Y. W. C. A. Tea Delightful Affair

The tea for which the membership committee and the social committee of the Y. W. C. A. were hostesses at the Y. W. C. A. social rooms between the hours of three and six o'clock Friday was a delightful success. The rooms were attractively decorated with holly and Christmas greens. Greeting the large number of guests who called during the afternoon were Mrs. Rex Sanford, Mrs. J. H. McNary, Mrs. E. E. Carr, and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman.

Presiding at the attractive tea table was Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. R. J. Hendricks. Those who assisted with the serving were Mrs. J. A. Brownson, Mrs. E. A. Colony, Mrs. Ethel Kraus, Mrs. Jennie Vincent, Harriet Page and Betty Mae Hartung.

The musical program was given by chorus formed by a group of Girl Reserves from the senior high school. They were Hazel McElroy, Kathleen Phelps, Margaret Nunn, Grace Skinner, Margaret Ross, and Roslyn Van Winkle as accompanist.

The numbers presented by this chorus were followed by a talk by Mrs. Elizabeth K. Gallaher on the Girl Reserve work and its place in the community.

The inspiration for this tea was the election of seven board members to fill vacancies automatically made through the operation of the rules of the organization. Mrs. Eric Butler had charge of the polls.

Kimball Wedding Attractive Affair

BRIDING.—A pretty church wedding was solemnized Wednesday at 11:30 o'clock in the chapel of Kimball School of Theology, when Miss Anna Marie Dunlavy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dunlavy of Brooks, became the bride of D. George Cole of Jefferson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Cole, of Oroville, California. The impressive ring ceremony was read by Rev. T. Temple, D. D., of the Methodist Episcopal church. He was assisted by John Martin Canse, president of Kimball school, and Dr. John McCormick, dean of Kimball school, in the presence of 200 wedding guests.

The nuptials were solemnized before an altar decked for the occasion with big baskets of chrysanthemums in pastel shades, combined with ferns and tall tapers.

The bride was lovely in a wedding gown of cream color satin, sleeveless, with tight waist and full ruffled skirt with uneven hem. Her long veil was gathered into a cap banded with orange ribbons. She carried a showy bouquet of pink and white carnations. The bride was attended by her cousin, Miss Valda Judd of Molalla. The bridesmaid was attired in a delicate pink gown of silk crepe de chine and carried an attractive bouquet of chrysanthemums. Little Cleo Ramp of Brooks was ringbearer, and was dressed in pink tulle. The brilliant buckles on their shoes were gifts of the bride.

Rev. J. Henry Ernst was best man, and Eugene C. Schiewe, Wilmer Briggs, Gordon Wiley and John Dunlavy, Jr., were ushers. Mrs. Malcolm Ramp sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Mildred Gehle at the piano. Wagner's Lohengrin wedding march was played by Rev. Henry C. Warner. The bride was given in marriage by her mother. Rev. Warner played softly during the ceremony. At the close of the ceremony "I Love You Truly," was sung by Mrs. T. H. Temple, with piano accompaniment by Rev. Henry C. Warner, after which Mr. Warner played Mendelssohn's wedding march while the couple were receiving congratulations.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, at Brooks. A beautifully decorated bride's cake formed the centerpiece for the table at which the guests were seated. Those who assisted in serving the guests were: Mrs. William Schaffer, Mrs. John Tonkin, and Mrs. Carl Bremer of Monitor. Mrs. Mary Matthews, and Miss Ellen Hackitt.

The bride is a music student at Willamette university, and Mrs. Cole is a student at Kimball School of Theology and is also pastor of the Methodist church at Jefferson. Their school and church activities together prevent them from taking a wedding trip at present, but an extended trip to California is being planned for the near future. The couple will make their home in Jefferson.

Methodist Tea Is Happy Event

The First Methodist church's Woman's Home Missionary society membership tea for which 50 women were guests Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors was a very happy affair. These teas are given every three months and in addition to this being a regular tea it was also a linen shower for the members of the Old People's home on Center street and a reception for the new members into the Home Missionary society. The hours were between 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

Gay rugs were scattered about the church parlors and potted cyclamen, Jerusalem cherries were arranged about the room. On a large table covered with white linen and centered with a miniature Christmas tree decked in silver were many packages of linens and gifts for the Old People's home.

Mrs. Almira Hale was general chairman for this affair. The same group of women aided in sponsoring the Harvest home tea, which was given at the Old People's home just before Thanksgiving.

During the business meeting, Mrs. C. F. Wilson, president, presided. Mrs. B. F. Carrier reported $115 as the result of the Thanksgiving service preached by Rev. F. C. Russell and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor presided.

