Community Club and School Join in Presenting Excellent Program

SPRING VALLEY, Dec. 28.—A large crowd was present to hear the combined Community club program, under the direction of Mrs. John Matthews and Miss Verna Eberly, and the school program under the direction of the teacher, Miss Clara Siebens.

The program was opened by the school children marching from the basement, through the audience to the stage, singing "Holy Night." Little Miss Marjorie Matthews and Gladys Crawford and Julia Stratton next sang "Away in a Manger." This was followed by a Christmas Drill given by eight girls of the community dressed in red and green, namely the Misses Sadie Schubert, Beatrice Simkins, Eula Smith, Grace Childers, Verna Eberly, Louise Walling, Irene Windsor, and Mrs. Helen Willert. Little James Smith delighted the audience with his recitation "Scaring Santa." "In the Land of Christmas Trees," a recitation was next given by Dorothy Eberly.

"Christmas Tree Song," given by the younger pupils. Dialog, "Darning the Christmas Stocking" was given by Arthur Yungen and Edgar Smith. The school sang "Up on the Honsetops," which was followed by the recitation "Watching Santa," by Arthur Yungen.

Marjorie Matthews gave a recitation, "My New Doll." This was followed by a vocal duet "Sweet Christmas Angel," by Doris Windsor and Ila Marie Verjee.

A dialog "Awaiting Santa," was given by Dorothy Eberly, Marjorie Matthews, Julian Stratton, Theodora Shafer, Gladys Crawford, and Edward Schubert. Miss Evelyn Umphlette of Amity, delighted the audience with her Christmas reading as did also Miss Lucille Hackett of Lincoln, with her reading "The Book Agent."

Mrs. J. S. Hiatt of Zena, gave two pleasing soprano solos, "Marguerite" and "Just a Wearyin' for You," accompanying herself on the auto harp. The final number was a pageant, "Nativity of Christ," in four scenes, 1, Holy Night; 2, The Shepherds; 3, The Wise Men; 4, The Adoration of the Child.

Characters were: Mary, Miss Lorine Walling; Joseph, Miss Olive Stratton; leading angel, Miss Eula Smith; main angel, Mrs. Pete Willert. Other angels were Misses Sadie Schubert, Beatrice Childers, Doris Windsor, Ila Marie Verjee, Verna Eberly, Grace Stratton, Dorothy Wilson, Dorothy Eberly, Ila Smith, Gladys Crawford and Marjorie Matthews. Wise men were Frank Matthews, Donnel Crawford and Frank Smith.

Shepherds: Vivian Stratton, Seymour Wilson and Arlie Simkins. Mrs. Seymour Wilson was accompanied. The chorus, led by Mrs. Hiatt, Mrs. Stratton and Mrs. Crawford sang "Christmas Carol," "Holy Night," "Little Star of Bethlehem," "We, Three Kings of Orient Are," and "Joy to the World," between acts and as a final.

Chris Yungen as Santa Claus, dispensed joy to all present in form of presents from the beautifully decorated tree, and candy and nuts furnished by the members of the district. Program committee for next month will be Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Edwards and A. E. Simkins.

Fine Lemons Are Produced at Scio

SCIO, Dec. 28.—Ard Sheon has grown some of the largest lemons ever produced outside of a tropical climate.

The plant is four years old and this is the second year it has borne fruit. The plant is kept outside in summer and inside in winter.

The largest lemon weighed 1 1/2 ounces and has a circumference of 13 inches. The other weighs 9/16 ounces and has a circumference of 10 1/2 inches. There are several more on the tree that will mature soon.

STAYTON ANNOUNCES PRIZE WINNERS

Lewis Bell Service Station Wins Award in Annual Lighting Contest

STAYTON, Dec. 28.—The judging of the business houses decorated for Christmas took place on Thursday evening, following a dinner at the Gem Cafe which was attended by the committee and their wives and the judges and their wives or other members of the family.

Interest was evidenced about town as to who would win the prizes. The decision of the judges was a surprise to some, who didn't expect a prize, and a disappointment to others who had gone to considerable work to make their windows attractive.

The first prize was awarded the Lewis-Bell service station; the second to the Davie barber shop; third, Lois Trask beauty shop; fourth, Shafer Variety store; fifth, Burmaster shoe shop; sixth, Dean's jewelry store. Consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Estella Huntley's beauty shop, Stayton Bakery, Barker Chevrolet Co. and Stayton Mail. Honorable mention was given Gem Cafe, Lancelotti shoe store, Beauchamp drug store, John's service station and Gehlin's store.

The judges were Miss Eunice Smith, teacher at the Mt. Pleasant school; Prof. McClelland, of the West Stayton school, and the principal of the Scio school.

