Seven - Subordinate Groups Have Joint Installation Fine Program

KINGS VALLEY, Dec. 21,-Installation of the seven subordinate granges of Benton county was held at Mary's River grange Saturday evening.

Miss Bertha J. Beck, secretary of the state grange acted as installing officer. The work was put on in a very impressive and creditable manner. Hope grange of Alsea was inducted into the charts. Program Varied

Kings Valley Good The Kings Valley grange put on a stunt that was a scream from start to finish. Three Kings Valley ladies, Mrs. Woods, Mrs. Cosgrove and Mrs. Allen, were called to the floor by the lecturer, Mrs. Bump, and then Brother Ed Blake of Mountain View grange, Brother Jones of Willamette grange, and Brother Pratt of Mary's River grange were called upon to assist with the stunt. When the men came on the floor, they were told it was to be a dressmaking contest, and each man was to make a dress for the lady who stood opposite him. The lecturer furnished the newspapers and pins and they were given five minutes to complete the task.

Brother Bottger of Summit grange, Brother Kent of Crowfoot grange, and Brother Bullivant of Willamette grange acted as judges. The points the contest was to be judged on were artistic, fashionable, suitable to the wearers' figure and workmanship. A

Dallas Discovers Meanest Man in DALLAS, Dec. 21.-Trustees of the Odd Fellows cemetery believe that they have found the "meanest man." Thursday night some one invaded the cemetery and cut to the ground a number of large holly bushes that had been planted by the trustees. This vandalism of trees and flowers has become a common practice and some definite action should be taken to apprehend and punish the offenders. It is understood that the trustees will offer a reward of $25 for information leading to the identity of the persons destroying the holly ers' fgiure and workmanship. Jones Wins Prize After five minutes of hilarious al music, readings, a drill and a delight for the spectators, and stunt. WACONDA, Dec. 21-An attractive decorated Christmas tree with other holiday novelties greeted members of the Waconda Community club when they were. the home of Mrs. A. W. Nusom, Sr. An all-day meeting was enjoyed, a pot-luck dinner being served at noon. The group was occupied with finishing numerous Christmas articles and packing the box which has been sent to the Childrens Home at Corvallis. One new member, Mrs.

Van O. Kelly, was initiated. During the business meeting it was decided to make a cash donation to the Christmas cheer fund. A quilt was donated for the bed of two deserving little boys in Salem. The many articles of food and clothing brought by each member were delivered to the
