of the organization committee. She now has blanks ready for those who wish to enroll.
