

CURT COMMENTS

The death of "Terrible Teddy" Tetzlaff Sunday at Los Angeles, takes us back to a balmy summer morning in 1910 out on the rolling hills south of Tacoma when we watched Tetzlaff tuning up his big red car for the first big race meeting there.

We thrilled for weeks over the honor that fell our way in having "Terrible Teddy" in person speak to us. What he said was "Get out of the way."

Or maybe he didn't say that. Maybe we're gotten the facts mixed up with what was a perfectly good new joke without whiskers, about that long ago. Anyway, we're sure he spoke to us, and what a thrill it gave one having young hero worshiper in knee trousers!

We've been waiting nearly a year to find out what Borleske would say in his annual contribution to the basketball guide, after all the squabble over the championship in the Northwest conference. Here it is:

"Willamette and Whitman tied for first place in the Pacific Northwest Conference basketball race. Both won all their games with other conference members, but in the two-game series between themselves, played on Willamette's floor, each team won a game and lost one. Whitman was the victor in the first contest, but Willamette won by a decisive score the second night."

What, nothing about scheduling a couple more games to make it a tie? And listen to this:

Whitman's three time championship team had only three letter men back and was faced with a heavy schedule, as usual. Willamette, on the other hand, had seven veterans on hand and two or three brilliant new men."

We notice he didn't say anything about the scores of those two championship games. Whitman won the first 38 to 27, and Willamette won the second 55 to 26.

And here's his all-conference team:

Woods, Whitman, and Adams, Willamette, forwards; Cardinal, Willamette, center; Holmgren and Croxdale, both of Whitman, guards. Woods, Holmgren and Croxdale were all on the 1928 all-conference team, he recalls.

It's nice to have a good reliable, impartial reporter for the basketball guide. Wonder what he will have to say in the football guide next fall?

FLYING CLOUDS ARE DEFEATED 3 GAMES

The Senator Food Shop quintet with consistent team work shot a 2645 high total in City League bowling Monday night winning three games from the Red Flying Clouds. The Elks won three straight from the patched up Schef's Men's Wear team. The upset of the evening was the performance of the downtrodden McKay Chevrolet pin smashers, who won two out of three from the league leading Man's Shop five.

E. Lynn Steinbock rolled both high series and high game, 538 and 226 respectively.

Scores were:

ELKS	195	179	509
Hussey	132	144	276
Young	172	174	346
Van Wierder	192	147	339
Victor	135	183	318
Total	732	847	2466
SCHEF'S MEN'S WEAR	142	172	474
Karjama	142	162	304
Benson	199	138	337
Kerton	123	188	311
Grote	132	147	279
Greenlaw	160	164	324
Total	756	799	2322
McKAY CHEVROLET	170	238	408
S. Steinbock	170	238	408
R. Johnson	172	193	365
Gen. Nelson	161	157	318
E. Schindler	123	188	311
Ge. Allen	199	209	408
Total	880	933	2625
MAN'S SHOP	177	143	320
Kay	177	143	320
Ell	175	228	403
Sharkey	127	126	253
Coe	190	107	297
Stoiber	184	138	322
Total	953	740	2495
SENATOR FOOD SHOP	162	189	351
Mention	162	189	351
Mohr	154	189	343
Polin	175	170	345
A. Johnson	178	166	344
C. Johnson	161	172	333
Total	845	888	2254
REO FLYING CLOUDS	150	180	330
M. Hemenway	150	180	330
Newton	157	171	328
Page	205	183	388
Karr	172	165	337
Total	684	684	2054

KENTWORTH SLATED FOR FEATURE FIGHT

MILL CITY, Dec. 9.—(Special)—Jack Kentworth of Salem and Jimmy Dolan of Portland will be featured in the ten round main event on the fight card here tonight. They have never met in the ring, but judging from past performances they are evenly matched.

Jackie Woods, of Salem, and Si Flock, of Mill City, a clever pair of flyweights, will mix in the six round semi-final. There will be twelve rounds more of good bouts. One surprise four-round bout will be a great affair and the battle royal as curtain raiser is also expected to prove a big kick.

