

DALLAS WOMEN SPONSOR SEALS

Woman's Club Now Selling Christmas Seals in Polk County

DALLAS, December 5.—The plans for the sale of Christmas seals in Dallas are now complete according to Mrs. Charles N. Bilyeu, local chairman for the Dallas Woman's club who sponsor the sale each year.

Club members who will sell seals in the business district December 9 and 10, are Mrs. Eugene Hayter, Mrs. J. J. Wick, Mrs. W. L. Pemberton, Mrs. H. D. Peterson, Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mrs. Earl Hibbard and Mrs. Jack Zak. In charge of sales in the industrial district are Mrs. Earle Fulgham and Mrs. E. W. Cruzon. December 11, 12 and 13, seals will be sold by the school children, to whom prizes are given for the largest sale in the different grades. The woman's club are giving three pictures to the grades in the primary school with the largest sale. In the junior high school two pictures will be awarded, one given by the Dallas National bank and the other by the Hayter bookstore.

In addition to the sale in Dallas, Mrs. Bilyeu announces that seals in will be sold in a number of school districts by the following chairman: Oakgrove, Mrs.

Frank Fawk; Oakpoint, Mrs. Joe Rodgers, Oakdale, Mrs. Laura Fisher, Pioneer, Mrs. Mark Blodgett, Perrydale, J. C. Ryan; Rickreall, Mrs. Hershel Wait; Brush College, Mrs. Charles McCarter; Spring Valley, Mrs. Frank Windsor; Willamette valley camp, Miss Eugene Somers, Airfile, Mrs. Ruby Byerly. Nearly all of these people assisted with the sale last year.

SILVERTON GIRLS DO GOOD WORK

SILVERTON, December 5.—The Busy Bee society of Trinity church took in the sum of $90.00 at its annual sale and social held Tuesday evening. This society is composed of little girls from six to 14 years. The girls hold meetings Saturday afternoon and do housework under the supervision of their elders. This hand work is then sold and the girls give the proceeds toward some church expense. Besides the auction of handwork, the girls sold suppers, candy and managed a fishpond Tuesday evening.

A short program composed of two songs by the junior choir, a violin solo by Viola Viglund and a piano solo by Geneva Williams preceded the auction.

GIRL TO SIDDALL'S PEDEE, December 5.—Mr. and Mrs. Jim Siddall are rejoicing over the arrival of a new girl at their home. Mother and daughter are doing fine under the care of Mrs. Walter Maxfield.

Miss Mingus appeared on the program with the topic,

"Tendencies in English Training." W. W. Hatfield, secretary of the National Council, and head of the English department of the Chicago Normal college invited Miss Mingus to attend the meeting and participate in the program. She reports a very beneficial assembly from the standpoint of English educational problems.
