

Salem Throws Scare Into Rooks but Loses by 21-17 Count

LOCALS AHEAD AT HALF TIME

Red-Black Hoopers Fight Yearlings Off Feet in Early Periods

The Oregon State basketball team defeated the Salem high quintet 21 to 17 Friday night on Salem high's floor, but the all-State players gathered from all corners of the state were given a grand scare before they finally pulled into the lead.

Salem high's scrappy little players, looking looking much like pygmies alongside the Rook behemoths, fought the visitors off their feet throughout the first half and led all the way. At one time Salem was leading 12 to 5.

Near the end of the half big Ed Lewis, ex-Washington high star, loomed up above the crowd and tossed a couple of his trick shots and the half ended 12 to 9.

Second Half Playing Becomes Ragged The second half was featured by fierce but ragged playing on both sides, with Rust and Mason deciding the game for the Rooks with accurate long shots.

The playing of Kitchen and Graber was the outstanding feature of Salem's showing, which incidentally proved that the red and black will be, before many more games are played, as strong as it has ever been in the past.

Kitchen and Graber Outplay Opponents Kitchen fooled the hulking visitors completely with his shifty tactics in scoring territory, and Graber outplayed his famous opponent a good share of the time, even taking the lipoff from the giant Lewis occasionally.

Summary: Salem (17) FG FT PF Kitchen, F.....4 1 2 Bone, F.....1 1 1 Graber, C.....1 0 2 Sanford, G.....1 1 0 Sachtler, G.....0 0 0 Foreman, S.....0 0 0 Totals.....7 2 5

Rooks (21) FG FT PF Ward, F.....0 1 2 Hoffman, F.....0 0 0 Lewis, C.....3 1 4 MacDonald, G.....0 0 4 Lowe, S.....1 0 3 Mason, S.....3 0 2 Rust, S.....2 0 0 Briggs, S.....0 1 0 Totals.....9 3 15 Referee: Ellis.

FULOPS BOWLERS REMAIN IN FRONT The Fulops quintet retained the lead in the Statesman bowling league Friday night by taking three games from Day and Niles.

Table with columns: DAY AND NILES, M. Poulis, M. Riggs, J. Newton, E. Hemenway, L. Hemenway, Scores were: Total, 731 720 664 2117

Table with columns: FULOPS, Eisenbrandt, Goetz, Trotter, Rithe, Scores were: Total, 761 775 797 2736

Table with columns: CENTRAL PHARMACY, Simpson, Bradley, Miller, W. Chise, Schmidl, Scores were: Total, 704 705 795 2204

Table with columns: OLDSMOBILE VIKINGS, Ruge, Evans, Batt, Wood, Shields, Scores were: Total, 708 836 765 2309

Table with columns: SUNFIRE, Rasch, Rambo, Miller, McMillan, Witche, Scores were: Total, 633 718 706 2062

Table with columns: CARSON PHARMACY, Atkins, Payne, Anderson, T. M. Barr, J. Riggs, Scores were: Total, 734 787 678 2199

CHIEFS TO CLASH WITH W. U. ROOKS CHEMAWA, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Chemawa Indians will play their fourth basketball game of the season here Saturday night against the Willamette freshmen.

In the games played thus far Chemawa has showed promise of being a speedy and accurate shooting team. The first game was against Anderson's Sporting Goods, and the Redskins surprised everybody by winning. In the next contest Chemawa was nearly surprised into defeat at the hands of the lanky and aggressive Silverton hoopers.

Sock, Clown, Sock!

By HARDIN BURNLEY

"The Great" SHIRES PUGNACIOUS BASEBALL STAR WHO HAS FOUND THE GOING RATHER ROUGH IN THE PRO RING!

JOIE RAY WAS GOING TO LEAVE THE TRACK FOR THE FIGHT GAME--A 'GYM' WORKOUT CURED HIM!

FOOTBALL PLAYERS HAVEN'T BEEN MUCH AS PUGS EITHER--MONTGOMERY, TINY ROEBUCK, ETC. WERE AWFUL BUSTS!

THE SPORT BUG.

Organized baseball and induced to commercialize his fistic talents. Well, he got to first base, perhaps, when he knocked out one Dan Daly, in the initial minute of "King Arthur's" professional ring career.

Shires shouted for Tunney but (after listening to a monologue of the retired champion) he agreed to slug it out with George Trafton, a professional mameoth. In less than six minutes, both these green bruisers were exhausted.