Phil Scott Wins From Von Porat on Foul Blow

LEFT HOOK IS HELD TOO LOW

Referee Jack Dempsey Gives Decision to Briton After Hesitation

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Just as a jolly bit of action crept into the situation, Phil Scott, the long, laffidid heavyweight pride of Great Britain, collapsed tonight from a low blow at the start of the second round and won his much ballyhooed match from the fierce punching Otto Von Porat, of Norway and Chicago, on a foul.

Almost 17,000 of the faithful, drawn to the big battle palace to see a fight and simultaneously come to the aid of a sweet charity, the Christmas fund, looked on in amazement as the sad faced Norwegian opened the second round of a 12 round encounter with a sweeping left hook that toppled the tall Briton to the canvas in agony. The blow was apparently very low.

Not the least amazed of all the onlookers was Jack Dempsey, once the king of heavyweights, tonight refereeing his first major bout. While Scott, his face twisted in pain, toppled slowly like a tree undermined on a river bank, and Von Porat stood around looking very much dismayed, Dempsey made a confused effort to bring order out of chaos.

The old man mauler, once the master of every situation in there where the going is rough and tough—and judgment must be swift, seemed hopelessly at sea. Dempsey first motioned Von Porat to continue, then rushed over to help the fallen Briton, then with Von Porat's aid he carried Scott to his corner while the packed house, still stunned and unaware of the significance of it all, looked on in astonished silence.

The decision was not announced until Dempsey had consulted with half a dozen official looking persons who crowded into the ring while the handlers of Scott grouped on one side of the former champion shouted "foul" and Von Porat's handlers shrieked "knockout" from the other. The fight itself lasted only 25 seconds, but the confusion that followed left the decision in doubt for minutes.

O. S. C. ROOKS WORKING HARD

Squad Cut Down to 29 Aspirants; Much Material Is Promising

OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 9.—(Special)—Of the 50 or more aspirants who turned out for freshman basketball, 29 survived the critical eye of Roy Lamb, coach. In the final cut this week. From all reports, those 29 had to be "plenty good" to remain on the squad.

Although the freshman schedule is not yet complete, the rooks will probably exchange games with Washington and Benson high school of Portland, Albany college and the Oregon frosh at Eugene. Early indications point to a strong freshman team.

The 29 boys who are now on the squad are Paul Bixby, Long Beach Cal.; Bill Bennett, St. Helens; Mark Briggs, Corvallis; Bob Beal, Parkside; Harold Brown, St. Diego, Cal.; Tommie Ward, The Dalles; King Bailey, George Baldwin, Charley Dimmick, Neil Flemming, Ed Lewis and Curnow Slater, Portland; Bernie Cassidy, Stockton, Cal.; Keith Davis, St. Paul, Neb.; Phil Edwards, Oakland, Cal.; Fred Green, Hollywood, Fla.; Frank Rosebary; Emmett Huffman, Ontario; Karl Jensen, Bakersfield, Cal.; Ray Kerr, Pasadena; Arthur Lowe, Corvallis; Wallace Marsden, Marshfield; Red McDonald, Medford; Rodney Mason, Pasadena; Hal Moe, Great Falls, Mont.; Lloyd Morgan, Glendale; John Panek, Amity; Walter Sandquist, Roseburg; and Arden Squire, Gresham.

LESLIE AND SNYDER CAPTURE HANDICAP

Leslie and Snyder, members of the Valley Motor bowling team in the Commercial league, won the handicap doubles tournament staged at the Winter Garden Saturday and Sunday, with a score of 1175. They set that mark early Saturday, and the other contestants shot at it all that day and Sunday, without success.

Don Poulin and Don Young came in late Sunday with a score of 1160 for second money. H. Barr and K. Barr with 1140 were third, while the comic strip team of Coe and Billiter with 1137 won fourth place.

