Pattern 1796 Statesman 15c Practical Pattern

The new mode adapts itself beautifully to the larger figure, as shown in today's model. The surplice hodice closing, softened with scalloped collar, the higher waistline made less prominent by means of the fitted skirt yoke, and the gracefully flared skirt combine to create a stunning frock.

Design 1796 uses printed crepspatterns on a dark ground. The collar, cuffs and vestee are made of beige silk pique bound in satin the color of the ground of the fabric. Two attractive buttons finish the yoke.

May be obtained only in sizes 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46, Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of 40 inch material and % yard trimming.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaran-

After the brought by Thomas B. Kay, state regular business session and a treasurer to determine the short program a waffle supper amount of inheritance tax payable for the estate of H. W. Wallace, deceased.

The principal question at issue was whether 35 shares of the capital stock of the H. W. Wallace company, a corporation, of the admitted value of $159,177. 10, are subject to the payment of inheritance tax. The lower court held that the shares were taxable, whereupon the executor of the estate appealed to the supreme court. The opinion was written by Justice Rand.
