"The Molded Silhouette"

1785

PATTERN 1785
Statesman 18c Practical Pattern
The molded silhouette is exemplified in this striking afternoon frock of velvet or satin. The long shirred bodice is extremely smart while the skirt flares gracefully in accepted daytime length. Tiny tucks on the shoulders give added fullness to the bust.

Design 1785 may be fashioned of solid color material, preferably black, raisin, navy blue, brown or bottle green; or it may use a print with tiny colorful patterns splashed on a dark ground. This model gives very slender lines to the figure.

May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20 and 40. Size 16 requires 4 1/2 yards of 40 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped in stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

The new winter fashion book is ready for delivery. Price fifteen cents, but only ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Going Out Of Style? (Temporarily)

Short Hair Short Dresses

We hate to see it, but we can't change it, so to help the cause along we have secured about a hundred silk street frocks and are putting them on sale in two groups at about one-half their regular values — Colors and styles which were the very latest thing just a few weeks ago. Fine, high grade silks and satins. Late fall colorings. Almost all sizes.

$17.50 Values - $12.95
$15.00 Values - $7.95

We still think there are a lot of women going to stick to short hair and short dresses. They are the ones who will surely profit by this sale. Personally we can see about as much sense in long dresses for street, school and business wear as we can in long finger nails, waist lines and iron bound corsets. But its all in a lifetime. We're here to please the ladies, and whether you want them long or short, we have them.