Other pairs scored as follows: Sharkey and Hemenway, 1134. M. Poulin and Allison, 1129. Eisenbrandt and King, 1115. Woodruff and Karr, 1114. Karjama and S. Steinbock, 1104. R. Hemenway and Hall, 1104. Pratt and T. Barr, 1102. Allen and McKinley, 1066. Page and Brown, 1064. Hudkins and Grote, 1057. Schundt and Calph, 1107. Ostrin and Mohr, 1056. Hussey and Weidner, 1045. Donaldson and

The West Wins Again

By HARDIN BURNLEY

ONCE MORE THE WEST HOLDS THE EDGE OVER EASTERN TEAMS IN THE INTERSECTIONAL GAMES.

WISCONSIN beat Colgate, California, Penn; Chicago, Princeton; Michigan, Harvard; Illinois, Army; and so on. This season, as well as last, the big Western football teams simply mastered nearly every Eastern team they played. The East doesn't play an effective game by any means, yet its best teams have been beaten regularly by manifestly better elevens from the Far or Middle West.

True it is, that an Eastern all-star outfit managed to defeat its Western rival in a big charity game on the Pacific Coast last Winter, but that seemed to be just about as insignificant as all such "all-star" events are. If Pitt goes to California the East will lay everything salvaged from the recent Grizzly Market on the Panthers to tear the hide off anything the West tosses into the Rose Bowl.

Some enthusiastic Easterners also claim Notre Dame as their own, though South Bend, Ind., is in the Middle West. And those same enthusiasts hailed Notre Dame's defeat of Southern California as an Eastern victory! Perhaps they may be right if the Mississippi River is a fair dividing line between East and West football talent. In that case, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, etc., would be classified as Eastern teams—which does seem strange!

If the Appalachian Mountains are a natural boundary between East and Middle West, it must be conceded that Pittsburgh on the frontier and Colgate in northern New York seem to be the only two teams that might cope successfully with such Western machines as Stanford, California, Southern California, St. Mary's, Minnesota, Iowa or even Utah.

The West, in either its middle or far sectors, seems to have a gradually increasing edge on the East for several seasons. But, as they might say at Harvard: "That difference may be more apparent than real, you know!"

matter the Madison Square Garden executives in New York. They do not know either. The question may not be settled this year.

ALUMNI THREATEN UNIVERSITY CHIEFS

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—(AP)—Rumblings of an alumni revolt against the present administration of the University of Iowa because of conditions in its athletic department which resulted in the ouster from the western conference, grew louder and more ominous today.

Superior Court Judge M. L. McKinley of Chicago, former head of the Iowa Alumni association, touched off a bombshell by openly attacking President Walter Jessup and requesting the Iowa State board of education to investigate, not only the athletic department, but also the "cause of dissension and discord that has existed in departments of the university other than athletic."

"It is now time for the alumni to speak out," Judge McKinley said. "The ouster of Iowa is no longer an athletic matter. It ceases to be exclusively a university matter. It now becomes a matter that affects by reflection every alumnus of the university, wherever located, as well as every citizen of the state of Iowa, whose taxes support that great institution."

DALLAS HOOP TILT TO OCCUR TONIGHT

DALLAS, Dec. 9.—(Special)—The Dallas high hoop team will open this season at Rickreall Tuesday. Rickreall has already played one game, losing to Bethel November 26. This will be Dallas' first game and as it has had little practice, should have a hard time of it Tuesday night.

The probable lineup for Dallas will be Webb, center; Uglow and Moser, guards; Vaughn and Quiring, forwards. Coach Wright does not know how many men will make the trip but, in addition to the first lineup, they will probably be Humphreys, Classes, and one or two others.

Dallas' second game will be December 17 at Dallas, when it meets Rickreall in a return game. These two games are the only ones Dallas has scheduled so far for December.

OREGON SEEKS HOOP HONORS

Only Two of Last Season's Lettermen on Hand for Team This Year

EUGENE, Dec. 7.—(Special)—Coach Billy Reinhart of the University of Oregon basketball team is faced with a difficult task in his efforts to develop a winning team this year, for only two of last year's lettermen answered his call for candidates.

