

Society News and Club Affairs

OLIVE M. DOAK, Society Editor

Miss Bartosz Weds In Attractive Ceremony

An impressive wedding took place at the St. Joseph's Catholic church on Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock mass when Selma Marie Bartosz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bartosz of Salem became the bride of William P. Schott-hoefler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Schott-hoefler of Salem. Father Cyril O. S. B. of Mt. Angel, and former schoolmate of the groom, officiated at the ceremony.

The wedding march from Mendelsohn was played on the pipe organ by Barbara Schott-hoefler and Mrs. F. X. Albrich sang the Ave Maria. Elizabeth Schott-hoefler and Richard Schott-hoefler, brother and sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and best man.

The bride wore a dress of turquoise-blue satin with lace insets, a trailing veil, a string of crystal beads, gift of the groom, and carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations. The bridesmaid wore a light coral georgette dress with hat to match and carried a bouquet of dark pink carnations.

Dinner following the wedding was served at the home of the bride with covers laid for 50 guests. Mrs. Guy Domogalla, Cecilia Schott-hoefler, Anna Stamen and Mrs. Ed. Bartosz served.

Mr. and Mrs. Schott-hoefler left for a honeymoon trip to northern Washington. They will make their home south of Salem.

The bride's going away ensemble was a dark blue gown and hat to match with a tan broad-cloth coat with Siberian wolf collar and cuffs.

Statesman Pattern

This dainty frock presents a moderate version of the new silhouette, characterized by the semi-fitted bodice, the raised belt and the skirt dip in back. A feminine touch is added with collar and cuffs of lace. Note the curved line of the flare corresponding with the hem line.

Design 1815 is made of printed silk crepe—easily colored flowers against a dark background. Rose, blue and yellow on black—beige, green and yellow on brown—dahlia, green and tan on green—are just a few of the new color schemes shown. A leather belt is worn with this frock.

May be obtained only in sizes 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/4 yards of 40 inch material.

No dressmaking experience is necessary to make this model. The pattern has ample and exact instructions. Yardage is given for every size. A perfect fit is guaranteed.

Patterns will be delivered upon receipt of fifteen cents in coins carefully wrapped or stamps. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, style number and size wanted.

Book is fifteen cents, but only ten cents when ordered with a pattern. Address all mail and orders to Statesman Pattern Department, 243 West 17th street, New York City.

Woodburn — The Misses Pearl and Hazel Emery entertained at an informal party at the home of Miss Ruth Geer after the McMinville-Woodburn basketball game, Friday evening.

Card, dancing and music offered diversified entertainment throughout the evening. At the conclusion of the evening a buffet supper was served. Those who enjoyed the evening were Misses Pearl Emery, Henrietta Chapelle, Hazel Emery and Ruth Geer and Messrs. John Gottfried, Paul Todd, Bob Gamble and Earl Parks of Willamette university.

Miss Alice Zielke has just returned from Alturas, California, where she has been the guest of Miss Ora Hawkins. Miss Zielke and Miss Hawkins were college friends in Oregon State college. In making the return trip home Miss Zielke was forced to drive to Redding and then up to Klamath Falls because of the roads from Alturas to Klamath Falls being snowbound.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Schilberger and children, Jimmie and Shirley formerly of Bremerton, Washington, have been the house guests of Mrs. Schilberger's parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Wayman for the past two weeks. They left Sunday by automobile for their new home in Corning, New York.

The American Legion auxiliary will meet at McCormack hall Monday evening for its regular meeting. There will be a program and other special features of interest.

McCOY — Victory Rebekah Lodge met for their regular meeting of this year. Those present were Mrs. G. L. Richards, Miss Helen Richards, Mr. and Mrs. Nedrow, Mrs. Hattie Lynch, Mrs. Jewel Lynch and Mrs. Waldo Finn. Installation of officers will be held jointly with Plum Valley Odd Fellow Lodge next Saturday night.

Mrs. A. B. Hanson will be hostess to the members of the East Central circle of the First Methodist church Wednesday afternoon instead of Mrs. B. E. Carrier as was first planned. Mrs. Hanson will receive at her home, 740 Ferry street, beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

Missapah Sunday school class of First Baptist church will be the guests of Mrs. Neils Oleans at her home, 2605 Rural avenue, Thursday afternoon.

The south circle of the First Christian church will meet at the home of Mrs. V. S. Cochran, 1259 South Liberty street, today for an all-day meeting.

Is it Good?

You're the Judge—and visit this New Restaurant where Barbecued Meats are a Specialty—not a sideline.

