Thursday Club Has Happy Christmas Party

Mrs. C. P. Bishop, Mrs. A. N. Moores and Mrs. H. J. Bean were hostesses for a lovely Christmas party for members of the Thursday club at the home of Mrs. Bishop Thursday afternoon. Christmas decorations, red tapers and bowls of red berries and holly made a beautiful background for the Christmas program and happy social afternoon.

Mrs. Marie Flint McCall had charge of the program, which was presented by a group of children from Polk county. The first number was an old English wassail song sung by Billy Utley, Corydon Blodgett, Irene Cutler, and Marguerite Christensen. Other numbers, given by the children, were a solo by Billy Utley accompanied by Donald Ewing; duet given by Irene Cutler and Marguerite Christensen; whistling solo, Corydon Blodgett, accompanied by Mrs. McCall; a trio of vocal, whistling and piano given by Billy Utley, Corydon Blodgett, and Mrs. McCall. In addition to the program given by the children, Mrs. F. A. Elliott gave a reading and Mrs. Alice H. Dodd made an interesting talk on the subject of Christmas.

Mrs. Norman Tully was a special guest for the afternoon. At the tea hour the hostesses were assisted by Miss Elizabeth Bishop. Plans were made for the Christmas box which the Thursday club sent to the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis each year. Many presents have already been gathered and will be taken to the Home within the next few days by members of the club. With a few exceptions, the membership of the club was in attendance at this afternoon meeting and Christmas party.

Sixtieth Anniversary Is Celebrated

The birthday of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church was celebrated at the church Wednesday evening by about 70 members and guests who gathered for the special program presented at this time. The guest rooms were attractively and appropriately decorated with flags of all nationalities, baskets of flowers and Christmas greens. Songs from all the countries where missionaries had represented the society were arranged on display about the rooms.

Assisting with the program were six Standard Bearer girls, Marion Nelson, Marie Lippold, Lucille Miles, Maxine Maxwell, Edwina Broadbent, and Joyce Woodworth, each being in costume. Miss Lina Heist had charge of the program and was assisted by members of the Perlan class, Miss Alma Pohle, Miss Amy Martin, Miss Cochran, Miss Laura Hale, Miss Jessie Martin, Miss Heist Fields and Miss Grace Taylor.

Miss Heist told particularly about the celebration in Columbus, Ohio, at which time the world members of the Woman's foreign missionary society celebrated the sixtieth anniversary. This was held in Memorial hall with 5000 members present. Every state in the union was represented and from every civilized and some uncivilized countries of the world representatives were sent.

Other high points of interest was that a sunrise prayer meeting was held and there were 6000 women in attendance. Many beautiful gifts were sent from missions in foreign countries. One was a beautiful bowl from Burma. This was set on a platform of the Memorial hall and 112 marched past this bowl and each dropped therein a check for $100.

Cablegrams of greetings were received from 69 countries. One of the outstanding addresses of the meeting was made by a Korean woman.

The anniversary meeting at the First Methodist church Wednesday night was a very enthusiastic evening.

WOODBURN—Mrs. Harry Graves, Mrs. Harold Aspinwall, Mrs. Ray Tyson and Mrs. A. A. Brothers were hostesses to the Presbyterian Ladies' Aid in the church basement Wednesday afternoon.

The business meeting was presided over by the presidents, Mrs. Henry Layton and Mrs. H. Overton read a Christmas lesson from Matthew and lead the devotionals. The society talked of changing its name but no definite action was taken. Mrs. C. C. Geer, president of the Woodburn Woman's club, made an announcement concerning the Woman's club musical comedy, "The Madcap Queen." The Aid bought $1 worth of Christmas seals and roll call was answered by quotations from the Christmas story in the Bible. The program opened with a vocal duet by Mrs. A. F. Daniels and Mrs. C. Stokes followed by two readings by Barbara Eppy. The Christmas story by Van Dyke read by Henry G. Hanson closed the program and while refreshments were being served, Christmas carols were sung by Mrs. Jack Hanson and Miss Ruth Holt. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. R. L. Freeberg.

MEET SOME SNIKPOH PLAYERS

Here, all done in pen and ink, are six of the high school students who will appear tonight in the Snikpoh society mystery play, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," to be presented at the high school auditorium by 13 members of the society. The amateur actors are: top row, left to right: Richard Devers, Yvonne Smith and Billy Dyer (lead). Bottom row: Eleanor Wright (lead), Carl Collins and Evelyn Cummings. Katherine Goulet, student at the high school, is the artist.

Salem Arts League Hears W. G. Percell

One of the outstanding meetings of the season for the Salem Arts league was that of Wednesday night when William Gray Percell, an architect of Portland and Minneapolis, and president of the Oregon Artists association spoke before about 30 of its members.

Mr. Percell spoke in an informal manner but he gave such wonderful thoughts and developed such enthusiasm and keen appreciation in his audience that his remarks will no doubt remain firmly impressed on the Arts league members who were fortunate enough to hear him. His remarks were seemingly intended to plead for appreciation of the genuine in life and the mastery of at least one field. "Do not scatter your efforts" was his warning. And another outstanding admonition given through a charming example was "to know and be able to do what is known."

Certainly Mr. Percell took away with him the genuine appreciation of each member and guest who was present for this open meeting of the Salem Arts league.

Pi Beta Phi To Have Luncheon

Members of the Pi Beta Phi alumnae club will have the regular meeting of the club at the Spa Saturday. It will take the form of a 12 o'clock luncheon. All the members of this sorority who are in Salem are invited to be present for this luncheon meeting.

Officers of the club are Miss Claudia Plank, president; and Miss Lillian Davis secretary treasurer.

