

News From Mid-Valley District Communities

Woodburn

WOODBURN, November 23.—Mrs. J. C. Beaumont of England who has been visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman H. Shorey was accompanied as far as Portland by the Shoreys' Monday. Mrs. Beaumont has been honor guest at many social functions during her stay here and intends to visit in Chicago and New York before leaving the United States for England.

Mr. and Mrs. Soren Nelson entertained 17 guests at a family dinner last Sunday.

J. C. Noyes and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Smith and children were recent guests at the home of Mr. Noyes, son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Noyes. Mrs. Noyes has recently made a trip to North Dakota where he says the weather is quite frigid, a foot of snow covering the ground and the thermometer registering near 15 below.

T. C. Poorman drove his mother, Mrs. Susan Livesley to Portland where she will visit at the home of her son, Major P. A. Livesley until after Thanksgiving. The Willamette Valley Veterinary Medical association will hold a meeting in Woodburn in the City hall December 11. The public is invited to the afternoon session where problems of interest to all stock raisers will be discussed.

Mrs. I. L. Patterson and Mrs. A. E. Austin attended the annual meeting and election of officers of the Society of the Mayflower descendant of the state of Oregon in Portland last Friday. In the evening the ladies were joined by Miss Julia Bell Austin and attended the Passion Play at the Auditorium.

Mrs. Eugene Moshberger has been quite ill for the past week but is now able to be up and around.

Mrs. G. Vickers, who has been visiting for the past week with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Vickers, has returned home to Cornelius.

Keith Powell attended the banker's meeting at Spokane the early part of last week.

Another card party, lunch and dance will be given by the Catholic Daughters of America in the St. Luke's hall, Tuesday night with music for the dancing by the Kinn's brothers orchestra.

Mrs. Jennie Corey of Seattle, Willis Kesey of McKenna, Washington, and Mrs. Ada Hoberg of Portland are at Kelsey home at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. L. H. Kelsey who is ill. Roy Kelsey of Detroit, Michigan, is expected to be home before the end of the week.

Joan Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Beck is rapidly convalescing from her operation for appendicitis and was brought home from the St. Vincent's hospital last Sunday.

"Jimmy" Chapelle returned home after working for the past eight months in northern California.

Colonel Eugene Moshberger and Lawrence Moshberger attended the funeral of the uncle, Morely Mack who died in Longview and was buried from the Christian church in Canby. They were accompanied by V. W. Tremaine and Charles L. Ogle.

Rosedale

ROSEDALE, November 23.—Mrs. E. B. Stroud returned Wednesday from Portland where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. C. Bozell.

The ladies Missionary society met with Mrs. Pearson of Sunny-side Wednesday afternoon. It was reorganized for the winter and the following officers elected: president, Mrs. J. J. Healy, secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Trick, committee to arrange work, Mrs. Pearson, Mrs. May Way, Mrs. H. H. Smith, Mrs. M. Cammack was appointed chairman of the study committee. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Elsie Trick Wednesday afternoon, December 11. All ladies of the community are invited.

The Bloom sale Thursday was well attended and most things sold well.

Mr. Ladd who is working for the Telephone company near Portland at present, visited his family here last Sunday.

Several from here attended the Friends Quarterly meeting at South Salem Friends church last Saturday.

Amity

AMITY, November 23.—Grant Newman of Wisconsin is visiting at the home of his uncle, Fred Newman.

The Amity high school second team met the Dayton second team on the home field in a game of football. The score was 12-0 in favor of Amity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Miller were Salem business visitors Monday of last week.

Miss Florence Snodgrass returned home Tuesday after spending several days in Portland visiting with friends and relatives.

Rickey

RICKEY, November 23.—Work on the play "Excuse Me" to be presented November 30 at the basket social is progressing nicely under the direction of Mary Sheridan.

