

News From Mid-Valley District Communities

Brooks

BROOKS, December 14.—The Brooks Community club held its regular business meeting at the home of Mrs. B. F. Ramp on the Pacific highway just north of Brooks on Thursday. Mrs. Sylvester Harris, the president, presided at the business meeting. The day was spent quilting and doing embroidery. At noon a pot luck dinner was served.

A special meeting of the Brooks Ladies Aid society was held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Harris on Wednesday for the purpose of doing some quilting. Dinner was served by the hostess Mrs. A. E. Harris. Those present were: Mrs. O. L. Bailey, Mrs. Monroe Ward, Mrs. John Leshier, Mrs. Wayne Blison, Mrs. Ida Blanton and children De Etta Louise and Raymond Blanton, Mrs. Sylvester and the hostess, Mrs. A. E. Harris.

Mrs. Virgil Loomis and children Delphine, Bertha and Roy Loomis, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Matthews spent the week end in Portland visiting relatives. Mrs. Matthews remained in Portland to visit her daughter.

Rev. and Mrs. D. George Cole were surprised recently when a large group of their friends gathered at the Dunlavy home and surprised them with a noisy old-fashioned Christmas party. The evening was enjoyably spent by all with singing and conversation. The crowd was treated to wafers, cake and hot chocolate.

Mrs. Mary Martin returned home the first of the week from Tillamook where she was a guest of her brother, Henry Simons and other relatives the past week. Miss Arleta Sturgis has been ill the past week but is reported to be much improved. Miss Arleta is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturgis.

William Shewey of Dallas is spending a month at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Sturgis and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Miles Sauter of Salem were guests of Mrs. Jennie Gilbert recently. Mrs. Sauter and Mrs. Gilbert were old friends and neighbors in Colorado.

Mrs. John Dunlavy spent the week-end in Jefferson as guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. D. George Cole.

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, December 14.—The school bus which serves Kingwood, West Salem and way points met with disaster at Summers' corner one morning recently. It is a very short turn and the bus has to make some skillful maneuvers in order to accomplish its route. On the morning in question the recent rains had made the road bed slick and the bus skidded into the ditch from which the driver was unable to extricate it. It was necessary to obtain other means of transportation for the pupils that morning. A shorter bus has been substituted for the other one.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. LaRaut had a delightful surprise the other day when Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lewis came to them from Portland bringing with them a radio which they installed in the La Raut home. Mrs. Lewis is a sister of Mr. LaRaut.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollin Beaver drove to Portland Wednesday evening where they were guests at the wedding of Mrs. Beaver's brother, John Lewis, to Miss Beulah Belew of that city.

C. F. Gretzinger paid this neighborhood a visit one day this week. The Gretzinger family formerly lived on the William McDonald farm but recently purchased acreage in the Swegle neighborhood where they now make their home.

Farmers who have been waiting with varying degrees of patience for favorable plowing conditions are much pleased with the recent heavy rains.

Kingwood is sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Mel P. Brown and son David who have moved across the river. Their new home is near the airport in south Salem.

Mrs. Mary Beaver has returned from Dallas where she has been the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck and family. Mrs. Starbuck is a daughter of Mrs. Beaver.

Miss Vina Emmett, who formerly operated the elevator in the First National bank building has accepted a position at the state house. She is in the automotive department.

Hubbard

HUBBARD, Dec. 14.—Mrs. Coble de Lespinasse will be the guest of Mrs. Ollie Fuller, a member of the Professional Woman's club, at the Bedell building, Portland, Wednesday. Mrs. Fuller is the state organizer for the Pythian Sunshine club members of which include girls from the ages of 12 to 16 years. Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. de Lespinasse outlined plans for the publicity work of the clubs.

Mrs. de Lespinasse, state press correspondent for the Pythian Sunshine club, has charge of the publicity of the Sunshine clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Miller returned Monday evening from Vancouver, Washington. They were guests at the home of Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. George Herberberger. The Millers also visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson at Vander, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Earl and children spent the week end at Corvallis as guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Miller. Mr. Miller is a brother of Mrs. John Taylor of Hubbard.

The members of the Rebecca Lodge will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Carl Wednesday to prepare Christmas packages for the Odd Fellows home at Portland.

