Despite that more persons are at work in the state motor vehicle department than ever before, the employes were unable to cope with the 11th hour demands for 1930 automobile licenses here Tuesday. Long before noon the line of applicants extended from the counters on the second floor of the motor vehicle building down the stairs and far into the street. This situation continued until late in the afternoon when many of the late arrivals dropped out of the line, and deferred obtaining their licenses until Thursday.
