

SCOTTS MILLS HAS BAZAAR

Ladies' Aid Society Sponsors Successful Bazaar and Program

SCOTTS MILLS, December 10.—The bazaar conducted by the Ladies' Aid of the Christian church held in the L. O. F. hall Saturday proved quite a success. A good program was given after which the fancy work was auctioned by Charles Birchett and lunch was sold by the girls Sunday school class. About $80 was realized by the sale.

Child Improving
Lois Jean Shepherd, the seven-month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shepherd underwent a mastoid operation at the Salem General hospital Saturday afternoon. Dr. Brown performed the operation, and at last reports seems to be getting along as well as could be expected.

Mrs. Arthur Rich visited her sister Mrs. Robertson in Salem over the week-end.

Mrs. M. Walbel has returned home from Oregon City, where she was visiting her parents, who were quite sick but are much improved.

Mrs. Reuben De Jardin visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. Schmalz in Mt. Angel during the mid-week.

Survey Road

B. R. Herrick, county surveyor, William Taylor and Fred Miller, viewers, were surveying a new proposed road at Crooked Finger several days the last of the week.

Mrs. Louis Schelcher visited her sister at St. Paul several days the first of the week.

Dr. and Mrs. McCannell, of Silverton and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Saueressig were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Saueressig.

J. O. Dixon and G. W. Myers were in Portland Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Scott visited Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Adkins in Salem Saturday.

Guests of Hayes
Mr. and Mrs. Thad Dwyer of Independence, visited Mrs. Dwyer's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes over the week-end.

Bennett Dunagan of near Halsey also visited at the Haynes home over the week-end.

WACONDA FARMERS JOYOUS OVER RAIN

WACONDA, December 10.—The long looked-for rain has come and many farmers are glad. So much farm work has depended upon rain this fall. Some who have berries to plant have waited for rain as the ground could not be plowed and made ready.

F. Pellon has postponed the resetting of strawberry plants. He now has several acres of Etterburgs.

Henry Stafford also has Etterburgs and will set out a few more acres soon.

A group of young people from the Bible Institute in Portland have held a series of meetings since Friday night at Clearlake church. Those from Waconda attending an all-day meeting and basket dinner Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Miss Gladys Brown, Miss Estia Timm, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brown and children.

Mrs. Carter Keen who has been ill for some time, is much improved.

The Waconda Sunday school will give a Christmas program at Eldredge Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, the 22nd. Santa Claus will give each child a bag of candy and nuts.

Miss Gladys Brown and Leslie Brown made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

STAYTON COUPLE IN AUTO ACCIDENT

STAYTON, December 10.—Monday morning while Rev. D. S. Barry and wife and Mrs. A. Bookler were enroute to Oregon City, at the junction of the Mt. Angel and Woodburn highways, Rev. Barry applied the brakes, resulting in his sedan overturning.

He escaped injury, but the ladies were considerably shaken and bruised and were brought to the Stayton hospital. At this time it is not thought their injuries are serious.

Rev. Barry is pastor of the Baptist church here and is 72 years of age. His wife too is well along in years and the accident was a great shock to them both.

The Liberty Community club will meet at the Liberty hall, Friday, December 13th, at 8 p. m. A radio program, all produced by local talent, promises to be a scream. Come, hear, and have a rousing good time.

PEDEE P. T. A. STAGES PLAY

PEDEE, December 10.—One of the most successful plays ever put on in this community was presented before a capacity house at the recent Parent-Teachers association meeting.

The play, a rollicking comedy, was received with delight by young and old alike. The characters were exceptionally well portrayed and the acting was fine.

The Pedee orchestra, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bush, Rob Arnold and Freda Bush, furnished delightful music with violin, banjo, guitar and piano.

Roland Hall, the boy prodigy, played selection after selection on the piano, gave two recitations, and his little brother sang.

After the program a pie social and candy and sandwich sale was held, bringing a total of about $26.

