ST. BENEDICT'S HAS SCHOOL PROGRAM

WOODBURN, Dec. 24.—The sisters of the St. Benedict's school here presented their students in a delightful Christmas program, Sunday afternoon in the St. Luke's community hall. The program opened with a clever eskimo stunt by the junior boys. All the children, dressed in white suits, immersed from a small igloo into the open where, in the midst of a snow storm, they sang a song, at the conclusion of which they assaulted the crowd with cotton snow-balls. This stunt was followed by a chorus of boys from the senior division who whistled several songs and gave some readings. The junior girls put on an effective stunt as little cooks, doing a dance and singing a song. The senior girls, gowned in white robes, trimmed with tinsel, formed impressive drill figures to music. Oliver McClure gave an amusing reading, "The Christmas Stocking." The senior girls sang a Christmas carol and the senior boys put on a miracle play, "The Bethlehem Star," which portrayed the healing of the little crippled boy. Miss Clara Koch, a student at Mt. Angel Normal Academy gave a reading, "The Book Agent" and a tableau portraying the birth of Christ closed the program.

Silverton Community Club Enjoys Dr. Riley and Local Orchestra in Yule Concert

SILVERTON, Dec. 24.—"I congratulate Prof. Campbell and the Silverton community on its splendid orchestra," were the first words Dr. P. O. Riley of Hubbard spoke when he addressed the audience attending the Silverton community orchestra concert given at the Methodist church Monday night. "I wonder if Silverton realizes what she has here," he continued. "I wish there were 2000 of her citizens present tonight that I might tell them of the wonderful talent they have in their midst." As a matter of fact the audience was comparatively small but it made up in appreciation what it lacked in number. Not only was the music greatly enjoyed but Dr. Riley's talk was much appreciated. Dr. Riley particularly complimented Miss Irene Morley, Silverton's talented young violinist, speaking of her as a "real genius." He also mentioned that the last selection which the late Governor Patterson listened to while dying