Uzucudun Wallops Otto Von Porat

DECISION WON BY SPANIARD

Ancient Wood Chopper Here From Behind to Out-point Rival

By EDWARD J. NEIL Associated Press Sports Writer MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Fighting back fiercely from the valley of the deep fog, the ancient wood chopper from Spain, grim Paulino Uzucudun, carved a few chunks from the middle of lanky Otto Von Porat tonight and won a fight after 16,000 of the faithful were ready to start singing the old bear's swan song.

For three rounds, the tall lantern-jawed schoolmaster from Norway poured right hand volleys into the Spaniard's head until the glaring lights above must have been swimming in a sea of fireworks. Volley after volley crashed into the rock ribbed chin of the Spaniard. One long right hand after another sank deep in his body.

Then with his countrymen at the inside shouting viva's and a dozen bells clanging in his ears, this game old rock of the Pyrenees started to fight. He walked straight into Von Porat's cool, raking drives, shook his head and slashed at Otto's body, until the big Norwegian faltered and the tide turned.

From the end of the third round on when the boys in the derbies were wagering he would not go another round, Paulino won all there was to the fight with the exception of the fourth session. That was even and, though the Spaniard's margin in several other rounds was but little, still he never did quit showing that Von Porat is one man he can whip.

It was hardly an exciting battle from the start, and the chief interest of the customers was in Paulino's unsurpassed gameness. He slung leather eternally at Von Porat's head and body from close range, locking his thick skull alongside the Norwegian's until the gallery folks whistled for help and more action, but that style of milling turned the trick.

COUGARS NOSE OUT WEBFOOT QUINTET EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—Washington State college defeated the University of Oregon 32 to 30 in a Pacific coast conference basketball game on McArthur court here tonight.

Oregon unleashed a brilliant spurt in the closing minutes of the game but fell short of meeting Washington State's lead by a single basket. Oregon took the lead only once during the contest.

The Webfoet started the second period on the short end of an 18 to 17 score, but Washington, with Gene Endsow as its key man, quickly ran the score up to 32 to 19. With but a few minutes to go, Oregon diminished the Cougar lead to two points.

Table with columns: Washington St. (32) G F PF, Holsten, F.....2 3 0, Carlson, F.....2 0 0, Edslow, C.....6 0 2, McFarney, G.....1 1 2, Van Tuyl, G.....3 0 3, Totals.....14 7 7

Table with columns: Oregon (30) G F PF, Dolp, F.....1 2 0, Higgs, F.....0 1 0, Calkins, F.....1 0 0, Bell, F.....1 0 0, Eberhart, C.....2 2 3, Fletcher, C.....0 0 1, Homer, G.....0 1 0, Olinger, G.....1 0 1, Levoff, G.....1 0 0, Kennan, G.....1 0 0, Totals.....12 6 6

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE CAGERS WIN THREE GAMES AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

Table with columns: AUMSVILLE, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Aumsville football team has made a good start for the 1930 season, having played five games and won three.

DENVER YOUTH BEST GOLFER

Johnny Rogers Gets Lowest Score in First Round Of Tournament

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND Associated Press Sports Writer RIVIERA COUNTRY CLUB, Los Angeles, Jan. 10.—(AP)—Crouched behind a bulwark of soddy fairways, distastefully sordid greens and wind gusts that darted in and out of this canyon course, old man Par resisted all but one attack on his stronghold today in the first round of the annual 72-hole $10,000 Los Angeles open golf championship.

To a rank outsider—Johnny Rogers of Denver—went the honors today of turning in a sub-par card of 70, one under standard figures, while each and every luminaer of American golf now on the ground was forced to be content with scores reaching amazingly high totals.

Big Guns of Goldom Are Put in Shade Rogers, unsung and unnoticed, clubbed his way down a course made doubly difficult through unusual weather conditions. He conquered Riviera with an outgoing nine of 34, one under par, and rode home on the crest of a wave of pars that brought cheers from the spectators waiting at the 15th green.

The Denver entrant's feat silenced the thunder of big guns of golf. His nearest rivals, Al Espinosa of Chicago and Charley Seaver, 18-year-old amateur of Los Angeles, chalked up 72s. Seaver's accomplishment was remarkable—Espinosa's expected. Each turned in 36s for the two nines.