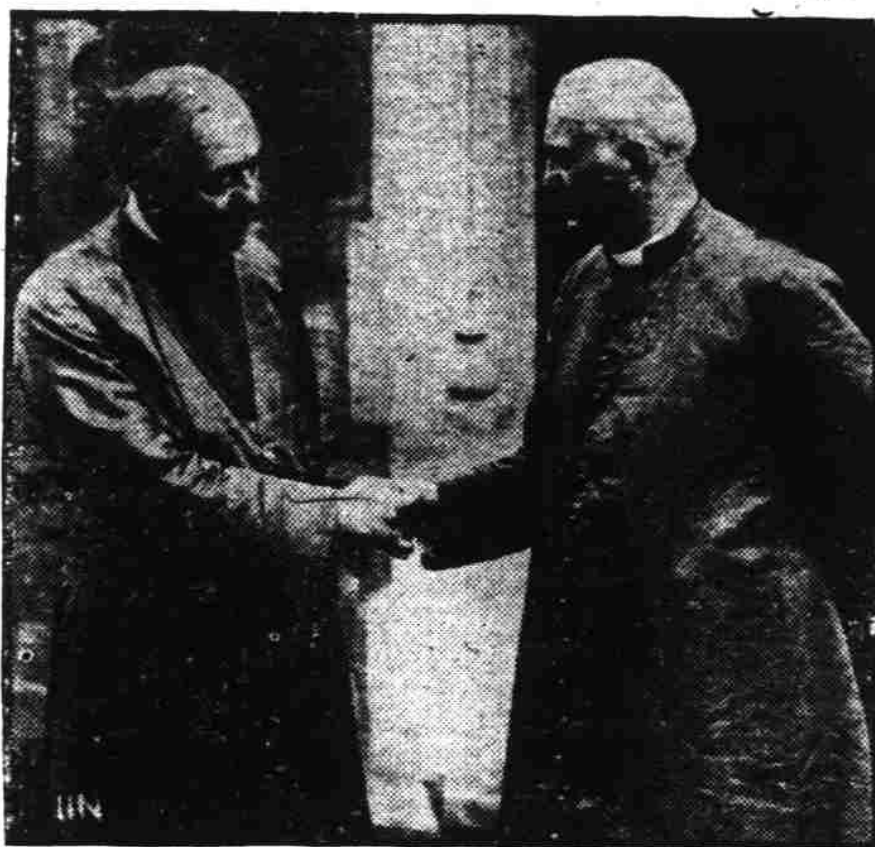

W. D. Horne is hauling wood from the Waldo hills.

A male quartette has been organized and are practicing numbers for the basket social under the direction of H. E. Martin.

W. Baker of Bethel did repair work on the Waldo hills telephone lines Thursday.

Mrs. Claude Ashby of Salem, who underwent a serious operation in Portland the first of the week is going as well as can be

New Presiding Episcopal Bishop Congratulated on Election

Bishop James E. Freeman, of Washington, left, congratulating the Right Rev. Charles Palmerston Anderson, Bishop of Chicago, on the latter's election as the presiding Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the United States. The new Bishop will not resign his Chicago Diocese although much of his time will be spent in New York, the headquarters of the Episcopal Church.

International News-Service

expected. Mrs. Ashby has many friends here, having lived here for several years. She is a sister of Mrs. W. D. Horner.

Mrs. C. Warner who has been at the Salem General hospital with blood poison of the hand is unable to be out again but will be able to return home for some time.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, November 23.—Mary C. Hamilton of Albany spent the week-end with her sister Mrs. M. A. Epley. Mrs. Hamilton's home is in Medford, and is spending the winter in Albany where she is taking a post-graduate course at Albany college.

Mrs. Robert Pendergraft underwent a major operation Monday at the Albany General hospital. Dr. Wallace performed the operation. It is reported that she is getting along nicely.

The girls of the grade school have organized a basket ball team and are practicing for the coming games this winter. The line-up is as follows: jumping center, Sylvia Vasek; side center, Ruby Koker; forwards, Kethel Smith and Goldie Gardner; guards, Jean McKee and Mervin Thurston.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKee returned Wednesday evening from a two weeks motor trip, which took them as far as Tia Juana.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. C. Mason. Miss Addie Libby lead the devotions. Mrs. George Mason, being the leader, conducted the lesson from the study book. Mrs. Earl Lynes had charge of the mystery box. After a social hour lunch was served.

Marion

MARION, November 23.—Word has been received that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Akins are the parents of a baby boy. Mrs. Akins will be remembered here as Miss Winnie Stephens.

Dr. David Hill of Salem gave a very interesting and enjoyable program of motion pictures at the Marion Community club meeting Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Overholser and Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Terhune motored to Lebanon Sunday and spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fennell. Mrs. Overholser remained over until Tuesday to assist in the care of her sister Miss Laura Thomas who is ill with rheumatism of the heart. Miss Thomas was taken to the hospital at Corvallis Tuesday for treatment.

George Stephens left Wednesday by auto for Chicago where he will be employed by the Vignia Horse company of Alberta, Canada during the International Live Stock show. After the exhibit at Chicago, George expects to bring thirteen head of this company's horses back to Oregon.

Pleasant View

PLEASANT VIEW, November 23.—Miss Bertha Shilling of Husum, Wash., is visiting with her aunt, Mrs. Ed Shilling.

Hugh Cook is having a new chicken house built at his farm which will be quite an up to date building. The structure is 12 feet wide by 67 feet long. George Brower is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Fehlen of Stayton have been spending a few days at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Walter Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook are now at Clarkston, Wash., visiting with Mrs. Cook's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hartley.