On Tuesday evening it is said the residents will be joined. There are a dozen or more homes decorated. December 21 was the last day designated for persons to register if they cared to enter the contest, and it hardly seems likely that those who did not have their place decorated. Christmas eve would be eligible to enter this, a holiday contest.

Some unique things may be seen in both the store and home decorations, space would not permit a description, but they are indeed creditable, and another year even more decorating will no doubt be done.

HUBBARD HAS GROUP DINNER

Hubbard Mineral Springs Hotel Scene of Year-end Celebration

HUBBARD, Dec. 28.—Members of the Hubbard Commercial club were hosts to 150 of their wives and friends at an elaborate banquet at the Mineral Springs hotel here last night.

The honor guest of the evening was "Hy" Everding, of Portland who is a guest of the hotel. Mr. Everding is known all over the west as a sportsman and philanthropist. His help of other children was lauded by speakers at the banquet. Mr. Everding responded graciously and expressed his appreciation of the good times he had enjoyed during the two months of his stay in Hubbard.

Levi Miller, president of the Commercial club presided as toastmaster and called upon many members and guests during the short program of impromptu numbers.

Mrs. Neva McKenzie, president of the Hubbard Woman's club spoke in behalf of that organization and expressed the gratitude of the club for the help and cooperation they had received from the Commercial club.

Music was furnished by a quartette from Salem consisting of Dr. L. E. Barrick, H. J. Pearson, E. H. Leach and J. J. Morris. The Hubbard community orchestra, under the direction of Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse, gave several much appreciated numbers.

Mrs. Carrie M. Chase, popular Salem reader gave numbers which were enthusiastically received. She was accompanied at the piano for one number by her daughter, Miss Martha Chase.

Misses Anna and Helen Knight, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. George Knight danced two numbers that were well received.

They were in colonial costume and were accompanied at the piano by Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse.

One of the most enjoyable features on the program was the tricks magic performed by E. Cook Patton. He was encored again and again. His tragic death from heart failure later in the evening came as a great shock to his audience, most of whom went to their homes without realizing that he was seriously ill.

Program of Indian School Is Talked

The program of the Salem Indian school and its prospects for the future will be discussed at the Salem chamber of commerce luncheon Monday noon by O. H. Lippis, superintendent. He is expected to report on his recent trip to Washington, D. C., where he conferred with officials of the Department of the Interior. The Chemawa Indian orchestra, directed by Rutha Turner, will play during the luncheon.

GATZKE FUNERAL TO BE TOMORROW

Funeral services for Mrs. Julia Gatzke, who died Friday at the home near Macleay, will be held Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Clough-Taylor chapel, with Rev. Earl Cochran officiating and interment to follow in the Macleay cemetery.

Mrs. Gatzke, called by those who knew and loved her "Grandma Dikeman," was 83 years old. She was born in Germany and came to this country more than 40 years ago. She was well known throughout the district in which she lived. She had made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Bertha Dikeman.

Besides Mrs. Dikeman, she leaves a daughter and son: Mrs. August Dikeman of Wisconsin, and Steve Gatzke of California; and the following grandchildren: Fred Dikeman, Julia Budlong, Nellie Westwood, Sally Ormand and Paul Dikeman.

Dodge Senior Six With Radio Seen

Bonesteel Motor Company, local Dodge dealers have on display a new Dodge senior six with a radio attachment. A representative of The Statesman had the pleasure of riding around the city in the car. The radio reception was very satisfactory and the running of the motor did not affect it in any way. When driving in the business district certain buildings would cut off the reception for a moment but in the residential district the reception was good.

SKULL OF PEKING MAN STIRS FURORE

Find Declared Most Important in History of Human Evolution

By JAMES F. HOWE Associated Press Correspondent PEKING, China, Dec. 28.—(AP)—Scientists who attempted the first public showing of the newly discovered skull of the "Peking man," today hailed the find as possibly the most important in the history of human evolution.

The scientists, who estimated that the skull was more than a million years old, were particularly impressed with the comparatively large brain capacity indicated by the skull, stating that the well developed forehead and height of the skull indicated an increased volume of brain by which the intelligence of the prehistoric man might be deduced.

Dr. Davidson Black, formerly of Toronto, who is honorary director of the Geozoological Research Laboratory of the Geological Survey by which the skull was discovered, gave full credit for the discovery to W. C. Pei, youthful Chinese member of the survey, who unearthed it on Dec. 2 on the last day of the season's work.

Dr. Black called attention to the vault of the skull form and its massive ridges, which he counted the excavations which had continued since 1921 when the first tooth was found of "Sinanthropus Pekinensis," by Dr. J. G. Anderson, Swedish scientist. He explained that the newly found skull was found to be of approximately similar length to the famous Pithecanthropus and like the latter form is provided with massive ridges, "a feature to be correlated with a powerful jaw mechanism."

