Youth Conference Speaker May be Heard; Also Cadman and Capper

Dr. Frederick Norwood of London, will be the guest speaker for the National Youth conference program broadcast over the NBC network from 12 to 1 p. m. today. During the Cathedral Hour to follow Dr. S. Parkes Cadman will preach on "The Value of Time."

Over KOMO, KGO and KPO the Sunday concert will be heard from 2:30 to 3:30 p. m., with an orchestra playing compositions from Von Flotow, Herbert, Baron, Saint-Saens, Lively and Logan. Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas will speak during the Collier hour from 5:15 to 6:15 and may be heard over KGW.

Metropolitan Opera Singer to Sing

In the concert hour from 6:15 to 7:15 Beniamino Gigli, Metropolitan opera tenor, will sing. Gigli is reputed to be one of the great tenors of the age. Since his debut in Rovigo, Italy, he has enjoyed a series of triumphs in Italy, France, Spain and the U. S. Popular songs both new and old may be heard in the various concert programs which will be presented later in the evening. From 10 to 11 classical music will be played by an orchestra, one number being Gane's "La Carolina."

PLANS FOR BANKERS MEETING LAUNCHED

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 11.—(AP)—Plans for a conference of bankers from six Pacific northwest states to be held here March 5 and 6 were discussed here today at a meeting of the general committee of arrangements. John N. Edliefsen, vice president of the West Coast National bank, of this city, who is general chairman of the committee on arrangements, will preside at the coming conference.

Two conferences similar to that to be held here in March, the Mississippi valley conference held in Chicago last March and the tri-state conference at Minneapolis last November, were discussed at the committee meeting today. They drew enthusiastic comment from bankers who attended.

Originally intended as a meeting of bankers of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, the coming conference aroused such widespread interest that Montana, Utah and Wyoming agreed to participate.

Amity

AMITY, Jan. 11.—At the neighbors of Woodcraft which met on Monday evening, Mrs. Gertrude Richter acted as the installing officer. She was presented a lovely set of book-ends in appreciation of her work.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Craven visited in Portland on Tuesday.

Roy Allen is now working in Salem as a solicitor for a laundry.

Don Woodman is home on a vacation and is making good use of the time by making some improvements on his father's place.

J. R. Cronk is still confined to his home due to illness.

Mrs. Helen Larson and her daughter were visitors one day the later part of last week in McMinnville.

C. T. Gardner, of Juneau, Alaska, is visiting here at the E. O. Morse home. He is vice president of the largest mill at that city. Mr. Gardner has some tracts on Eola Walnut Groves and is very much interested in them.