Luncheons, all prices
Dinners 50c

Capitol . . . Barbecue

Opposite the Elsinore on High Street

Mrs. Earl Paulsen Is Honored Guest

Mrs. Earl Paulsen, popular matron who until recently has been a member of Salem social circles, is a house guest of Mrs. Jesse George and is being complimented with several affairs this week.

Among those entertaining for her are Mrs. George Nelson who was hostess for an informal evening of cards Tuesday night. Mrs. R. A. Gridley will be hostess for another informal evening of cards at her home this evening.

Mrs. Paulsen will be a special guest at the Adolyk club meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Oral Lemmon.

Mrs. Oral Lemmon Is Adolyk Hostess

Mrs. Oral Lemmon will entertain today with a one o'clock luncheon in compliment to members of the Adolyk club and a few special guests at her home. Following luncheon cards will be in play for the afternoon.

Special guests for luncheon will be Mrs. L. L. Jensen and Mrs. Lawrence Imlah. Mrs. Carl Paulsen will come in later for cards.

Club members who will be present for today are Mrs. Reed Rowland, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. John Hunter, Mrs. C. Leiland Smith, and Mrs. Lemmon.

Homecoming Week Being Planned

The members of Leslie church are planning for a "homecoming" week beginning Sunday with various organizations of the church giving special entertainments throughout the week.

Members of the Leslie Can-Do class are inviting all the women of the church and South Salem to call during the afternoon of January 22 at the church parlors between the hours of 2 o'clock and 4:30 o'clock. A program is being planned, amusements, have been planned and tea will be served.

Birthdays Honored With Dinner

Mrs. Elizabeth Proctor was complimented on the occasion of her birthday with a dinner given in her honor by Miss Le Verne Proctor, and Mrs. Ada Watson, Mrs. Anna Busby, and Mrs. Edna Williams.

In the afternoon more guests were invited in and a very happy afternoon of old-fashioned games and much conversation completed the day. Those who called in the afternoon were Mrs. Ruth Boatwright, Mrs. May Hurley, Mrs. Sara Kendall, Mrs. Agnes Ricks, Mrs. William Bone, Mrs. J. C. DeHarport, Mrs. Jennie La Bare, and Mrs. Charles Stathour.

Mrs. Theda Doty and Miss Louise Macklin assisted Miss Proctor.

Mrs. A. A. Schramm Chapter G. Hostess

The member of Chapter G. of the P. E. O. sisterhood will meet at the home of Mrs. A. A. Schramm, 595 Leslie street, Thursday afternoon.

This meeting will be the observance of founders day for the order and Mrs. W. W. Moore has in charge of arranging the program.

The Beauty

By HELEN BOX FOLLETT

Don't get dubious and suspicious if the beauty teacher recommends the same exercise for reducing large legs that she suggests for building up the unfatigued calves. Exercise brings conditions to normal. If fat cells are present, muscular effort will disperse and scatter them. If muscles are impoverished, exercise will build and expand them. Lifting up on the toes, bicycling, kicking, toe-dancing will reduce fat legs and increase the measurements of thin ones. If ankles are large, sit on a low stool, cross your knees and send the topmost foot around in a circle, moving it from the ankle.

The eyeball is a camera. It is a sensitive organ which receives and transmits impressions to the higher centers of sight. The act of vision is performed by the brain. That is why eyestrain will often produce depression and headache. If the eyes are continually tired, if lids burn and smart, an eye specialist should be consulted. That is the way they behave when vision is impaired and glasses are necessary.

Hair has a terrible crush on curls, and that's why few girls are bothering with ringlets. The fussy coiffure will never come back until the helmet hat is on the skid and we are given chapeaux with crowns, into which the products of the hairdresser's art can be stowed away. Considering that the basque and the peplum are here, maybe we'll be wearing Merry Widows yet. What's them, say you? Those cartwheels of ages ago. Big as barrels.

When the dentist burrows into a tooth with his little buzzsaw, don't implore him to desist. Unless every particle of decayed dentine is removed the filling will be unsatisfactory and in a short time will have to come out. By having an appointment with the dentist twice a year, small cavities will be repaired, saving the beauty supplicant, money and discomfort.

Formula for water softener: Eight ounces of rubbing alcohol, one-half ounce of ammonia, one dram of oil of lavender. Pour a teaspoonful into a bowlful of water. The solution will make the facial tubing more complete and refreshing.