They are Cliff Horner and Jean Eberhart, both of whom figured in the Eugene high school's victory in the state tournament at Salem three years ago.

Last year at this time Reinhart had seven lettermen back in harness, but there were too many individual stars and Oregon did not fare so well.

Reinhart will stress teamwork more than ever this year, and has a willing bunch of players to work with. Horner and Eberhart were injected into the Webfoot lineup about the middle of last season, after the highly touted stars had started to loaf on the job. Both came through in great style, and their work in the two game series against Oregon State was the high light of those encounters.

In addition to this pair, the coach has the veteran Roy Hughes back for another season. He saw plenty of service last year after transferring from a California junior college, and is expected to be one of the best forwards in the northwest this season.

Other reserves include Winsor Calkins and Harold Olinger, both of whom are expected to hold down regular berths this year. The latter is a Salem high school product.

Prink Callison, freshman coach, has a plentiful supply of high school stars on his squad.

36 OREGON MEN ARE AWARDED LETTERS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, Dec. 9.—(Special)—Thirty-six of the Webfoot squad received their letters for the 1929 season. Records of individual playing time in conference games, as well as some for playing in the Hawaii game, an intersectional contest, was basis for the awards.

Men winning the O's are: George Stadieman, Bill Anater, Eric Forsta, and Shirley Carter, centers; Marshall Shields, Sy West, Ted Parks, Jerris Lillie, Hank Heyden, and Gilbert French, guards; Austine Colbert, Marlon Hall, George Christensen, Pat Lucas, Irvin Schultz, and Ralph Bates, tackles; Woodie Archer, Harry Wood, Walt Browne, and Lloyd Sherrill, Jack Erdley, Steve Fletcher and Red Bailey, ends; Al Browne, Johnny Londahl, Hal Hutton, Johnny Kitzmiller, Dave Mason, Chuck Williams, Bobbie Robinson, Red Hill, Ed Moeller, Ridge Johnston, John Donahue, Chuck Spear and Wallie Shearer, backs.

GIRLS WILL STAGE GLASS VOLLEYBALL

Inter-class girls' volleyball games will get under way at the high school this afternoon, with two contests scheduled, between the first and second senior teams and the first and second sophomore teams.

Mrs. Grace S. Wolgamott, head of the girls' physical education department, and Miss Echo Baldersee will umpire the contests.

The series will be completed this week, two senior and two sophomore teams.

JEFFERSON'S HOOP SCHEDULE IS FILLED

JEFFERSON, Dec. 9.—(Special)—The basketball season has begun for Jefferson high school. The schedule for the season is as follows:

December 13, Gates at Gates, boys' team. December 20, Aumsville at Jefferson, double header. January 3, Monroe at Jefferson, double header. January 17, Lebanon, girls' team. January 17, Mill City at Mill City, boys' team. January 24, Shedd at Jefferson, double header. January 31, Lebanon at Jefferson, girls' team. January 31, Mill City at Jefferson, boys' team.

February 7, Gervais at Gervais, boys' teams. February 14, Aumsville at Aumsville, double header. February 21, Turner at Turner, double header. February 28, Shedd at Shedd, double header.

March 7, Gervais at Jefferson, boys' teams. March 14, Turner at Turner, double header.

Miss Constance Bolderston is coach for the girls' team and Albert Windell, assisted by C. C. Caldwell, is coaching the boys' team.

OREGON SEEKS HOOP HONORS

Only Two of Last Season's Lettermen on Hand for Team This Year

EUGENE, Dec. 7.—(Special)—Coach Billy Reinhart of the University of Oregon basketball team is faced with a difficult task in his efforts to develop a winning team this year, for only two of last year's lettermen answered his call for candidates.

They are Cliff Horner and Jean Eberhart, both of whom figured in the Eugene high school's victory in the state tournament at Salem three years ago.

Last year at this time Reinhart had seven lettermen back in harness, but there were too many individual stars and Oregon did not fare so well.