Scotts Mills

SCOTTS MILLS, November 23.—Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brounger and son Ira visited their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Mulvihill in Portland Sunday.

Mrs. A. Lang and family recently moved here from Bell, grade, Minnesota, and are staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Boji, until they can find a place to locate.

Special services were held at the Christian church Tuesday evening for the boy scouts. Rev. Livingston of the Christian church in Silverton preached

Dallas

DALLAS, Nov. 23.—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Stockwell were in Portland on business Thursday. On the occasion of their last trip their car was so badly damaged in an accident that they purchased a new one.

A number of Salem folk were in Dallas to attend the play given Tuesday night under the auspices of the Woman's club, among those noticed were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Renne, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Pieschl, Miss Janice Fawk and Miss Viola Keller. From a monetary standpoint the show was quite successful, over $70 each being realized by the club women and the producing company.

Miss Marguerite Huser, who is now employed in the office of the state accident commission, was a visitor in Dallas last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hayter of Salem are moving within a short time to Seattle where he will be in charge of the sales department of the E. W. and Wright company for Washington and part of Idaho. Mr. Hayter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayter of Dallas.

Jud Foster, who left Dallas about a month ago to engage in the garage business in Marshfield, was in town on business over a few days the first of the week.

Mrs. Otto Williams has returned to the Dr. Coffey hospital in Portland for additional medical treatment. Mrs. Williams was there for several months this summer, but has not been so well lately.

Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Bellman and family visited in Tacoma over the week end with Dr. Bellman's mother and Mrs. Bellman's niece.

Several people making the loop trip through Newport on Sunday reported the weather as being ideal on the coast.

Mrs. H. J. Elliott of Perrydale was in Dallas last Friday to attend a meeting of the Daughters of the Nile at the home of Mrs. L. A. Bollman.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Retzer are this week in Walla Walla where they were called by the serious illness of Mr. Retzer's mother, who passed away on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Bursell of the Mistote district and Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards of Monmouth, attended the meeting of the National Grange held in Seattle during the past week.

Mrs. Charles N. Bilyeu attended the meeting of the flax seed growers held in the Salem chamber of commerce Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Mariam Murray was in Portland Monday evening to attend the Galli Curci concert. Mrs. Murray's sister, Agnes Davis, was the national winner in the first Atwater Kent radio audition and is often to be heard over the radio. She still has one year of study under direction of the Atwater Kent Foundation.

All official board members of the Christian churches in Polk county will be entertained by the Dallas church Monday, November 25, when a banquet and meeting will be held to make plans for the Pentecostal meeting to be held this next year. C. F. Swander, state secretary, will attend the meeting.

Charles Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Campbell, who is attending Willamette university, is working to become a member of the debate team, which will mean a trip to Arizona, and participation in the debate tour. He was a member of the team last year.

Aumsville

AUMSVILLE, November 23.—Henry Stiller of Salem has purchased the M. McCollough farm about one mile west of town.

The student body of the high school held a banquet Wednesday evening in honor of the football team.

A. E. Bradley has purchased a farm at West Stayton and have moved their stock and farm implements to the farm and moved the household goods to town for this school term.

The high school has organized a basketball team this week and will soon start playing basketball as football season is over.

Miss Mayel Powell is at Lyons this week keeping house for Mr. and Mrs. E. Powell as Mrs. Powell has a badly sprained ankle and is not able to do her work.

The annual harvest was held at the school house Friday, November 15, the proceeds netting between $350 and $400.

The P. T. A. held a meeting at the school house Thursday evening to decide where to use this sum of money. It was decided to start the hot lunches to be served to the school children about December 1 and various other things be bought for the benefit of the school. Mrs. A. E. Bradley was chosen to prepare the hot lunches for the school. Mrs. M. McCollough, as a delegate to the P. T. A. state convention held at Grants Pass, gave a report on the splendid work being done by the P. T. A. of the state.

Central Howell

CENTRAL HOWELL, November 23.—A. E. Kuenzi is adding a large machine shed to his group of farm buildings.

P. Steffen has reshingled his house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Berglund of Washington and Miss Violet Funnmark and Dale Funnmark of Portland were over Sunday guests at the R. C. Ramsden home. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Swanson and family of Silverton were additional guests for Sunday dinner at the Ramsden home.

Dr. David Hill of Salem gave his moving picture program at Central Howell on Friday, the 23rd. Irene Naezger and Florence Hansen celebrated their birthdays together recently by entertaining a number of their friends with a party at the A. A. Naezger home.

The children had a merry time playing games and after the games Mr. Naezger served a much enjoyed lunch to the little folks.