2 CELEBRATE WITH BIRTHDAY DINNER

MONMOUTH, December 10.—Donna Siver, 13, and Ed Griffa, 63, celebrated their birthdays together with a dinner party Saturday evening at the Monmouth hotel, following a custom which they established 8 years ago and have observed annually since.

Mr. Griffa has resided in Monmouth most of his life, but is spending the winter at Gates, Oregon, whence he hurried here last week to celebrate the birthday event which for him occurs December 7.

Donna has been a resident of Monmouth for the past 8 years and her birthday occurs December 8. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Siver, proprietors of the Monmouth hotel. She is a half century the junior of Mr. Griffa, and officially notifies him weeks in advance of the approaching celebration, which they alternate by mutual agreement from his birthday date to hers and vice versa. Guests this year were Mildred McKnight and Beth Hoskins, both junior high classmates of Donna.

SILVERTON FOLK BACK FROM SOUTH

SILVERTON, December 10.—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McGinnis returned Saturday evening from California where they went early in November. They went as far south as San Diego where they were guests of Mrs. S. E. Richardson, formerly of Silverton. Mrs. Richardson sent greetings to her many Silverton friends.

On their return trip they visited with Max Hubbs at San Francisco. Mr. Hubbs, the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hubbs of Silverton, has recently gone to California where he is with the North American Indemnity company.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McGinnis report a very pleasant trip throughout and said that the weather was marvelous all the time they were in the south.

HUBBARD HIGH TEACHER WEDS

Miss Adeline Turcher Becomes Bride of R. H. Fields of Portland

HUBBARD, Dec. 10.—A din very much resembling that of a charivari was heard in the halls of the school house shortly before 9 o'clock Monday morning. Upon investigation it was found that the faculty led by R. C. Painter, supervisor of the building and grounds, had provided themselves with dustpans, tin cans and other noise making devices and in single file marched to the tune of their own music through the lower hall, up the broad stairway and to the door of the English department which they entered and there surprised Mrs. R. H. Fields (Miss Adeline Turcher) English and French teacher.

The faculty had heard, Monday morning of Miss Turcher's wedding at Portland on Saturday when she became the bride of R. H. Fields, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Fields of Eugene.

The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of Rev. George Peese, Mrs. Fields' mother, Mrs. Edith Zurcher, dietician at a hospital at Livermore, California, arrived in Portland Friday evening and attended the wedding.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Fields are graduates of the University of Oregon; Mrs. Fields of the class of '27 and Mr. Fields of the class of '29.

Mr. Fields is employed at Olds Wortman & King and Mrs. Fields will continue her work with the Hubbard high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Fields will reside at the Laurewood apartments at 895 East Alder street, Portland.

STAYTON LADIES GIVE ATTRACTIVE PARTIES

STAYTON, December 10.—Mrs. Dave John and Mrs. J. Walter Mayo were hostesses for a delightful bridge party at the John home Friday afternoon.

The rooms were most attractive with various kinds of fall shrubs, whose bright red berries greatly enhanced their beauty. Four tables were in play, high score going to Mrs. Geo. H. Bell and second high to Mrs. M. S. Hunt.

A most unique and tasty lunch was served.

Lela Maye, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. J. Bell, celebrated her 6th birthday on Sunday with a party to which a number of her little friends were invited. Various childhood games were enjoyed as were the delicious refreshments. The favors and decorations carried out the holiday spirit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Mayo spent the week-end at Newport and encountered some wet weather.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hagen came from Portland for the week-end and with Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fox, Shirley and Maxine Fox and Dixon Parry enjoyed turkey and all the trimmings at the Dr. G. F. Karnick home Sunday.

House Warming Entertainment Is Held Friday

KINGS VALLEY, Dec. 10.—The members of the Kill-Kare club of Independence were entertained at cards Friday evening at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Johnson of this place.

This social event was a sort of a house-warming as the Johnsons recently bought 500 acres of the Jim Grant estate, and have remodeled the house into a modern home.
