

Hundreds of Bargains in Salem
On November 21st

The Oregon Statesman

FOUNDED 1851

Thursday is Valley Day
in Salem

Salem, Oregon, Wednesday Morning, November 20, 1929.

ANNOUNCING ALL VALLEY DAY

Thursday
Nov.
21

To the Buyers
of Six Counties

Ladd & Bush,
Bankers
Salem, Oregon

Hillpot's Bankrupt Sale

Men's Furnishing Goods and LOGGERS' SHOES

Every piece of Merchandise Bargain
Moved to

137 South Commercial St.
Next door north of Harry Scott's
Motor Cycle Shop

Come In and See Us In Our New Location

PARK YOUR CAR at EIKER'S 12 Long Hours For Only 25c

Why park your bundles all around town and worry about being parked overtime when you can park your car for 12 hours at the Eiker Auto Company, located right in the heart of the city, for only 25c.

Just think of it, complete auto service for 24 hours each day. We never close. We have room for 300 cars, the largest garage in the city. You can leave your car here, take your time to shop, drop back when ever you want with bundles. Use our rest rooms and waiting rooms, as long as you like. Eiker Auto Co., just south of the First National Bank on the corner of Liberty and Ferry streets.

First National Bank

Salem's Consolidated
Community Owned Bank

A POSITIVE GUARANTEE

The Capital Journal and The Oregon Statesman, in sponsoring this 'All-Valley day, take it upon themselves to guarantee to buyers that each merchant participating in this one-day event is offering genuine bargains. The idea is to demonstrate to the people of the central Willamette Valley that there are marked advantages in buying in Salem.

It is the aim of these papers to see that such cooperative events are continued in the future with the view of emphasizing from time to time the great buying opportunities afforded by Salem merchants.

Capital Journal

The Oregon Statesman