FRENCH ATTITUDE HELD NO OBSTACLE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—(AP)—With the delivery at the state department tonight of the French note giving the attitude of that government toward the London naval conference, a conviction was expressed in official quarters that the French position would not constitute an important obstacle to the parity.

The French stand came as no surprise to officials here, and there were indications that it had been expected that the French would maintain with regard to the forthcoming conference a similar position to that held during former considerations of the disarmament question.

Secretary Stimson already had declined to comment on the French position, either on the basis of summaries of the note from London and Paris or on the basis of press dispatches from the French capital.

Torture Charge Is Filed Against Medford Visitor

MEDFORD, Ore., Dec. 28.—(AP)—Jack Donovan, arrested Friday morning after a gun battle with police, following the alleged holdup of a patron in a downtown cafe and the asserted torture of Pat Bohan, second hand dealer, by burning the soles of his feet in an attempt to force him to tell where his money was hidden, was formally charged today with assault with intent to kill and robbery with a dangerous weapon. Bail was fixed at $10,000.

MURDER CHARGED

MILLER, S. D., Dec. 28.—(AP)—Alphons Lapka, 30, was arrested tonight, charged with the knife slaying of his 50 year old mother, Mrs. Anton Lapka, at their farm home 23 miles north of here on the night of December 14.

TWO PATTONS HAVE FUNERAL

Mrs. J. D. McCully Will be Buried Along With Her Brother Cooke

Mrs. McCully was of a prominent pioneer family, that of Thomas M. Patton and Frances Patton, who came west by ox team in 1851. Her father was an attorney in Salem, and was a prominent member of the legislature. He held the cornerstones of the capitol building, and the silver trowel with which he laid it has been one of the family's most treasured possessions. For a time he was United States appraiser in Portland, and later was consul to Japan. He returned to Salem, and in 1886 he opened the Patton bookstore which has been operated by his sons ever since.

Mrs. McCully was well known in Salem circles, and will be remembered by a large number of old residents here.

Services for Mrs. McCully will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Hood River. Following these services the family will come to Salem and services for Mrs. McCully and Cooke Patton will be held at 2 o'clock, Monday, in the Rigdon chapel. Rev. Charles E. Ward, pastor of the First Congregational church, will officiate at this service, and pallbearers for Mr. Patton will be members of the Salem Lodge of Elks, of which he was a charter member.

ARGUMENTS HEARD IN VAN DUZER SUIT

Arguments of attorneys will be heard in the state supreme court here Tuesday in the suit brought by Guy C. H. Corless of Portland, administrator of the estate of Albert D. Jones, deceased, to recover damages from H. B. VanDuser, chairman of the state highway commission.

Jones, who was a traveling salesman, was killed when an automobile which he was driving skidded from the highway between Roseburg and Myrtle Point. Corless charged that the highway was blocked with a slide at the time of the accident, and that the warning signs were inadequate.

VanDuser was made the sole defendant in the suit for the reason that he was alleged to be in charge of the work of clearing the slide. The lower court for Multnomah county held for the defendant, whereupon appeal was taken to the supreme court.

PEDAGOGUES WANT EDUCATION BOARD

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 28.—(AP)—Hundreds of pedagogues, Portland from all sections of the state for the 30th annual convention of the Oregon State Teachers' association, came out boldly tonight for the creation of a state board of education and adoption of the county unit system.

A resolution embodying the teachers' desire for state supervision of both the common schools and the educational institutions of higher learning was adopted unanimously and without debate at the afternoon session. The resolution was presented by the committee on resolutions, Charles A. Rice, superintendent of schools here, was chairman of the committee.

In recommending abolition of the small unit and so-called home rule, the teachers declared that the elementary schools of the state could best be directed by concentration of authority in one body.

HILENE

The Effective Motor Oil

HE performance of an oil is its only real test. HILENE means more gasoline mileage through high compression, thereby using every atom to produce power.

HILENE wears longer, is consumed less and reduces friction at the same time. Therefore less wear on your motor, reducing overhaul bills and at longer intervals.

HILENE saves from 5% to 20% on the consumption of gasoline and from 50% to 200% on oil.

HILENE is made by a new process. Refined from petroleum crude oils, producing an oil of high viscosity which keeps the piston and cylinder walls and bearings lined with a perfect lubricating film of oil.

A motor car using other oils than HILENE, upon the adoption of HILENE, will show an increase in both gasoline and oil mileage which frequently saves more than the entire cost of the oil.

Is there a motor car driver who does not appreciate the smooth, steady, powerful pull of a motor using HILENE, particularly when besides the pleasure of driving this smooth running motor, it actually costs him less than to run it with ordinary oils, with the corresponding loss of power, increased vibration and other unsatisfactory results.

Call on your dealer for HILENE.