Reinhart will stress teamwork more than ever this year, and has a willing bunch of players to work with. Horner and Eberhart were injected into the Webfoot lineup about the middle of last season, after the highly touted stars had started to loaf on the job. Both came through in great style, and their work in the two game series against Oregon State was the high light of those encounters.

In addition to this pair, the coach has the veteran Roy Hughes back for another season. He saw plenty of service last year after transferring from a California junior college, and is expected to be one of the best forwards in the northwest this season.

Other reserves include Winsor Calkins and Harold Olinger, both of whom are expected to hold down regular berths this year. The latter is a Salem high school product.

Prink Callison, freshman coach, has a plentiful supply of high school stars on his squad.

JEFFERSON'S HOOP SCHEDULE IS FILLED

JEFFERSON, Dec. 9.—(Special)—The basketball season has begun for Jefferson high school. The schedule for the season is as follows:

December 13, Gates at Gates, boys' team. December 20, Aumsville at Jefferson, double header. January 3, Monroe at Jefferson, double header. January 17, Lebanon, girls' team. January 17, Mill City at Mill City, boys' team. January 24, Shedd at Jefferson, double header. January 31, Lebanon at Jefferson, girls' team. January 31, Mill City at Jefferson, boys' team.

February 7, Gervais at Gervais, boys' teams. February 14, Aumsville at Aumsville, double header. February 21, Turner at Turner, double header. February 28, Shedd at Shedd, double header.

March 7, Gervais at Jefferson, boys' teams. March 14, Turner at Turner, double header.

Miss Constance Bolderston is coach for the girls' team and Albert Windell, assisted by C. C. Caldwell, is coaching the boys' team.

DUNDEE TO GET HIS BIG CHANCE

Win Over La Grande Fighter Seen as Real Asset for Local Scrapper

If Pat Dundee manages to beat Del Allen of La Grande in Wednesday night's main event at the armory, it will be a real feather in the local fighter's cap, for it will place him on a level considerably above the average run of welterweights in the northwest.

Allen looks like a mere lad, and his actions in the armory gymnasium Monday night in the first workout here bore out that impression; yet he has had something over 100 fights, out of the long series of battles, he has been knocked out once and lost five decisions.

He counts among the men he has defeated, Frankie Burned, George Ingersoll, Benny Dotson, Willard Norton and Joe Cortez, the Idaho champion, to mention just a few, whom Salem fans may know about.

A little over a year ago Allen and Dundee met in the ring at Astoria and fought a draw. Local fans who recall the improvement in speed and glove throwing ability Dundee has exhibited recently have it all doped out that Pat will beat the lad from eastern Oregon, but Allen's record is sufficient to prove that he will be a contender.

Much interest is also being manifested among the fans in the semifinal, which will feature Joe Blackwell and Terry Kileen. Joe is likely to be pointed for a knockout victory to make up for the upset encountered at Hubbard recently, when he lost to Spaul Murphy.

SCHNITZER MAKES TRIP OREGON STATE COLLEGE, Corvallis, Dec. 9.—(Special)—Following the Detroit football game November 23, Coach Schnitzer went on to West Virginia where he scouted the West Virginia team which meets Oregon State next year in Chicago, and attended the meeting of the western conference held in Chicago. Schnitzer is expected back on the campus in time to be one of the speakers at the annual grid banquet Tuesday evening.

MOVE WITH RED SPEEDWAGON SERVICE

OUR speedy moving put the action in satisfaction. We will move your goods with celerity and care and store them in fire proof vaults at the right tariff.

WATCH FOR VAN'S MOVES

CAPITOL CITY TRANSFER CO. 226 STATE ST.

THE CLIFT SAN FRANCISCO

Starting place for everything—near theatres, shops, scenic points.

GEARY AT TAYLOR ST.

Printed Salesmanship that will work for you!

LET us prepare your printed matter. Smart, workmanlike efforts that are so necessary in printed salesmanship. You'll appreciate the way we give your order complete, undivided attention. Our up-to-date facilities assure you of quality.

Phone 500

Statesman Publishing Co.