

News from Mid-Valley District Communities for Statesman Readers

Waconda

WACONDA, Dec. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. George Lemery entertained at dinner Wednesday night in honor of their sons, Fred Lemery and Dr. Wilson Lemery, who left Thursday for New Orleans. Covers were laid for the doctor, Weston Lemery, and Doctor Wagon Lemery, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felton and children, Duane and Velle and for the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemery.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goffin were hosts at dinner Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Ottaway and family of Aurora.

Mr. and Mrs. Perle Patterson were Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Patterson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Russell of South Bottom.

Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Loran had as their guests recently, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rasmussen and small daughter of Silverton.

Miss Gladys Brown has announced the date of her school program for Christmas as being Saturday, December 21.

The Bible class held its regular meeting last Saturday afternoon at the George Lemery home. George Brown has been elected president and Britt Aspinwall, secretary-treasurer. Those attending the class were Mr. and Mrs. Britt Aspinwall, Mr. and Mrs. George Lemery, Mr. and Mrs. M. Sahli and Mr. and Mrs. George Brown.

Dogs have been killing sheep in this community. As a result two dogs have been killed.

A shooting match was held Sunday at the Joe Warner home.

Marion

MARION, December 21.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fennell and son Delbert of Lebanon were among the visitors at the community club Tuesday evening.

Albert Mitzner is home from the logging camp on a visit over the holidays.

Hubert Daue who received a very bad injury to his right eye by being struck in that member with a flying chip last week is getting along very nicely, and while his eye is in very bad condition yet, it is believed that he will recover full use of it.

Orvil Doerfler and J. A. Doerfler transacted business in Salem Monday.

Arrangements are fast nearing completion for the community Christmas tree to be held in the W.O.W. hall Christmas eve. The community tree is being sponsored by the Marion community club. Mr. A. F. J. Lafky, Lee Smith and Hubert Daue are in charge of all arrangements and a true Christmas evening with Christmas spirit may be looked forward to.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Smith home Tuesday at the Lee Smith home Tuesday, leaving for Portland Wednesday morning.

Marion is becoming quite populated with gas stations, it having three now with a fourth one in course of construction, also we are having another confectionery store and light lunch counter. We are progressing.

Woodburn

WOODBURN, Dec. 21.—The sisters of the St. Benedict's school will present their pupils in a Christmas program in the St. Luke's community hall 2:30 Sunday afternoon.

The program will consist of music, both vocal and instrumental, and readings.

Mrs. S. A. Galbraith of Oakland, California is visiting her daughter and family, Mrs. Gertrude Shorey.

Esther Tucker, Pauline Livesay, Alvina Breithaupt, John Nelson, Robert Wilson, and Earl Parks were among a party of students from Willamette university who motored to Woodburn Tuesday evening to attend the Woman's club play at the high school.

The Howitzer company are sponsoring a big dance in the newly-modeled armory Christmas night, with music by the Sunnyside Serenaders, an orchestra from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Miller are visiting at the home of Mr. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Miller of near here. Mr. Miller has been in the east for some time where he has gained considerable success in the engineering field.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Brune left Wednesday for an extended visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Burne of Palo Alto, California.

Hubbard

HUBBARD, Dec. 21.—A group of Rebekahs gathered at the home of Mrs. Ellen Carl Wednesday to make up the Christmas cheer baskets. The baskets were made up by the Rebekahs at the Odd Fellows home at Portland. Those present were Mrs. Caroline Smolinsky, Mrs. Edith Painter, Mrs. Winnie Brown, Mrs. Bertha Ainsworth, Miss Frances Weaver, Mrs. Ada Ott, Mrs. Esther Moon, Mrs. Nettie Balls, Ms. Ave Malone, Mrs. Elizabeth Grimm, Mrs. Mae Pulley and Mrs. Wilma Lefler.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron King and small son of Sacramento, Cal. arrived at the Thompson hotel Wednesday where they will be holiday guests of Mrs. King's mother and brother, Mrs. Lucy Thompson and Frank Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. W. McMannis and small daughter, Tress, left for Roseburg Friday morning. They will remain at the home of Mrs. McMannis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. Bounds, until Mr. McMannis is fully recovered from a recent illness. The local depot is in charge of J. Klyck during the absence of McMannis who is agent.

Mrs. Mattie Crocker visited a friend, Mrs. J. L. Stauffer, who is ill, at her home in Silverton Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Ainsworth of Kerry, Ore., are guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ainsworth. The Ainsworth families were Portland Christmas shoppers Thursday.

The senior girls, Miss Helen Knight, Miss Agatha Voget, Miss Hazel Ingalls, Miss Geraldine Carlton, Miss Hazel Moore, Miss Tava Morgan, and Miss Marion Carlson, accompanied by Miss Marie de Lespinasse and Miss Dorothy Scholl and Mrs. Adeline Fields, English teacher, all of the Hubbard high school, motored to Portland to see "Macbeth" which was presented at the auditorium. The senior class is beginning a study of the classics in English.

Thursday afternoon the second grade was dismissed and Miss Berry Blosser, the teacher, went to Salem to consult an eye specialist. Miss Blosser returned to school with a bandaged left eye.

Gervais

GERVAIS, December 21.—A. Piennard, who has been ill for some time, went to Portland Saturday, where he is receiving treatment.

A. Patterson of Payette, Idaho, is visiting the Al Kostenbender family and other relatives and friends here and at Woodburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dunn and small daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Stokx and daughter Dorothy were in Portland Sunday.

Chas. Lett and wife of Gresham called Monday to see his father, T. H. Lett, while in this community to attend the funeral of the late Dr. J. L. Shorey of Woodburn.

Shaw

SHAW, December 21.—Joe Schmitz, who underwent a major operation in a Salem hospital returned home, and is now improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hortach motored to Mt. Angel one day this week.