Trapped by the trickery of the elements and dead greens, Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo., young pro sensation; Leo Diegel of Agua Caliente, P. G. A. champion, and Denny Shute of Columbus, Ohio, worked their way around the course in 73 strokes each.

MacDonald Smith, winner of this event for the last two years and a favorite to repeat, faltered in his putting game and took a 39-38-77. Far behind, Walter Hagen of Detroit soared up to an 81. "The Hair" holder at various times of every important title in the world, cracked wide open for a 41-40, to practically eliminate himself from the important money. Both his long and short games were off.

Former national open titleholder, Tommy Armour of Detroit and Johnny Farrell of St. Augustine, Fla., had first rounds of 34, 40-74 and 38, 38-76. Armour's outgoing nine was one under par, but his game went to pieces coming in. Two other veteran campaigners, Bobby Cruickshank of New York and Abe Espinosa of Chicago, finished the first day in the 74 class.

CANNERS ARE BEATEN FOR FIRST TIME The Anderson's Sporting Goods quintet handed the Northwest Cannery its first defeat of the Industrial league basketball season Friday night, winning 24 to 15.

This puts these two teams in a tie for first place in the league. The Anderson's played consistent basketball with no one outstanding, although Ward was high point man with 11 counters. In the second and third periods the erstwhile undefeated cannerymen got only two points to the quarter.

Table with columns: Northwest Cannery 35 to 9, Perrine, (2).....F.....(6) Nash Hageman (3).....F.....4 Schwabauer Flake (6).....C.....(4) Marr Ward (11).....C.....(6) Ecker Kleinke (2).....G.....(1) Riches

NATIONAL GUARD Hunt's Wright (10).....F.....(13) Sheppard Herberger (12).....F.....(7) Kitcher Gleason (4).....C.....(8) George Ingham (4).....G.....(7) Winger Steinke (2).....G.....(1) Carpenter Coffey (1).....S.....Sleaser

WOODBURN QUINTET BEATS M'MINNVILLE WOODBURN, Jan. 10.—(Special)—The Woodburn high school basketball quintet defeated McMinnville 20 to 12 in a one sided hoop game on the local floor tonight. Nehi and L. Scholer were the outstanding stars of the Bulldog aggregation. Scholer annexing an even dozen points to take high scoring honors. Burdett, McMinnville center, starred for the victors.

Table with columns: McMinnville, Nehi, Anderson, Baldwin, Black, L. Scholer, Burdett, Oberst, A. Scholer, Gearn, Referee: Leslie Sparks

HUSKIES WIN OVER GONZAGA 24 TO 22 SPOKANE, Jan. 10.—(AP)—The University of Washington basketball team nosed out the Gonzaga Bulldogs, 24 to 22, in a sensational non-conference game here tonight. The score at half time was tied at 11 all.

KILEEN FIGHTS SPUD MURPHY Hubbard Lad to Oppose Independence Scrapper on Wednesday Night Assurance of a real slam-bang main event for next Wednesday night's fight card at the armory was given by Matchmaker Harry Plant Friday when he announced that the principals would be Spud Murphy of Hubbard and Terry Kileen of Independence.

The potato-shaped boy from Hubbard has, somehow or other, improved a lot since his last appearance here, which was something over a year ago. Not that Spud wasn't good enough to suit anybody at that time. He won from Pat Dundee and some others who had big reputations.

But along about that time Spud took two defeats at the hands of Joe Blackwell, and it was only a few weeks ago that he won a technical knockout over that same fighter at Hubbard, after dropping Blackwell to the canvas three times.

CURT COMMENTS

That DeNeffes-Willamette game convinced us that there is something to this idea, freely advanced recently with respect to professional coaching, that athletes will use their heads better if they do their own coaching.

Of course Frank Reinhart is supposed to be the DeNeffes coach, but the players know the game as well as he does, and pretty largely they work things out for themselves. At least, he hasn't the control over them that a varsity coach would.

Anybody who saw that game must have been impressed by the manner in which the ex-college stars did diagnose situations and take advantage of them. If they got winded, they frankly stalled. No college player would do that, because he'd be afraid of being benched.

You have to remember, though, that these boys were mostly three year varsity players who had worlds of experience behind them. And one was Gordon Ridings, who has always been a great field general—or floor general, if you like that better. His cool headness saved Oregon's scalp in the Webfoots' game with Willamette last year.

And another was Milligan, who, in addition to being a strategist, is about the funniest thing that ever walked on a basketball floor. He ought to be good in the talkies.