When Miss Sassy-eyes pulls out her powder compact and plasters the dull finish on her distinguished nose, she thinks she is the trail-lamp of modernism. She isn't. In Egypt, India, China and Japan, face powders have been used for centuries. Rice starch, clay, bismuth and almond meal have all been employed, perfumed with sandalwood or patchouli. Flower petals were thrown into the mixture to impart a delicate perfume. Now synthetic odors are used not because they are cheap—they are not—but because the flowers of the world can't furnish sufficient essential oils to meet the demand.

We ask you, have you enteroptosis? Never heard of it? It is the grand-elegant name for sag-

SOCIAL CALENDAR

- Wednesday
- Free swim to Campfire girls, Y. M. C. A. between hours 6 and 7 o'clock.
 - Woman's Union of First Congregational church, 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. W. I. Staley.
 - Woman's Foreign Missionary society of Leslie Memorial church, Mrs. T. H. Temple, 1455 Saginaw street.
 - Girl Reserves advisors meeting, 4 o'clock, Y. W. C. A. rooms, Norma Sims to speak.
 - Central circle of First Methodist church, Mrs. A. B. Hanson, 740 Ferry street, 2:30 o'clock.
 - South circle club of First Christian church, all-day meeting with Mrs. V. S. Cochran, 1259 South Liberty.
 - Thursday
 - Faculty Woman's club, Mrs. Herman Clark, 1625 North Winter.
 - Raphaterian club with Mrs. Elliott Colony, 170 N. 21st street.
 - Mizpah Sunday school class, First Baptist church, Mrs. Neils Oleans, 2605 Rural avenue, afternoon meeting.
 - Chapter G of the P. E. O. Sisterhood with Mrs. A. A. Schramm. Observance of Founders' Day.
 - Westway club with Mrs. H. A. Smart, 2475 Cherry street, 2 o'clock.
 - Friday
 - Mrs. Scott Page, hostess to Friday bridge club.
 - Nehalem club at Leslie Methodist church, 6 o'clock potluck dinner.
 - Saturday
 - A. A. U. W., 1 o'clock luncheon at Elks' temple.
 - Mabel Homes Pearson to be speaker.

MISSIONARY SLAIN IN AFRICA

Miss Hulda Stumpf, of New York, a well-known American missionary, was found murdered in a house at the Africa Inland Mission Station, at Kijase, Kenya Colony, recently.

When the bodies of 55 Polar Bear dead were brought back to the city of Detroit, Michigan, recently from the far off frozen fields of North Russia, an 11-year-old boy stood silently at the side of one of the caskets and refused to leave.

He was Donald McDonald, Dearborn, Mich., and for the first time in his life he was near his father.

Donald had never seen his father, except as he knew him on that cold, bleak Sunday in Detroit when Hezekiah N. Duff, commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States turned the 55 bodies over to Governor Fred W. Green of Michigan, concluding a task that had been undertaken by the V. F. W. in the spring of 1929.

As the caskets were placed side by side at White Chapel cemetery Donald moved from one to the other, apparently in search of a familiar name.

Finally he lifted the American flag from one casket to reveal the name of Angus McDonald, a private in Company E, killed in action in Russia on Sept. 13, 1918. It was three months later to the day that Donald was born.

Dry-eyed and silent Donald stood in mute tribute to the form that lay within while relatives of other heroic dead gathered in little groups about the remains of those men who died more than 10 years ago, thousands of miles from home on foreign soil and amid strange people.

Quietly he listened to the final tribute voiced by former comrades of the father he never knew. And when the last dying strains of a final taps echoed over the snow covered cemetery, Donald reluctantly turned his steps away from his hero-father's last resting place.

Eastern Star Club Has Happy Afternoon

About 30 members of the Eastern Star social club spent Tuesday afternoon in needlework and conversation in the social rooms of the Masonic temple and later enjoyed tea served by the refreshment committee.

Those in charge of the afternoon plans were Mrs. Emily Fosshard, Mrs. Mariam Derby, Mrs. Agnes Teschoop, Mrs. Daisy McIntyre, Mrs. Cora Scott, Mrs. Ethel Welch, and Mrs. Anna Cable.

Faculty Women's Club Guest of Mrs. H. Clark

Mrs. Herman Clark will entertain members of the Faculty Women's club at her home 1625 North Winter street Thursday afternoon.

Those who will assist Mrs. Clark will be Mrs. J. D. McCormick, Mrs. C. C. Haworth, Mrs. William C. Jones, and Miss Olive M. Dahl.

Stock Market Quiet

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The stock market continued to dawdle today, trading falling to the lowest ebb witnessed in a year and a half.

Can you afford to be without the protection afforded by the $1.00 Accident policy issued to Statesman subscribers?

