Alumnae Plan Big Sacred Heart Benefit

The committee on arrangements for the benefit bridge which is being sponsored by the Alumnae association of the Sacred Heart Academy at the Academy Friday, November 23, between the hours of two and six o'clock in the afternoon and from 8 o'clock in the evening until a late hour for both men and women is as follows:

Mrs. A. A. Mickel, Mrs. Duane Gibart, Mrs. Elmer L. Ross, Mrs. R. E. McNulty, Mrs. G. Heemann, Mrs. A. Raymond Barton, Dr. Ruth Dougherty, Miss Honora Reidy, Miss Pauline Patterson, Miss Sally Lansing, Miss Theresa Albrich, Miss Mardette Heenan.

This is the first such affair that the Alumnae has ever sponsored and the results so far are very satisfactory. It is planned by the committee to have 100 tables both afternoon and evening, and from the responses which are being made it seems highly possible that this goal will be realized. Reservations may be made by calling any member of the committee or the academy.

A short program of music will be presented by Alumnae members, and the choral society of the academy will also sing. Other numbers will be presented from the department of music of the academy.

A bit of the history of the Academy is interesting coming at this time when it is occupying the same field for Friday.

The Sisters of the Holy Name came to Salem in 1863. The Masonic hall and its site of two lots, located on Church and Chemeketa streets was purchased in August, 1863. The Academy opened its doors to students on September 7, 1863. Eighty day students were enrolled during the first week; the resident students registered were six. Sister Mary of the Sacred Heart was first supervisor.

Among the members of the original faculty were Sister Mary of Calvary, who taught the advanced classes and music; Sister Mary Florentine, teacher of the intermediate and primary classes; Sister Mary Agatha, who was "busy about many things." Sister Mary Angel Guardian assumed charge of the boys in the late sixties and early seventies, the Academy of the Sacred Heart extended its range of patronage to all parts of Oregon, between Salem and Roseburg, for the state schools of Eugene and Corvallis did not exist.

The present site of the Sacred Heart Academy was purchased on March 17, 1864, from Judge Boise.

Writers League Miss Garfield's Guest

The Writers' League met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop with Miss Edna Garfield and Miss Renska Swart as hostesses.

The program, as is the custom with this organization, was almost entirely original numbers. These were presented by Mrs. W. F. Fargo, Mr. Gordon, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, and Miss Lucy Higgins. Mrs. Fargo also gave a review of "Passion Flower" by Kathleen Norris, which caused much sprightly discussion. Prof. Morton E. Peck contributed to the evening program with informal mention of his recent trip east and abroad.

Tuesday was the sixty-sixth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg and as such came in for mention. In commemoration of this battle a special guest, impersonated Lincoln and read the "Gettysburg address." Another token of this day was the picture of Lincoln and the flag which formed a part of the decorative motif for the evening.

Smith, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mrs. John Clifford, Professor and Mrs. Morton E. Peck, Mrs. W. D. Fargo, Mrs. B. L. Steeves, and the hostesses, Miss Renska Swart and Miss Edna Garfield.

You, too, can have long, soft abundant hair. It's simply a matter of using this easy method; approved by hair-specialists; endorsed by stars of stage and screen; used by millions who haven't time for the more laborious treatments.

Tonight when you arrange your hair, just put a little Danderine on your brush. Then as you draw the bristles through your hair, see how the scalp is toned and soothed. See how the hair becomes softer, easier to manage; how its natural color is brought out; how it takes on new brilliance and lustre!

Danderine dissolves the crust of dandruff; helps stop falling hair; keeps hair and scalp healthy; encourages the growth of long, silky, abundant hair. Five million bottles used a year. That proves Danderine's effectiveness!
