Christmas Party Is Charming Affair

One of the lovely parties of the week was that with which the Sweet Briar club celebrated its annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Karl Kugel Wednesday afternoon. The home of Mrs. Kugel, Willamette Lodge, was transformed into a gay forest of Christmas trees and Christmas festoon with generous amounts of holly and innumerable red tapers to give the note of color, and snow here and there in compliment to the patron saint from the north country.

A "no host" turkey dinner was served at one o'clock. At the conclusion of this gifts were exchanged and a very happy afternoon was spent to mark the Christmas of 1929.

Club members present for this affair were Mrs. Glen Adams, Mrs. M. C. Petters, Mrs. Ray Binegar, Mrs. James Imlay, Mrs. E. O. Moll, Mrs. C. C. Page, Mrs. Ralph Allen, Mrs. William Stoddard, Mrs. W. C. Franklin, Mrs. F. E. Mercer, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, Mrs. Arthur Utley, Mrs. Croydon Blodgett, Mrs. Ed Pratt, Mrs. Lou Grote, Mrs. A. H. Bunn, Mrs. Nina Crabtree, Mrs. Marie Flint McCall, and Mrs. Karl Kugel.

Y. K. K. Club Women Guests of Husbands

The Y. K. K. club of the First Methodist church have a jolly custom of dividing the entertaining so that once each year and most always at Christmas time the husbands entertain the wives. This year the party was given Wednesday night at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Cecil Monk on Capitol street.

The home was beautifully arranged with holly, mistletoe and an elaborately decorated Christmas tree. A program arranged under the direction of Frank Voight was presented to the genuine amusement of every one present. A pantomime, "Modern Cinderella," was read and enacted by the men with hilarious results. Following this some tricks of magic were presented by Frank Voight and the program closed with a mock trial with the men taking all the characters represented. The trial was a breach of promise suit between Delicia Feweloches and Charles Stringbean.

The evening closed with an exchange of gifts from the Christmas tree and a cleverly served lunch, the latter of which had been arranged by the men. There were about 45 people who enjoyed this party.

Waldo Marsters was chairman of the refreshment committee and Floyd Lee was general chairman of the affair.

Patriotic Orders Have Christmas Tree

Mrs. Lizzie Smith, 81 year old widow of Joshua Smith for whom the Salem Sons of Union Veterans post was named, and T. G. Harris, 91 year old comrade, were special guests of the Sons of Union Veterans and its auxiliary at the annual Christmas party given this year at the Woman's clubhouse on North Cottage street, Tuesday night.

There was a present for each of the members present and a very jolly party was enjoyed by all present. Following the distribution of presents a program was given and the evening was concluded with serving refreshments. The committee in general charge of the affair was Mrs. M. D. Davis, Mrs. Louie King, Mrs. Gertrude Remington, and U. G. Boyer.

Those who appeared on the program were Rev. A. P. Layton; a sextette number by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. McShane, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fessenden, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McWhorter, Mrs. R. M. Davis, Mrs. Ida Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, Leo Thornton, R. M. Mead, and Rev. H. E. Gardner.

Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. C. K. Spaulding will motor to Corvallis this afternoon with a carload of Christmas gifts for the Children's Farm Home just out of Corvallis. These presents are those which the members of the Thursday club have given as an annual Christmas present for the little folks in this home. The presents are both practical and attractive. A little red table and little red chairs will make the hearts of several of the little folk happy; a cut out book will add joy to some rainy afternoons, and one person who knows well the heart of children sent in addition to the practical an all-day sucker for each child in the home.

Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Hawker, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Soehren, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Sundberg, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Craven, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Starbuck, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chapman. A late supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. Loughary.

Edward Siegmund, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Siegmund, and junior in University of Oregon has been elected to Alpha Kappa Psi, a national commerce honorary society in business administration in the Business Administration School at the university. He is expected home today for Christmas vacation. Donald Siegmund, who is a freshman at the University of Oregon, and is studying pre-medicine, will also be home for the holidays.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helps Her So Much

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I was just completely run-down. I had tired, heavy, sluggish feelings and I could not eat. I was losing weight. I read so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and what a good medicine it is that I started taking it. I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and about the same in tablet form. This is one medicine a woman should have in the house all the time. I am improving every day and I sure am able to eat. I am willing to answer any letters asking about the Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. ELLA RICHARDS, 21 Chautauqua St., N. S. Pittsburgh, Pa.