Mrs. Gertrude Adams of Roseburg, who visited friends and relatives at Hubbard and Woodburn during the past few weeks returned to her home, Monday. Mrs. Adams is the mother of Mrs. George Miller, formerly of this place.

Mrs. Anna Scholl is staying with her sister Miss Clara Will at Aurora. Mrs. Scholl has been with her sister since the death of their sister Miss Elizabeth Will.

Mrs. L. Dick who has been a guest at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. B. Paulson left Saturday for Medford. The Dicks are moving from Eugene to Medford.

R. C. Painter, supervisor of the building and grounds of the Hubbard school, has been confined to his home with a bad case of sore throat and Jim Platts has taken his place at the school.

Mrs. W. A. Brown, Mrs. MacKenzie and Miss Marie McKenzie motored to Portland Friday. Mrs. McKenzie and Miss Marie went to do Christmas shopping and Mrs. Brown to consult a physician.

Dr. and Mrs. A. F. deLespinasse and daughter Miss Marie accompanied by Miss Dorothy Scholl were dinner guests of "Hy" Everling at the Hubbard Springs Hotel Tuesday. An evening of music with the doctor at the piano and Miss Marie with the saxophone was enjoyed. Many old fashioned as well as popular tunes were played, featuring "Crazy Over Horses", in recognition of "Hy's" fine racing horses.

Sunnyside

SUNNYSIDE, Dec. 14.—On Friday evening, December 20, the Sunnyside school assisted by the Sunnyside Community club will present a Christmas program. The school will present several Christmas plays and carols. A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends of the community.

Mrs. W. S. Chandler is reporting a letter from her daughter, Miss Grace Chandler, who has been on an extended trip of the Middle-western states; with G. T. Heckarts, states that they are now on the return trip via the Southern route, and expect to be home by Christmas. Miss Chandler visited with relatives in Kansas City and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dyer are now domiciled at their new home on the Dr. Smith ranch, two miles east of Sunnyside on the Turner road.

Mrs. Frank Barnett, who is at the Salem Hospital, recovering from an operation, is reported to be getting along nicely.

Gervais

GERVAIS, Dec. 14.—Fred McDonald and family are new residents in Gervais, coming from Woodburn, and are occupying the John Adelman property at Fifth and F streets. Dr. McDonald is employed by the S. P. Company.

Mrs. J. C. Adams left Tuesday morning for her home in Oakland, Calif., after a visit of a month at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Wynn, south of Town.

Mrs. J. D. Brehaut, Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth and Miss Helen Hiller were Portland visitors Tuesday. The annual meeting of the Masonic order will be held at the hall Thursday evening, December 12.

The Presbyterian Missionary society will hold its regular monthly meeting at the church next Wednesday afternoon, December 18, with Mrs. Charles R. Moore and Mrs. T. A. Dittmar as hostesses.

Aumsville

AUMSVILLE, Dec. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ellis entertained at their home Saturday evening a group of young people. The evening was spent playing various games. At a late hour a two course lunch was served by Mrs. Ellis.

The play cast of Stayton high school came to Aumsville school and staged the principal parts of their play they are putting on to advertise the production at Stayton school.

The county health nurse called at the school Monday and examined some of the children and those that were sick at home, the nurse called at their home.

Henry Penne has been remodeling his house this week and installing electricity. The Downer family moved their household goods to the D. Eastburn property about two miles south of Aumsville Saturday.

WEDS OFFICIAL

Mrs. Anna Von Ahlstrand Ely, pretty thirty-nine-year-old widow, was married in the historic Plymouth Church a few days ago to Bainsbridge Colby. Colby is internationally known as an attorney and diplomat and was Secretary of State in Woodrow Wilson's cabinet.

The senior class of high school put on a play Friday, December 13, the name of which was "Prairie Rose."

Amity

AMITY, Dec. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Miles Blalock and son, Donald, of Longview, Wash., are visiting at the home of Mr. Blalock's sister, Mrs. Walter Ollinger.

Miss Winifred Meckers, who has been attending high school here, was suddenly called to Alberta, Canada, where a relative is very ill. Winifred left Saturday.

Ross Givley of Eugene, was the speaker at the Christian church last Sunday. He is a teacher in the Eugene Bible school.