Weak After Operation

"About five months ago, following an operation for appendicitis I did not gain strength enough to be up and about. My mother and sister advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken five bottles and it has helped me to get strong so I can do my own housework now. I have recommended it to several friends who have been weak and run-down."—Mrs. Oscar Ottum, Box 474, Thief River Falls, Minn.

County Veterans' Association Meets

The meeting of the Marion County Veterans association which was held in the First Christian church Thursday was the most successful of any in the 15 years which this group has been meeting.

The organization was formed in 1914 as a result of a suggestion from Woodburn and Silverton. It was decided at that time to meet three times a year—the first Thursday in April the group meets in Woodburn; the first Thursday in December the meeting takes place in Salem. A potluck dinner is served at noon by the hostess order, and the program given is also in charge of the hostess order.

The program given Thursday in Salem was varied. Mrs. Helen M. Southwick, patriotic instructor of the Woman's Relief Corps, had charge and she called on each order represented to contribute a number on the program.

Those who appeared were Mrs. Huston, who gave a piano solo accompanied by Mrs. Mary Entress. Mr. Cornforth followed this with a brief speech on the subject of loyalty to duty. Lawrence McShane, son of a veteran, gave an address which was enthusiastically received.

An interesting outline of the work of the American War Mothers was given by Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, and Mrs. Mark Skiff, new state president, spoke briefly. Mrs. L. G. Curtis, gave some interesting readings and Mrs. Halle Parish Hinges, popular soloist, gave several solos.

Comrade Girard was called on for a brief talk and Comrade Harrington responded in his absence. Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, president of the Sedgwick Woman's Relief Corps gave a reading.

Comrade Harris, 91 year old veteran, delighted his audience with solo and harmonica numbers. Preceding numbers presented by the American Legion Auxiliary Quartette, Mrs. Addie Curtis entertained the audience with several numbers which they sang.

After a busy and well spent day the meeting was adjourned to meet in Woodburn the first Thursday in April, 1930.

The Zena Missionary Society held a very interesting session, featuring Christmas songs and legends at their regular meeting Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. L. F. Matthews. Mrs. Seymour Wilson and Mrs. W. N. Crawford were assistant hostesses for the event.

The rooms were prettily decorated with Christmas greens and small Christmas trees, garlanded with Christmas tinsel lent a festive air to the occasion. Mrs. L. F. Matthews, president, opened the meeting.

Mrs. R. H. Scott, who has charge of music hour, told the story of the life of P. P. Bliss. Miss Grace Childers gave a vocal number accompanied by Mrs. Seymour Wilson. Mrs. Charles Carter had charge of Bible study period, assisted by Mrs. John Childers and Mrs. Joe Walling.

Mrs. W. W. Henry, secretary, gave the monthly report, and Mrs. V. L. Gibson gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. W. N. Crawford, one of the leaders in the attendance contest, conducted a Bible contest.

PETITION ASKS FULL PARDON

Lane County Citizens Intervene Governor in Behalf of Bergman

A delegation of Lane county citizens headed by ex-Sheriff Taylor and Jack Maglady, former member of the state senate, Friday presented to Governor Patterson petitions and numerous letters urging a pardon for Henry Bergman, who is serving a penitentiary term of 13 years for embezzling funds of the Florence State bank. Bergman was president of the bank for several years prior to his arrest and conviction. Governor Patterson said the letters and petitions bore the names of some of Lane county's most prominent citizens. The governor informed members of the delegation that he would confer with the state banking department, district attorney of Lane county and the judge who presided at the trial.

MONMOUTH.—Mrs. F. M. Roth and Mrs. William Riddell, Jr., entertained the Social Hour club pleasantly Wednesday afternoon at the home of the former on east Main street. Mrs. F. M. Roth and Mrs. Roth reviewed books which are being read in the club this year.

F. M. Roth, principal of the Monmouth high school addressed the ladies on education making a comparative survey of education as it was in pioneer days in Oregon, and as it is today.

Bergman was received at the penitentiary here in March, 1927. He is subject to parole in July, 1931. Under the Oregon laws a person convicted of embezzlement is subject to parole after he has served half of his sentence. Other time deductions are allowed for good behavior.

Bergman left Lane county soon after his shortage was discovered with Harriet Weatherston, cashier of the bank, and they later were arrested in Alabama. Miss Weatherston subsequently was convicted on an embezzlement charge and was sentenced to serve a term of seven years in the penitentiary. She recently was released from the prison on recommendation of the state parole board.

Following the conference with Governor Patterson, the visitors went to the penitentiary, where they conferred with Mr. Bergman. Governor Patterson indicated that considerable time would be required to complete his investigation of the Bergman petitions and letters. The petitions contained the names of approximately 50 persons.