"You're a dirty player," Milligan said accusingly to Clark when the latter was benched on personals. And occasionally when he thought Referee Coleman had missed something, he would call out "Oh, Coley," in a voice full of comic reproach.

Speaking of officials, we found just one of them handling Salem high's game with the Rooks Friday night, and doing a fairly unsatisfactory job of it.

For one thing the referee was a Salem high graduate, and that doesn't set well with visiting teams. It ought to be possible to eliminate any condition which will permit visiting teams to go away unsatisfied, or any perpetuation of the old complaint that "You can't get a square deal in Salem." For that is just what has been said, and repeated, in the past.

Visiting teams should select the official—or if there are two, as we have advocated repeatedly, they should select one of them. And no one who has attended either of the schools whose teams are competing, should be considered for the job.

Now that's off our chest, permit us to hand an enormous bouquet to Hollis Huntington's hard fighting, snappy heads-up playing little quintet. We have never seen anything like it for an inexperienced team built up in one season. We knew it was good before Friday lights game, but even then we were surprised at the battle it gave those gangling Rooks.

FIGHT POSTPONED MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 10.—(AP)—The lightweight fight between Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion and Manuel Quintero, Cuban cavalier, was called off before the first preliminary bout tonight on account of inclement weather.

OUR OWN Egg Mash A well balanced egg mash at a moderate price. Made from the best grades of ground grains, concentrates and mill feeds.

Our Special Egg Mash This is the same mash as above with the addition of Cod Liver Oil and Dried Milk and is the best egg producer sold on this market.

Economy Dairy Feed This feed is moderately priced and is giving good satisfaction. It is a good milk producer and stock like it.

Free delivery in city limits D. A. WHITE & SONS Phone 160, 261 State St.

Let-- Kennell-Ellis Make Your Cuts, Engravings or Half Tones

SEE US ABOUT REDUCED PRICES We Can Save You Money

KENNEL-ELLIS Artist Photographers 429 Oregon Building Telephone 951

Settlement Is Effected With Coach

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—A satisfactory settlement between Captain John J. McEwan, resigned head football coach of the University of Oregon, and the associated students, was announced today by Tom Stoddard, president and executive council chairman of the student organization.

The council, which approved negotiations carried on by Jack W. Benefiel, university graduate manager, settled with Captain McEwan for $6,250 cash for the remainder of his unexpired contract. His contract continues until January, 1931.

Although Captain McEwan could not be reached for a statement, it was understood the settlement was satisfactory to him. His future plans remain undetermined.

During the mid-season the coach announced he would not be a candidate for re-election when his contract expired at the conclusion of the 1930 football season. Acting in the interests of future athletic policies, the executive council of associated students deemed it advisable to ask Coach McEwan's immediate termination of his contract.

The settlement with McEwan withdrew the last obstacle toward employment of a new coach at the university. A meeting yesterday was held to fix a date on which selection of a new mentor would be made, but no official action was taken.

Eighty-nine names were submitted in the "Salem Name" contest which ended at the senior high school yesterday, and because so many good names were suggested, the committee will hold a further session Monday morning to narrow the field to the three names upon which the student body is to vote next week.

Such names as Wolves, Black Legion, Black Bears, Grizzlies, Bruins, Senators, Eagles and Capitals were included in those suggested. A standard high school ring, which will be designed by a

Settlement Is Effected With Coach

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—A satisfactory settlement between Captain John J. McEwan, resigned head football coach of the University of Oregon, and the associated students, was announced today by Tom Stoddard, president and executive council chairman of the student organization.

The council, which approved negotiations carried on by Jack W. Benefiel, university graduate manager, settled with Captain McEwan for $6,250 cash for the remainder of his unexpired contract. His contract continues until January, 1931.

Although Captain McEwan could not be reached for a statement, it was understood the settlement was satisfactory to him. His future plans remain undetermined.

During the mid-season the coach announced he would not be a candidate for re-election when his contract expired at the conclusion of the 1930 football season. Acting in the interests of future athletic policies, the executive council of associated students deemed it advisable to ask Coach McEwan's immediate termination of his contract.

The settlement with McEwan withdrew the last obstacle toward employment of a new coach at the university. A meeting yesterday was held to fix a date on which selection of a new mentor would be made, but no official action was taken.