A number of people of this vicinity attended the basketball game at Aumsville Friday evening. Albina Schneider is employed in Salem.

Many people attended the turkey shoot held at Shaw Sunday. Turkeys, geese and ducks were the prizes offered. Afterwards a lunch was served at the Lloyd Keene farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Sherman and children were the honored guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fisher at Stayton, Sunday.

Those who took part in the Senior play, "A Prairie Rose" are: John Prospal, Adele Amort, Yvonne Pickel, Mabel Sherman and Bernard Lebold. This play, was given at Salem Saturday. Some that did not get to see the play at Aumsville went to Salem to see it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Scofield of Salem visited at the Larson home one day this week.

The Waldo Hill club met at the home of Mrs. Ivan Putman Thursday.

Edward Amort and Frank Maser motored to Oregon City Saturday.

The beacon light is now under construction on the Frank Schneider place.

The Shaw public school is giving a program Thursday evening. The first half of the program will consist of songs, recitations and instrumental music. Afterwards the pupils are giving a play called "Queen Christmas."

Ernest Rook of Shaw celebrated his 42nd birthday Thursday. Alfred Fieber, who attended the Shaw high school enrolled at the Aumsville high school Thursday. He is a sophomore.

Central Howell

CENTRAL HOWELL, Dec. 21.—The school board has had the roof of the old hall patched to allow the children to use it as a play room.

The school program which the teachers are planning will be given Monday evening. The Christmas treat for the children will be given out at that time.

W. Desart, who has been very ill is able to be up and around now.

There is to be a meeting tonight to assign the parts in play to be given some time in January.

Mabel Werner is working at Shipley's store in Salem during the Christmas rush.

Mrs. Fred Falk, whose home is at Halsey has been visiting this week with the John Lauderback and John Tweed families. Mrs. Tweed and Mrs. Falk went to Portland Wednesday to bring Alleen home with them for a day's visit.

Mrs. Walter Haverson is spending a few days at Corvallis visiting friends.

Amity

AMITY, Dec. 21.—Lawrence Massey and Raymond Wood, two of the Amity high's first team basketball men, attended the Multnomah club vs. Oregon University game Saturday in Portland.

Charlie Tiffany of Montana spent several days visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Walter Dickey. His son, Lewis Tiffany, is making his home with his aunt and is attending Linfield college in McMinnville.

Miss Betty Lou Finn and Florence Snodgrass spent Thursday evening in McMinnville.

Emmett Mitchell, who is attending Oregon State college spent Thursday evening visiting at the high school.

The road leading to the Olinger saw mill near Amity is being graveled.

ABILITY
The ability to serve well is more than the desire
it is born of experience and manifested by the expression of the Beautiful.

W.T. Riddon & Son
When the Success Comes

Turner

TURNER, December 21.—Waldo Riches is home from Monmouth Normal for a two weeks' holiday.

Ira Pearce who has made his home in Turner for about 25 years, has gone to live at the Masonic home at Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Tucker of Salem visited at the parental Mc Gay home Thursday.

Prof. J. R. Cox and wife gave up their proposed trip to eastern Oregon. They will spend the holidays with relatives at Oregon City and at Jefferson and possibly take a trip to Alesia. School will open Dec. 30.

Miss Frankie Porter of Turner and Jack Burks, recently from

Kingwood

KINGWOOD, Dec. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Compton arrived last week from Springfield, Mo., and are guests of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. Compton. They expect to stay some time in Oregon.

Guests of T. P. McDill, over the week-end, were his two daughters, Mrs. Erma Bruce of Gervais, and Mrs. Beulah Fisher of Auburn. Mrs. Fisher has taught the Auburn school for several consecutive terms and Mrs. Bruce teaches near Gervais. Both ladies lived here during their girlhood.

E. W. Emmett is home from Portland where he spent several weeks in the Veterans' hospital. While there he was treated for injuries received last summer in a fall from a cherry tree. He is now able to walk without crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Smith now have a radio in their home.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Finley were Mr. and Mrs. John May and children, Lee, Dan and Ruby, of the Keise neighborhood. Mr. May is employed on the A. F. Beardsley fruit farm. The May family came from Illinois last summer and expect to make their home in Oregon. Mr. May lived here a good many years ago. He is a brother of Mrs. Finley.

Mrs. Theodore Bernard is suffering from a very severe cold, complicated by an attack of asthma.

Charles Ruge, city engineer of West Salem, is supervising the construction of a stone culvert on Cascade drive.

North Santiam

NORTH SANTIAM, Dec. 21.—Elton Boud was returned from Asotin, Wash., where he has been employed for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Oglesbee and son Gail of Albany were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn E. McClennan Sunday.

Sam Hinkle is reported quite ill at his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Higgins spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Browning.

One Gift to All Furniture

FOR THE LIVING ROOM

A Davenport and Chair in new, beautiful tapestries, velours or mohairs, all moderately priced.

Occasional chairs in new and attractive coverings $11.35 to $45.00.

Comfortable Cogswell Chairs in many coverings $39.50.

A DINING ROOM SUITE

For the Christmas dinner you will find just the suite you have been wanting at prices that you can afford.

FOR THE BED ROOM

See our selection -- just the suite you want is here. Bed - dresser - chiffonier, in decorated green or decorated grey, only $69.00.

DON'T FORGET THE CHRISTMAS SPECIAL ON THE MONARCH ELECTRIC RANGE FOR THE KITCHEN.

YOUR HOME SHOULD COME FIRST AT CHRISTMAS.

EVERYONE WOULD ENJOY AN ANTWATER KENT RADIO

C.S. Hamilton
FURNITURE CO.
240 Court St.

ALL DELIVERIES MADE BEFORE CHRISTMAS