Miss Emma Miller was a McMinnville business visitor on Tuesday.

Charlie Phelps, of Portland, was in town one day last week. He is a former Amity resident.

James Roehml, a former Amity resident and a graduate of Amity high school, is in town visiting.

Miss Evelyn Umphlette was a McMinnville business visitor on Thursday.

Miss Nina Guile, an 8th grade student, is making her home at the A. E. Murphy home.

J. R. Snodgrass was a McMinnville visitor on Thursday of last week.

Monmouth

MONMOUTH, December 14.—Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Riddell and Mrs. John S. Fuller went to Yoncalla Wednesday to attend the funeral of Miss Leota Wilson, a

Exquisite Lingerie for Christmas Gifts

SINCE the new silhouette has changed the Lingerie fashions as well as frocks, gift choosing is more fascinating than ever this year. Here are the new fitted lines so necessary in the mode... more elaborately lace trimmed in keeping with the feminine trend. The new step-ins and dance sets... nightrobes and pajamas in delicate pastel colors are here.

Undies for Gifts
Priced $1.00 to $5.95

Kafoury's
255 N. Liberty

Rickey

RICKY, December 14.—Mrs. A. L. Baker of Mill City, who attended the meeting of the health association held in Salem, at the home of Mrs. Brazier Small Thursday was a guest of her father, D. A. Harris, Thursday night.

George Hager is having some work done on his house and having a fireplace built.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Davis and daughter, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank K. Harris.

Mrs. R. Hood has returned home after an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Mark Mills.

Mrs. Warner who was at the General hospital with blood poison in her hand has improved sufficiently to return home.

While not in the hospital the entire time, Mrs. Warner has been away for about two months.

Miss Anthea Elfstrom who has been quite ill at the General hospital, is now recuperating at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Elfstrom.

Miss Elfstrom is in training for a nurse but will be unable to return to her work for some time.

A. E. La Branche is spending several days in the Alsea county fishing.

Kathleen Fitzpatrick is among those chosen from the art class to furnish sketches for the Salem high school annual.

Several members of the community clubs attended the meeting of the Auburn community club last Friday evening, while some visited the Fruitland club and others the Hazel Green club.

Raymond Wallace, Roy Crab and Troy Orabb are among the Salem high school boys who passed the test for advanced test for summer conducted at Y. M. C. A.

Orvin Fryslic and W. H. Humphreys made a trip to Salem Friday in interest of community club business.

Orchard Heights

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Dec. 14.—Mrs. J. W. Edgar has been seriously ill with an attack of mumps with complications. She is not improving much.

Helen, four year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Withers, has been suffering from a severe attack of flu. Fears were entertained for her life for a time, but she is now getting better.

The pupils of the Popcorn school will give a play, "Christmas at McCarthy's", on the evening of December 20, under the

Liberty Street
For Silk

HOSIERY

Shipley's

For the Largest Selection

WE CATER TO

MEN

Who Buy For Women

Open Saturday Nine Till 11:30

Shipley's

Quality Merchandise
Popular Prices

A. M. Clough

J. Dale Taylor

CLOUGH-TAYLOR
COMPANY

Funeral Directors

Lady Assisant

205 S. Church
Telephone 120

CHRISTMAS FURNITURE

Welcome to our shop, gift buyers who are puzzled as to what to give! For here you will discover that our furniture offers many opportunities to make the best and most economical gifts you ever made. Gifts that are lasting—permanent—beautiful—practical. Individual pieces of furniture that are sure to please.

- Spinet Desks
- Secretaries
- Book Desks
- Wall Desks
- Occasional Tables
- Magazine Racks
- Floor Lamps
- Table Lamps
- Smoking Stands
- Sparton Radios
- Console Tables
- Mirrors
- Telephone Stands and Chairs
- Coffee Tables
- End Tables
- Fireside Chairs
- Bridge Lamps
- Cedar Chests
- Hassocks
- Majestic Radios

And best of all a Davenport tailored to fit your individual taste.

Desk Special
Combination Desk in either Burl Walnut or Mahogany. This desk combines the utmost in beauty and utility. Exceptionally roomy as they have two small and one long drawers below and compartments above. A Special Value at $29.50

Imperial Furniture Co.
Salem and Lebanon