Salem Students Place In Music Program

Five university students from Salem are among the 43 music majors on this campus who will appear with the new polyphonic choir when it makes its initial appearance here at vespers services Sunday afternoon, Dec. 15. They are Nancy Thelens, Edward Fisher, Dale Robbins, Helen Ashlman and Margaret Simms. The choir was organized this fall by Arthur Boardman, American tenor who came to the University of Oregon campus this year to become head of the voice department. The choir sings the classical music of such early church composers as Bach and Palestrina, representing the finest of all compositions for singing groups. Instead of the usual four-part forms, the music is much more complicated, being written in five, seven, nine and even ten and 12 parts.

HUBBARD—Mr. and Mrs. George Grimps and Mrs. Neva McKenzie entertained at a bridge dinner at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday at the Grimps' home.

The tables were centered by miniature Christmas trees beautifully decorated. Following dinner, bridge was enjoyed with cards in play at five tables. High scores were won by Mrs. Waldo Brown, Mrs. Verna Boje, Elmer Stauffer, and Ivan Stewart. Those present included Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Beckman, Mr. and Mrs. Orin Boje, Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cleaver, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Stauffer, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McMannis, Mr. and Mrs. George Grimps, and Mrs. Neva McKenzie.

Golden Hour Club Is Afternoon Guest

Mrs. R. R. Hewitt was hostess to members of the Golden Hour club at her home on Chemeketa street Thursday afternoon. The guest rooms were attractively arranged with holly, red berries and red tapers, all of which made the air of Christmas very much a part of the afternoon.

A one o'clock luncheon was served, Mrs. H. A. Stewart assisting the hostess. An afternoon of sewing and social conversation followed the luncheon hour.

Mrs. C. A. Sprague was a special guest. Others present were Mrs. Carle Abrams, Mrs. J. R. Pemberton, Mrs. A. A. Stewart, Mrs. L. R. Springer, Mrs. W. H. Bretz, Mrs. E. B. Millard, Mrs. Roy Hewitt, Mrs. Mason Bishop, Mrs. B. E. Sisson, and Mrs. Hewitt.

SILVERTON: Mrs. Lewis Johnson, and son Rodney and Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Risteigen of Portland were Silvertown visitors the first of the week. The Johnsons were guests of Mrs. Helen Wrightman and the Risteigens were guests at the Oscar Broten home. Mrs. Johnson is expecting her father, Rodney Reynolds of Fargo, North Dakota, to visit her during the holidays. Mr. Reynolds, who has visited at Silvertown a number of times, is also expected to call on his friends here before he returns to his home.

Mrs. Edwin Savage was hostess for an afternoon of bridge Wednesday and again for a 12 o'clock dinner party Thursday evening at her home.

Pageant Is Event At Y.W.C.A. Tonight

Tonight and Saturday night will be celebrated at the Y. W. C. A. by the grade school Reserves and the junior high school Reserves with Christmas pageants to which parents and friends of the girls are invited.

The first will be "The Spirit of Christmas" given by the grade school group. This pageant will emphasize the spirit of giving and service and in the process of developing much of the Christmas decorating of the Y. W. C. A. rooms.

Parts are taken by Shirley Cronemiller, Winter is represented by Verabeth Clendening; service by Lois Savage; worship, Theodora Bouffleur; music, Ruth Starrett; giving, by Eleanor Hall.

Saturday evening at the same time, 7:30 o'clock, "Through a Christmas Window," the second pageant and given by the junior high school girls, will be presented. Parents and friends are also invited to this affair.

This pageant develops the ideas of Christmas in each of the countries. Girls who will take part in this are Ruth Johnson, who will represent America; Gretchen Spencer, Finland; Lillian Potter, Yugoslavia; Mariette Fruiter, Germany; Gwen Gallaher, Holland; and Jane Keth will be the reader for this pageant.

Honors for the afternoon were won by Mrs. Charles Pratt, Mrs. L. M. Purvine, and Mrs. H. R. White.

Tea was served at a late hour, and at this time several additional guests called.

Wedding Anniversary Is Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Law were the honor guests of Mrs. Ethel Law Gulvin at the Law home Saturday evening in compliment to the 57th wedding anniversary of the couple.

A few of their most intimate friends were the guests who helped to make this evening a memorable one. After a happy evening a late lunch was served by Mrs. Gulvin, Mrs. Wall and Miss Rutherford.

Those present were the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Law, Mrs. E. R. Macy, Mr. Latham, Robert Law Gulvin, Evelyn Harriet Gulvin, Mrs. Wall, Miss May B. Rutherford, and Mr. and Mrs. Gulvin.

GERVAIS: Stormy weather seemed to increase rather than decrease the attendance at the community "500" club meeting which was held at the Masonic hall Tuesday evening. Cards were in play at nine tables, high scores going to Miss Ethel Gardner of Aberdeen, Wash., who is a guest at the William Bowley home; and G. J. Moisan; second high to Mrs. Otto Schwab and M. D. Henning. After the games Mrs. S. D. Manning, Mrs. G. J. Moisan, Miss Mary Mangold and Mrs. T. A. Dittmar served lunch in the dining room. Hostesses for the next meeting will be Mrs. Schwab, Mrs. P. W. Seely, Mrs. Summer Stevens and Miss Kitty Smith. Because the next regular meeting night comes on Christmas eve, the time for this meeting has been changed to Monday night, December 30. Mr. and Mrs. Roseberry and sister of Salem were out of town guests at the meeting Tuesday evening.

Little eight year old Grace Irene Keefe, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. C. M. Keefe of North Summer street, returned to her home from Salem General hospital Thursday following a serious operation for appendicitis. Her condition is very satisfactory.