Eighty-nine names were submitted in the "Salem Name" contest which ended at the senior high school yesterday, and because so many good names were suggested, the committee will hold a further session Monday morning to narrow the field to the three names upon which the student body is to vote next week.

Such names as Wolves, Black Legion, Black Bears, Grizzlies, Bruins, Senators, Eagles and Capitals were included in those suggested. A standard high school ring, which will be designed by a

Settlement Is Effected With Coach

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—A satisfactory settlement between Captain John J. McEwan, resigned head football coach of the University of Oregon, and the associated students, was announced today by Tom Stoddard, president and executive council chairman of the student organization.

The council, which approved negotiations carried on by Jack W. Benefiel, university graduate manager, settled with Captain McEwan for $6,250 cash for the remainder of his unexpired contract. His contract continues until January, 1931.

Although Captain McEwan could not be reached for a statement, it was understood the settlement was satisfactory to him. His future plans remain undetermined.

During the mid-season the coach announced he would not be a candidate for re-election when his contract expired at the conclusion of the 1930 football season. Acting in the interests of future athletic policies, the executive council of associated students deemed it advisable to ask Coach McEwan's immediate termination of his contract.

The settlement with McEwan withdrew the last obstacle toward employment of a new coach at the university. A meeting yesterday was held to fix a date on which selection of a new mentor would be made, but no official action was taken.

Eighty-nine names were submitted in the "Salem Name" contest which ended at the senior high school yesterday, and because so many good names were suggested, the committee will hold a further session Monday morning to narrow the field to the three names upon which the student body is to vote next week.

Such names as Wolves, Black Legion, Black Bears, Grizzlies, Bruins, Senators, Eagles and Capitals were included in those suggested. A standard high school ring, which will be designed by a

Settlement Is Effected With Coach

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—A satisfactory settlement between Captain John J. McEwan, resigned head football coach of the University of Oregon, and the associated students, was announced today by Tom Stoddard, president and executive council chairman of the student organization.

The council, which approved negotiations carried on by Jack W. Benefiel, university graduate manager, settled with Captain McEwan for $6,250 cash for the remainder of his unexpired contract. His contract continues until January, 1931.

Although Captain McEwan could not be reached for a statement, it was understood the settlement was satisfactory to him. His future plans remain undetermined.

During the mid-season the coach announced he would not be a candidate for re-election when his contract expired at the conclusion of the 1930 football season. Acting in the interests of future athletic policies, the executive council of associated students deemed it advisable to ask Coach McEwan's immediate termination of his contract.

The settlement with McEwan withdrew the last obstacle toward employment of a new coach at the university. A meeting yesterday was held to fix a date on which selection of a new mentor would be made, but no official action was taken.

Eighty-nine names were submitted in the "Salem Name" contest which ended at the senior high school yesterday, and because so many good names were suggested, the committee will hold a further session Monday morning to narrow the field to the three names upon which the student body is to vote next week.

Such names as Wolves, Black Legion, Black Bears, Grizzlies, Bruins, Senators, Eagles and Capitals were included in those suggested. A standard high school ring, which will be designed by a

Settlement Is Effected With Coach

EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 10.—(AP)—A satisfactory settlement between Captain John J. McEwan, resigned head football coach of the University of Oregon, and the associated students, was announced today by Tom Stoddard, president and executive council chairman of the student organization.

The council, which approved negotiations carried on by Jack W. Benefiel, university graduate manager, settled with Captain McEwan for $6,250 cash for the remainder of his unexpired contract. His contract continues until January, 1931.

Although Captain McEwan could not be reached for a statement, it was understood the settlement was satisfactory to him. His future plans remain undetermined.

During the mid-season the coach announced he would not be a candidate for re-election when his contract expired at the conclusion of the 1930 football season. Acting in the interests of future athletic policies, the executive council of associated students deemed it advisable to ask Coach McEwan's immediate termination of his contract.

The settlement with McEwan withdrew the last obstacle toward employment of a new coach at the university. A meeting yesterday was held to fix a date on which selection of a new mentor would be made, but no official action was taken.

Eighty-nine names were submitted in the "Salem Name" contest which ended at the senior high school yesterday, and because so many good names were suggested, the committee will hold a further session Monday morning to narrow the field to the three names upon which the student body is to vote next week.

Such names as Wolves, Black Legion, Black Bears, Grizzlies, Bruins, Senators, Eagles and Capitals were included in those suggested. A standard high school ring, which will be designed by a