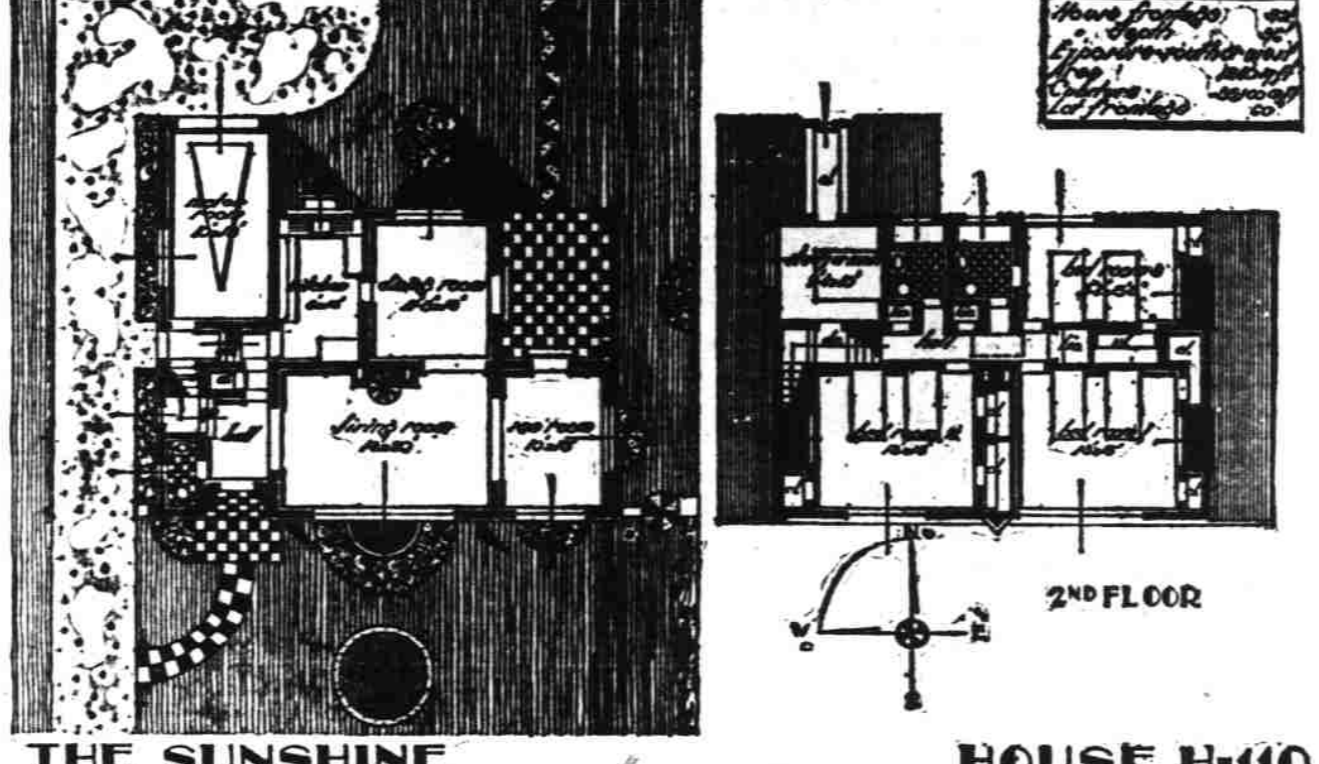

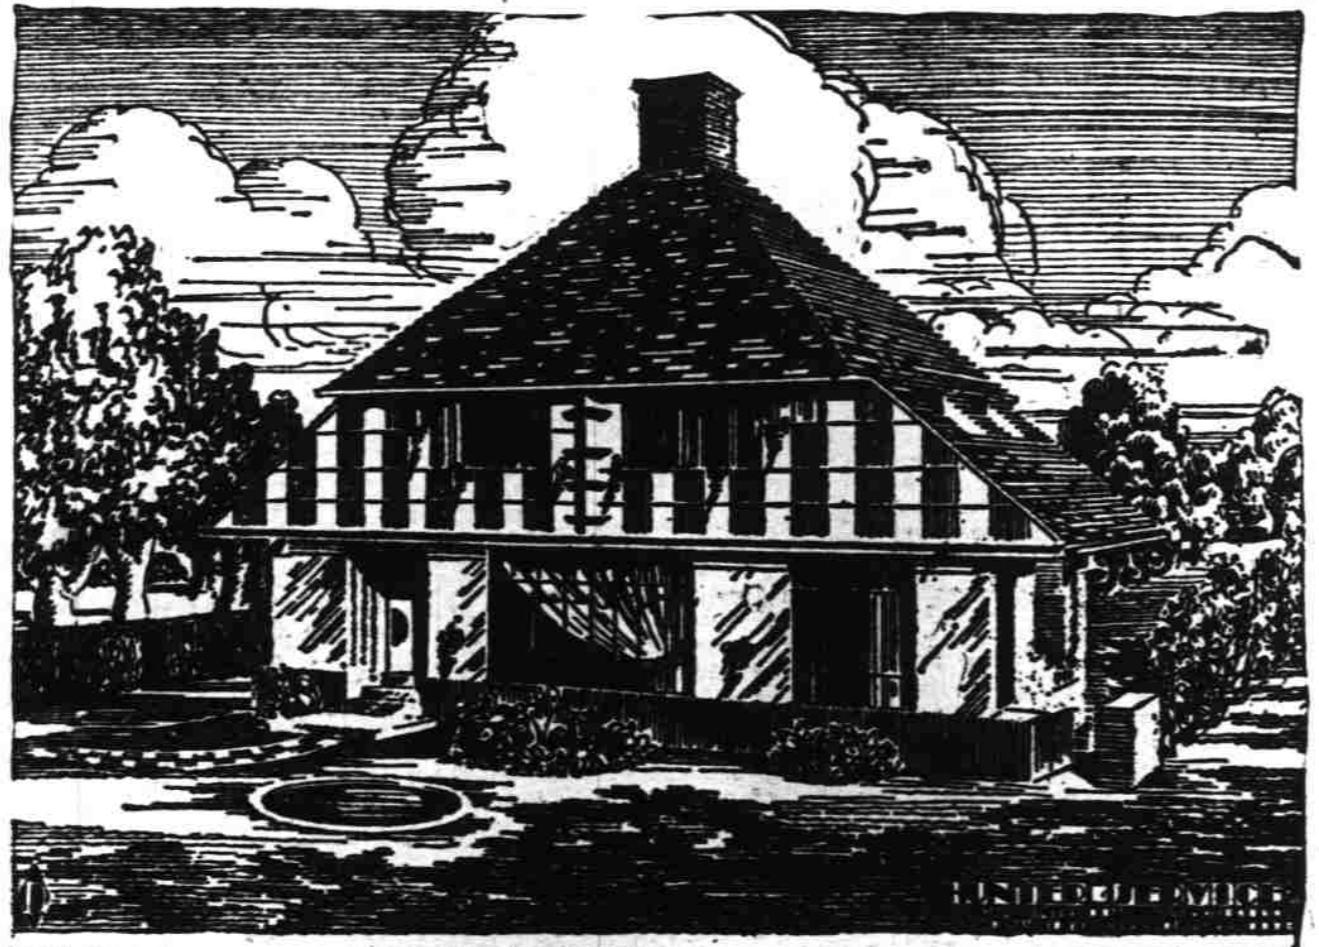

Lewis and Adrian Cave of Cottage Grove, spent several days here with relatives.

After spending some time here with her daughter, Mrs. L. McCarty, Mrs. Hitching returned to her home in Seattle on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hartman of Carlton spent one day this week at the J. R. Snodgrass home.

Miss Florence Snodgrass, a senior in the Amity high school, editor of the Octopus and school librarian, who was in a quite severe wreck on New Year's eve, is getting along as well as can be expected.

Kirkwood plans to return to her home in Seattle early next week. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Jennings of Portland visited this week with Mr. Jennings' mother, Mrs. Mary Jennings, and with his sister, Mrs. Seymour Wilson and family.

Zena
ZENA, Jan. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Fredericks moved to the A. M. Patrick farm at Zena from their home in Washington just before the Christmas holidays. There are eight children in the Fredericks' family, five of whom reside here with their parents. Twin daughters, Dorothy and Doris are enrolled at the Zena school. Mr. and Mrs. Barnes and Mr. and Mrs. Denham and children, Mildred, Clifford and Ralph who came here from Oklahoma City, Oklahoma about two years ago have moved to farms east of Salem. Friends of Mrs. E. C. Higgins of Zena will be glad to know that she is on the road to recovery. Mrs. Higgins became ill New Year's day. Wayne D. Henry and son Kenneth Henry accompanied by Frank Crawford, Jr., all of Zena attended the basketball game between the Demetts of Eugene and the Willamette university at the university gymnasium at Salem Thursday night. EUGENE, Ore., Jan. 11.—(AP)—Waiting prospects at the University of Oregon for 1930 are unusually bright.
