

Woodburn Cooperative Growers Hold Annual Meeting

FRUIT GROWERS HAVE MEETING

Woodburn Co-operative Association Concludes 8 Years of Work

WOODBURN, Jan. 13.—The Woodburn Fruit Growers' Cooperative association held their 8th annual meeting in the high school auditorium Saturday and had an all day session with a dinner at noon.

A business meeting was held in the morning at which the retiring directors, S. F. Scollard and W. J. Wilson were re-elected. The hold overs were John Ramage, president; H. F. Butterfield, vice president; Ray Glatt, secretary-manager; Joe Nibler, and V. L. Cannon. Officers to be elected at a meeting of the board of directors which will be held either Wednesday or Thursday.

An interesting report of the past year was revealed at the meeting and showed that from 15 acres of gooseberries controlled by the association, 70,924 pounds of berries were raised. From 219 acres of Marshall strawberries, 411,877 pounds were grown. Two hundred and seventy-five acres of Etterberg strawberries yielded 590,789 pounds of fruit while the raspberry grown on 33 acres produced 75,385 pounds. There were only 5 acres of black caps grown but this small acreage yielded 10,649 pounds. Loganberries are grown quite extensively, 228 acres being given over to them and yielding $38,797 pounds of fruit. Evergreen blackberries were grown on 155 acres and yielded 931,098 pounds.

Cherry Crop Good

Berries are not the only fruit grown, 16,024 pounds of Royal Ann cherries, 611 pounds of Governor Wood cherries, 2,051 pounds of Red sour cherries and also 55 tons of wild blackberries were handled by the association. The organization is also on its feet financially, there being a balance of $3,590.68 in the general fund and $9,834 in the revolving fund.

Dinner is Served

At noon a bountiful dinner was served in the high school cafeteria under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Guise, head of the home economics department. Monarch coffee was served through the courtesy of the Reed-Murdock company of Salem. Deliciously baked 'pigs in blankets' were donated by the Fisher's Flouring mills of Seattle and choice cans of loganberries were served by the Ray-Brown cannery.

During the noon hour a five-piece orchestra from the high school under the direction of P. E. Rohner entertained the people.

The afternoon session, under the direction of Ray Glatt, opened with a humorous yet inspiring talk by Charles Powers of Seattle. Miss Fern Wadsworth accompanied on the piano by Miss Ruth Holt, sang a group of numbers: "Can't You Hear Me Call in", "Blue Ridge Mountain Home" and "Old Folks at Home." A clever tap dance was contributed by Miss Delta Mae Hunt. Miss Elizabeth Miller playing the accompaniment. Miss Roberta Morton of Salem played a group of several numbers on the piano accordion.

The principal speaker of the evening was C. E. Gates of Medford who delivered an excellent talk, the theme of which was cooperation. His talk brought out the part that organization makes for better selling success and illustrated his points by actual examples. In conclusion he mentioned several things about Oregon.

He said that Oregon with her diversified climate, crops, industries, mining, sports and nature lore should be more on the map of fame than she is. He said the whole trouble with the Oregonians was that a large percentage of them did not have faith in their state and were pessimistic to strangers who might want to settle within bounds of her territory. He gave comparison with Oregon's friendly rival, California, and showed how every Californian was enthusiastic about things they had in their state and brought out that Oregon has twice as much but that half of the people do not realize it.

He said that there was not so much need to boost Oregon but that the people needed to give the state a break and quit knocking and let people come into the state see in without the usual pessimistic remarks of native citizens making them prejudiced.

Ray-Brown Cannery Closes Successful Year of Work in Woodburn District

WOODBURN, January 13.—The Ray-Brown cannery which finishes the payroll for a large percent of Woodburn's population, in the city and in the rural districts surrounding it, has had an exceptionally successful season in 1929 as shown by the annual report made public by the superintendent, E. J. Hodke.

This organization has built up Woodburn in the past few years until it is recognized throughout the United States and foreign countries for the fruit produced here. The cannery begins operation in the latter part of May or the early part of June and continues operations until the middle of December and employs from 300 to 600 men and women.