Silverton—Miss Esther Towe, a Junior at the University of Washington, did not return to her studies after the holidays because of ill health. She plans to return to the University later in the spring.

McCoy—The P. Y. L. club met at the home of Mrs. Dwight Wyatt. Those present were Mrs. George Shields, Mrs. Chris Neilson, Mrs. Harry Frewing, Mrs. Eva Prang, Mrs. John Romig, Miss Gva Christensen, Mrs. George Richards, Mrs. Fred Jennings, Mrs. Glen Stevenson, Mrs. J. W. Finn, the hostess, Mrs. Wyatt and her guest, Mrs. Manning.

After an afternoon spent in visiting and needlework, the guests were served with refreshments. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Allen.

Black mascara is not as satisfactory as dark brown for the purpose of making the eyebrows and lashes more pronounced in color. The black paint is too much like India ink and will not do a fade-out as it should. Mascara has one advantage over the eyebrow pencil; it doesn't crayon the skin, but stays put on the beautiful fuzzers.

Eye-shadows come in many colors now: royal purple is the latest tint. Brown shadows for brown eyes, blue shadows for blue eyes, mauve shadows for grey eyes. Perhaps, then, the purple dabble is for pansy eyes. I dunno.

Deplatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Depilatories dissolve the hair at the surface of the skin. As a rule, they cause no irritation. If the skin feels at all sensitive afterwards, cold cream should be applied and left on over night. There is less likelihood of an unpleasant body odor if hair in the armpits is removed.

Son Finds Father at Burial Rite

When the bodies of 55 Polar Bear dead were brought back to the city of Detroit, Michigan, recently from the far off frozen fields of North Russia, an 11-year-old boy stood silently at the side of one of the caskets and refused to leave.

He was Donald McDonald, Dearborn, Mich., and for the first time in his life he was near his father.

Donald had never seen his father, except as he knew him on that cold, bleak Sunday in Detroit when Hezekiah N. Duff, commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States turned the 55 bodies over to Governor Fred W. Green of Michigan, concluding a task that had been undertaken by the V. F. W. in the spring of 1929.

As the caskets were placed side by side at White Chapel cemetery Donald moved from one to the other, apparently in search of a familiar name.

Finally he lifted the American flag from one casket to reveal the name of Angus McDonald, a private in Company E, killed in action in Russia on Sept. 13, 1918. It was three months later to the day that Donald was born.

Dry-eyed and silent Donald stood in mute tribute to the form that lay within while relatives of other heroic dead gathered in little groups about the remains of those men who died more than 10 years ago, thousands of miles from home on foreign soil and amid strange people.

Quietly he listened to the final tribute voiced by former comrades of the father he never knew. And when the last dying strains of a final taps echoed over the snow covered cemetery, Donald reluctantly turned his steps away from his hero-father's last resting place.

STOCK MARKET QUIET

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—(AP)—The stock market continued to dawdle today, trading falling to the lowest ebb witnessed in a year and a half.

Can you afford to be without the protection afforded by the $1.00 Accident policy issued to Statesman subscribers?

The atmosphere of your home is determined by your furniture

A COMPLETELY furnished home is as necessary as a completely furnished house. Makeshifts, temporary furniture is a useless extravagance. Budget your furnishing plans—let our deferred payment plan help you to have the furniture you want, paying for it out of income.

Here you pay the lowest prices for dependable merchandise at all times.

Here Are the Two Outstanding Values in Bedroom Furniture

Your choice of Suite in Walnut or Ivory — They are unusually attractive — the bed is new style bowfoot — the vanity is a real nice size with adjustable mirror — the dresser has a large top and plenty of drawer space — the chiffonier has three large drawers and two small ones at the top.

THREE PIECES
Either in Walnut or Ivory

BED - - DRESSER	BED - - VANITY
CHIFFONIER	CHIFFONIER
$59.00	$59.00

You must see these suites to appreciate their value. SEE THEM NOW IN OUR WINDOWS AND WE SELL THEM ON EASY TERMS

Hamilton's Exchange Store 255 North Com'l

C.S. Hamilton FURNITURE CO.
340 Court St.

Hamilton's Exchange Store 255 North Com'l

MACK'S

Wish to Announce a Wonderful Selection of New Spring Dresses

Their exquisite loveliness and array of shades are very pleasing—

Giroflee	Amethyst
Samea	Baba
Kelly Green

We Also have many lovely Prints.

MACK'S
Millinery, Dresses, Coats and Suits
395 NORTH HIGH STREET