

Debaters Ready for Season

INDEPENDENCE HAS CHOSEN DEBATERS

High School Students Look Forward to Successful Season

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 8 — A promising season of debate will open Thursday, Jan. 16 when Salem negative will debate at Independence and Independence negative at Dallas. The question is: Resolved, "That Oregon Should Adopt a Compulsory Automobile Liability Insurance Law."

The debaters are enthusiastic over the coming debates and believe that the question needs universal attention all over the United States.

The school gives a debating pin to each member of the team. To choose the team, everyone who is interested goes out for debate and each must give a five minute talk before the student body. They are judged and the final team is chosen.

Independence team is affirmative, Lida Hanna, Glenn Harris; negative, Joe Hershberger, Elizabeth Baker, Burton Shoemaker (alt) Dick Sloper (alt). The speeches will last 15 minutes and rebuttal five minutes. Two of the team, Lida and Joe debated last year. One-half won last year and half lost.

The debate schedule is: Jan. 16, Indep. Neg. at Dallas. Salem Neg. at Indep. Jan. 20, Indep. Aff. at Stayton. Woodburn Neg. at Indep. Feb. 13, Indep. Neg. at St. Paul. St. Paul Neg. at Indep. Feb. 20, Indep. Aff. at Woodburn. Stayton Neg. at Indep.

PARTED BY DEATH—STUNT FLYING

Kenneth Hawks, well-known motion picture director, shown with his wife, Mary Astor, was one of the ten victims of the fatal mid-air crash between two cabin planes which were filming a picture above the sea, at Santa Monica, Cal. Immediately after the planes collided both burst into flames and plunged into the water, making it impossible for the doomed men to escape alive. (International Newsreel)

Hosts of Friends Pay Tribute to Memory of Hannah Phillips Barker

ZENA, Jan. 8.—Old pioneers from far and near gathered at the church at Zena Monday at 1:30 p. m. to pay last tribute to the memory of a dear, departed friend and neighbor, Mrs. Hannah Phillips Barker, 67, who died Friday, January 3, at the old ancestral home of her parents, John and Elizabeth Phillips. All of the seats were filled and standing room was at a premium in the roomy old church at this, one of the largest funerals ever held in this community.

Church Decorated
The church was beautifully decorated by the loving hands of her friends, Frank Matthews, Charles McCarter, Worth Henry, Lynn Purvine, Wayne Henry and Walker Purvine were pall bearers.

Reverend W. C. Kantner of Salem, an old friend of the family, officiated. Reverend Kantner read the following lines on the life of Mrs. Hannah Phillips Barker, who was born August 21, 1862, on the donation land claim of her parents, John and Elizabeth Phillips, who crossed the plains by ox team from St. Louis, Missouri, in 1845 and settled in Zena, Polk county, in 1847.

February 12, 1896, she was united in marriage to Samuel H. Barker to which union one son, Roy E. Barker, was born.

She is survived by her husband and son, at Zena, two brothers, Charles Phillips, Spokane Bridge, Wash., and Samuel Phillips, Kluckner, one sister, Cornelia Kluckner, Portland, and one grandson.

She was a member of the First Presbyterian church at Salem and a charter member of the Zena missionary society.

Favorite Hymn Sung
After prayer and scripture reading by Reverend Kantner, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Scott sang, "The Church in the Wildwood," which was one of Mrs. Barker's favorite hymns. A very touching tribute was paid the departed by the Zena school children, who had all at one time been members of her Sunday school class, when they sang, "Jesus Loves Me," the song she taught them before church and Sunday school services were discontinued at Zena.

Neighbor Pays Tribute
Reverend Kantner read this tribute, from a friend and neighbor, Ralph C. Shepard, which fully expresses the thoughts of her many friends: "Mrs. Barker occupied a unique place in her community. Her life united in an unusual manner the span between the pioneer and present periods. Born in this family of pioneers, she grew up in the atmosphere of the new country and retained this pioneer spirit until the last. But

CIVIL WAR PAPER SEEN AT KLAMATH

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Jan. 8.—(AP)—A newspaper printed on wall paper by the confederates in Vicksburg, July 2, 1863, the day before the town fell into the hands of the northern army under General Grant, has come into the possession of Dr. A. M. Simmons' mother since it was printed. It bore the name of "The Citizen" and its sentiments were strongly southern.

Before the last issue of that July 2 were distributed the town fell and a short footnote was added by Union soldiers which reads: "Two days bring about great changes. The banner of the Union floats over Vicksburg. General Grant has 'caught the rabbit'; he has dined in Vicksburg and he did bring his dinner with him. This is the last wall paper edition and is, excepting this note, from the types as we found them. It will be valuable hereafter as a curiosity."

Cloverdale Has Much Sickness
CLOVERDALE, Jan. 8—Ivan Hadley is sick. He attended the S. S. foot-note was added by Union soldiers which reads: "Two days bring about great changes. The banner of the Union floats over Vicksburg. General Grant has 'caught the rabbit'; he has dined in Vicksburg and he did bring his dinner with him. This is the last wall paper edition and is, excepting this note, from the types as we found them. It will be valuable hereafter as a curiosity."

Miss Mildred Schifferer went to Salem Sunday. She entered the Capital Business college Monday.

Sickness, bad colds, fever and chills and bad coughs prevail, nearly every family having a case or so in their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Booth entertained friends from Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Hazel Morris spent Sunday afternoon in Aumsville with her father, Mr. Brinkman.

A light fall of snow came yesterday, covering the ground a good part of the day.