During the past year the cannery has installed a 150 horse power Corliss steam engine, a steam ventilating system, new label and storage room and additional cafeteria equipment. Everything in the cannery is of the latest and model equipment and they are constantly on the watch to find new safety devices and more modern methods of handling the fruit.

Much of the success of this industry is due to the capable staff of executives which manage the affairs of the concern. Each member of the staff is a specially trained expert in his department and contributes to the smooth-running operation of the cannery. The superintendent is E. J. Hodke, assistant superintendent, H. C. Graves, office manager, B. Williford, accountant and timekeeper, N. D. Myers, foreman of preparation room, C. P. Zalsdorf,

Cold, frosty nights have been experienced during the week with a good many residents reporting frozen water pipes.

Raines and daughters, Meldon and Patricia, arrived home the first of the week from Portland where they had been since before the Christmas holidays, visiting Mrs. Raines' mother and sisters. Robert Goetz Honored for Seven Years of Excellent Work in Silverton Schools

Robert Goetz Honored 2 Col F.—SILVERTON, Jan. 13.—Robert Goetz, superintendent of Silverton schools was asked to sign another three year contract at the January meeting of the Silverton school board.

The school board feels very well satisfied with the work done by Mr. Goetz during his time here. He lays claim to being a full fledged Oregon product as he was graduated from Philomath college and from the University of Oregon.

Mr. Goetz came to Silverton seven years ago. During that time he has done much for the Silverton school system. Only 28 teachers were employed when Mr. Goetz came here. Now there are 41. He established the junior high school here and made a six period schedule in both the junior and senior high schools, also initiating the supervised study plan. He established the 13 month salary schedule for teachers, and put in operation a system of yearly physical examinations for teachers several months before any other schools in Oregon had conceived the plan.

Ability Groups Established.—For the past four years Mr. Goetz has made wherever possible, ability or homogeneous grouping of classes. He established an intensive testing program of both intelligence and achievement tests. A strong Smith-Hughes department has been established here since Mr. Goetz came. Mr. Goetz has for the past three years had teachers report at least three times a term to parents of pupils doing failure work. He has established several teacher's study groups for the purpose of giving teachers special training in the very latest methods of classroom instructions in their particular classes or courses. He has developed and put in effect in the primary rooms the very latest methods of teaching reading, based upon scientific investigations of Gray, Otis and others.

With the assistance of the janitors, Mr. Goetz has greatly improved the sanitary conditions of the local schools until they are ranked practically 100 per cent by sanitary inspectors. He has encouraged the beautification of the local school grounds so that at the present time Silverton is noted for having the most attractive school grounds to be found anywhere.

Scholarship Good.—These are only a few of the achievements credited to the work of Mr. Goetz during his stay here. The high standards of scholarship which has been maintained in the senior high school during his seven years here shows recently when out of the 38 girls that were honored at a dinner at Oregon State college because they had maintained a grade of A during their high school life, two were Silverton girls.

W. C. Pettijohn acted the part of the tramp. George Veall, Forest Edwards, Raymond Higgins and Dock Jungwirth were the other characters.

In the business meeting the president, George Veall announced that Division Number one under the leadership of S. C. THE SPIRIT OF YOUTH carry on—Avoid that future shadow

AVOID THAT FUTURE SHADOW*

By refraining from over-indulgence, if you would maintain the modern figure of fashion

Avoid the snags along the common-sense path to fitness and fashion. Don't let over-indulgence deprive you of the tantalizing contour of the modern figure. Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Eat healthfully but not immoderately—when your eyes are bigger than your stomach, reach for a Lucky instead. Coming events cast their shadows before. Avoid that future shadow by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain the graceful, modern figure with its captivating curves.

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Everyone knows that heat-purifies and so "TOASTING" not only removes impurities but adds to the flavor and improves the taste.

*Be Moderate!... Don't jeopardize the modern form by drastic diets, harmful reducing girdles, fake reducing tablets or other quack "anti-fat" remedies condemned by the Medical profession! Millions of dollars each year are wasted on these ridiculous and dangerous nostrums. Be Sensible! Be Moderate! We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky" instead, you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.
