Woman's Club Hears Miss Covington

MISS Maude Covington, city librarian spoke on the subject of "Oregon Books and Writers" before a large audience at the Woman's clubhouse Saturday afternoon following a club board meeting at 2:30 o'clock.

Miss Covington spoke of the numerous Oregon writers in such intimate and interesting manner, naming no less than a dozen outstanding authors that her audience was deeply impressed with the value of the talent which the state harbors.

To add a bit of gaiety to the program hour Miss Aldeane Smith accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Rich sang two delightful numbers.

Two regular features which the club has enjoyed this year—the picture study, given this Saturday by Mrs. Clifton Mudd, and the reading of Western poetry was given in addition to the special Saturday program.

Mrs. Mudd spoke particularly of four paintings from the Dutch school—"Laughing Cavalier," "Howe," "Portrait of an Artist," "Elizabeth Ban" both by Rembrandt; and "Dutch Interior," Vermeer.

These pictures were prints from the picture library which the club is collecting. Due to the resignation of Mrs. Roy Burton, formerly head of the picture library committee, Mrs. C. F. Turner was appointed to take this place.

The poem for the day was read by Mrs. Ora McIntyre, chairman of the literature division. She chose illustrations of poems from India, Persia, and Japan.

During the business session two new names were announced to membership in the club, Miss Lullia Baker and Mrs. Howard Blake.

Letters of appreciation were read from the various state institutions which have been remembered by the Woman's club either as a whole or through its committees during the year and especially during the holidays. Mrs. C. E. Strickland, secretary of the institutions department, read the report.

Mrs. G. L. Forge reported on special work done in providing necessary clothes for a few children in two of the state institution schools. A box is being fitted for the Woman's clubhouse into which donations may be placed.

Mrs. Fannie Brown Tibbets announced a new project of the American Homes department in giving programs for the Old People's home and otherwise being of service to them. Mrs. Tibbets also announced that Mrs. Frank Boyer had assumed chairmanship of the W. C. T. U. Farm Home committee.

Excellent Program Is McDowell Club Offering

THE program which the McDowell club is sponsoring for January 23 has promise of being a delightful evening.

Ethel Marie Gaw, coloratura soprano, and Forrest William Gaw, baritone, have charge of the program. Mr. Gaw is a member of the department of music in Willamette university.

Mrs. Gaw will sing an aria and coloratura group and Mr. Gaw will sing selections from Elliland, a song cycle from Von Flitz, and a group of modern Italian works.

The guest artist is Christian Pool, of Portland, member of the Portland symphony, and cellist of prominence. His work will represent a group from Poppet.

Miss Edith Findley will be the accompanist for this exceedingly difficult program. Members of the Beethoven society will usher.

The program will be given at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of Walter hall on university campus.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Sheets are receiving congratulations upon the birth of a daughter Saturday. The young lady has been named Mildred Irene. Mother and daughter are now at the Maturity home, North 4th street.
