Here is an interesting side bit about four-year old Wheeler member of "Our Gang." By the way you may see "Our Gang" at the Fox Broadway today.

Although Wheeler, the little hero of "Our Gang," is still too young to be burdened with the three R's, he has to learn to say words in Spanish and French. Hal Roach has decided to make all his comedies for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer with Spanish and French versions, and all his actors are poring over the foreign language grammars these days.

Of course, Wheeler doesn't know yet what grammar means, but he is learning to say "Hey, Mary Ann" and "Where you going, Parina?" in French and Spanish. The foreign language teachers say that Our Gang is learning the new tongues more rapidly than the adult actors.

The Frazier players are presenting "Uncle's Dilemma" tonight at the Grand. Their production last week was outstanding and they have an equal opportunity in the amusing comedy which they have chosen for this week. With this is the all-talking picture "The Night Parade."

Styles that make the feminine heart yearn and the masculine heart shimmer are shown with grace and beauty by Greta Garbo in "The Kiss." And remember when you are watching Miss Garbo that she is a home-loving individual when she is not acting for the public. "Pleasure," says she, "is not so much what you do as where you find it."

Next Saturday there will be another big Mickey Mouse show for all the Mickey Mouse members.

The feature will be Joan Crawford's first all talking picture, "Untamed" also Fanchon Marco's "Let's Pretend" Idea. The Mickey Mouse cartoon Saturday will be "Galloping Gauchos" and the first chapter of "The Adventures of Tarzan" will be shown. There will be ten chapters of Tarzan's adventures—one each Saturday for the Mickey Mice member's hour only.

Joyce Chambers from the Barbara Barnes School of Professional Dancing will also entertain with a tap novelty.

Chief Mickey Mouse Dow announced that members will be admitted free next Saturday if they bring one of their friends that is not a member of the Mickey Mouse club. Those who are not members may go to any of the Mickey Mouse Club boosters to get their membership blanks. The boosters are Doolittle's Service Station, Buster Brown Shoe Store, Bishop's, Tower's Jewelry Store, Midget Market, Imperial Furniture Store, Miller's Department Store and Alex Jones Men's shop in the Senator Hotel Building.

Last Saturday little Marjorie Weums gave us a very pretty song and acrobatic dance number—she is from Miss Barnes' dancing school. There was quite a change in the officers last week. Those receptives found moulds for counterfeiting half dollars in his possession. They said this might be the source of a flood of counterfeit coins which has been sought by federal agents for several months.

OKMULGEE, Okla., Jan. 9.—
(AP)—Warned by the creaking of timbers, 300 persons attending a midwinter revival in a frame tabernacle here tonight, fled from the building just before the roof, weighed down by tons of snow and sleet, crashed in.

LONDON. — (AP) — Entries from 45 countries, ranging from Japan to the United States, have been received for the poultry exhibit to be held in the Crystal Palace next summer. About 1,000 American birds will be shown.