Lincoln

LINCOLN, November 23.—Mrs. J. F. Walling, who has been spending a few weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt of Salem, returned to her home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Walling of Woodburn were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Walling.

George Boyd of McCreddie Springs spent the week-end with his family at the Gus Lake home.

Barbara Jean and Virginia Lee, small daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William Cox of Eagle Crest are spending a short time in Corvallis as the guest of grandparents.

Mrs. W. H. Moss, formerly Mrs. Jake Starr of the Zena district but now of Silverton has been quite ill, and was taken to a Portland hospital where she underwent a successful operation.

Jefferson

JEFFERSON, Nov. 23 — Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Emery entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell of Salem, whose birthdays occurred recently. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Ramsdell and sons Manley and Delmer, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haynes and sons, Delmer and Vernon and the host and hostess.

T. O. Barnes of Watsburg, Wn. is spending his vacation in Jefferson, the guest of his mother and brothers. Mr. Barnes is local manager of the Union Oil company at Watsburg.

Mrs. Charles McKee and Mrs. E. E. Jones were Salem visitors Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Looney and daughters Eleanor and Elizabeth left Wednesday for an extended visit with relatives and friends in California.

A drag-saw was stolen from the Fred Looney ranch north of town Monday night. It was the property of W. Barnes, who had been cutting wood for Mr. Looney. Barnes had left his trailer in the timber, and the thieves used the trailer to haul the sawsaw to the highway, where it is supposed they loaded it onto a truck.

North Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, Nov. 23 — Mr. and Mrs. R. Barber and family of Buena Vista were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Barber's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hinkle.

The Rev. J. Madden of Salem held services at the church here Sunday.

Miss McNeil came Tuesday to spend the week with her niece, Mrs. Howard.

J. S. Laughlin is having remodeling done to the interior of the kitchen at the McLaughlin home. J. R. Hammer is doing the work.

R. E. Tyler and family are now occupying their new home recently purchased from Mr. White. The county is doing considerable road improvement work here this year in the way of several new bridges and several miles of crushed rock.

Several new pupils have entered school recently making an enrollment of twenty at present.

McCoy

MCCOY, Nov. 23.—Misses Myrtle Shively and Dorothy and Lucella Finn attended the sophomore-freshmen reception at the Dallas high school Friday night.

Mrs. Dora Butterick of Amity spent Friday as a guest of Miss Myrtle Davis.

Mrs. Pauline Domes and Mrs. J. P. Peterson were Salem visitors Wednesday.

Frank Brooks took a load of dressed turkeys to Portland Friday.

Miss Winona Finn was home from Airline Friday. She visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Myrtle Davis of Portland is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Finn, for two weeks.

Mrs. Glenn Stevenson and Mrs. George Shively were Salem callers Saturday.

Miss Beatrice Hawley was a home from Oregon State college for the week-end.

Miss Catherine Shively of Portland spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Shively.

Mrs. George Vincent and Mrs. Frank Brooks were Dallas shoppers Tuesday.

The 4 BLACK CROWS Are here!

The Four Popular Styles
Also the Big Four in Tan
Are on Display

Complete Assortment of Styles for Men
Priced $5.50 to $8.00

Buster Brown Shoe Store

Where Style, Service and Economy Meet

- AND NOW -

VALLEY MOTOR CO.
AUTHORIZED FORD SALES AND SERVICE
SALEM, ORE.

Offers You
KELLY
Springfield Tires

AT PRICES WHICH REPRESENT THE MOST TIRE ECONOMY

FORD SIZES

	Kelly	Buckeye
30x3½ reg.	$6.75	$5.30
30x3½ O. S.	$7.25	$5.60
29x4.40	$8.25	$6.30
30x4.50	$9.20	$6.95
Truck Tire
30x5-8 ply	$28.40	$3.35
32x6-8 ply	$36.00	$5.60

LARGER SIZES

	Kelly	Buckeye
29x4.75	$10.65	$ 8.35
30x5.00	$11.35	$ 9.15
31x5.25	$13.65	$10.95
29x5.50	$14.10	$11.35
33x6.00	$16.45	$13.60
32x6.50	$19.35	$15.90

Sizes not listed are priced proportionately low. Your used tires taken in trade.

Valley Motor Co.

PHONE 1995

Sales - Ford - Service

Open Until Midnight — Daily Except Sunday

Triangle Service Station
Cottage and Fairground Road

Cherry City Garage
170 S. 12th St.

Associate Kelly Dealers

Carson's Garage
RFD No. 1, Salem, Ore.

Priem & Caspell
24th and State Streets

Edgewater Ser. Stat.
W. Salem, Ore.

Capitol Motors
250 N. High St.