

Crowd Attends Second Meet of Turner Community Club

CIVIC WORK IS TOPIC TALKED

Extensive Program Meets With Approval of the Large Audience

TURNER, Jan. 15.—The Turner community club held its second meeting with program Monday evening. It was a big success, judging from the interest shown by nearly a houseful. An attendance much larger than expected on such a cold night. A few people were present from Salem and other distant points.

The evening opened with a short business period with routine interests connected with the club. It is probable that a Boy Scout troop will be sponsored.

A committee was appointed to see what could be done about a volume of drainage water that forms through the wrong channels and is very detrimental to some of the farmers of the Crawford district.

Mayor McKinny, R. O. Witzel and A. E. Edwards were named on a committee to see if the difficulty can be overcome.

County's Aid Urged
Turner citizens are urged to make their wishes known to the proper county officials concerning the finishing of the Turner-Marion road over which there is a great amount of travel.

Mrs. Jean Peary led a "community sing" after which Mrs. S. A. Riches, chairman of the program committee presented the program which was to feature the old styles in readings and songs.

The orchestra from the Battle Creek district, composed of O. Fowler and three sons and B. Peebles, furnished music for the evening.

Mrs. Cornelia Davis, an aged member of the community, composed a very fine message for the occasion, which was read by Rev. E. J. Gilstrap.

A reading was given by Mrs. W. T. Riches, "The Flag Has Come Back to Tennessee."

The most amusing feature of the evening was "Miss Pope's School." Mrs. S. H. Bond was the school mistress; members of the visiting school board in costume as the school, were Rev. E. J. Gilstrap, S. H. Bond, Rev. W. S. Burgoyne.

The pupils, who were a lively bunch, kept their teacher in quick action, with dinner pails overturned and while the old water bucket was being passed around it was found a worm was in the water. Different members spoke and sang the old pieces, "Psalm of Life," "Where Is My Little Dog Gone," "Mary Had a Little Lamb," etc.

Taking part in the affair were L. D. Roberts, who was always in trouble; Prof. J. R. Cox, the fat, good natured boy; R. Lee Teisen, with sly mischief; Prof. D. B. Parks, the boy who was always late with excuses; Earl Bear who tried to do right but was hindered by the other boys; Mrs. L. D. Roberts was the big girl organist, Mrs. E. C. Bear, who lisped and tattled, Mrs. S. W. Burgoyne and Miss Helen Peetz, who were cute primary girls, always willing to do something and often in tears.

Mrs. Lee Teisen, a big girl, who liked to sing and speak, Mrs. E. Prather and Mrs. J. R. Cox, best dressed little girls. It is needless to say that after the honorable school board had heard the program presented for their benefit and after they had duly examined the bright boys and girls they decided to hire Miss Pope for another year.

The Crawford district gave as their number, "The Style Show," put on by Mrs. Charles Barber and three daughters and a few helpers. They showed in a clever manner, the old styles of dress, closing with a reading by Mrs. aBrier, in description of styles in general.

Miss Lily Peterson in costume, gave a reading, "My Old Cow." Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook of Pleasant View district gave a duet "Love's Old Sweet Song," with encore; Miss Josephine Gilstrap at the piano.

Silverton Store Manager Is Moved

SILVERTON, Jan. 14.—M. M. Humphrey, manager of the local Sisk's Safeway store received notice Monday that he is to be transferred to Denver. Mr. Humphrey will leave for his new location in the early part of next week. Mrs. Humphrey is moving to Portland where she will remain until later in the spring when she plans to drive through to her new home.

Just who the new manager of the local store will be will not be known until the last of this week.

WATER PLANT REBUILT FARM GARAGE IS PUT UP

Farmers Seize Cold Days to Better Properties

PLEASANT VALLEY, Jan. 15.—Frank Cook is improving his spring water system by piping the water to various places on his farm. During the past dry summer months the spring has proven to be one with an unusual vein, as the drought affected it but very little.

Mr. Cook is also remodeling the interior of the kitchen by putting in some built-in features. Mr. J. C. Morris is helping with the carpentering.

With the dropping of the mercury, farmers are having some trouble to keep their water pipes from freezing and bursting, also the vegetables are in danger of freezing if they aren't well pitted or in warm cellars.

PLAY AT RICKEY IS VERY ENTERTAINING

Invitations Are Extended to Produce Affair in Salem Church

RICKEY, January 15.—The regular meeting of the community club was held Friday evening and despite the unusually cold weather the play, "The Great Catastrophe" given under the direction of Marie Kelly and Edna Fery drew its second full house. Visitors are from Salem, Aumaville, Auburn, Sweigle, Hazel Green, Bethel, Keizer and Macleay.

The play was to have been given in November but just before time to open the meeting one of the members of the cast was called away by serious illness in the family.

The cast consisted entirely of local talent.

Proof of the success was witnessed by a request made by members of the Bungalow Christian church of Salem that the play be presented in there for the church's benefit.

Cast is Listed
The cast was:

Violet Drew—Mrs. Irvin Caplinger; Mr. Drew—M. M. Magee; Milliken—Arthur Kelly; Miss Primrose—Mrs. M. M. Magee; Jack Kennard—Irvin Caplinger; Tillie Crary—Mrs. Wesley Hornor; Bear—Orvin Frysle.

Other numbers on the program were: piano duet—Leonard LaBranche and Marie Elfstrom; vocal solo—"The Little Chick"—Eflie Flood; piano duet—Laura Crabb and Gladys Crabb; piano duet—Venita La Branche and Mrs. A. E. La Branche.

The next meeting of the club will be held the second Friday in February at which time a musical program will be presented under the direction of Orvin Frysle and Wilbur Flood.

OFFICERS FOR NEW YEAR TO BE NAMED

FAIRVIEW, Jan. 15.—The Fairview community club will meet next Friday evening. This will be an important affair as the annual election of officers is held at this time.

A short program is being arranged in charge of Mrs. Roy Hargen, Mrs. H. R. Jones and F. W. Turner.

Guests at the Ralph Dent home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. David Hampton of McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Williams of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. George Looney of Jefferson and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harris.

Mr. A. Henry who was taken to the hospital in Salem last week is still seriously ill.

E. E. Dent has purchased the buildings of the Ford saw mill and is raising them. He expects to use the salvage to build sheep pens.

Brush College Has Its Schedule Made

BRUSH COLLEGE—Brush College officers and heads of different committees met Monday night with Grange master, Glenn Adams at his home on the Wallace road. Mr. Adams called this conference at the last meeting of the B. C. arrange to make a schedule for the coming year.

The Brush College Helpers will meet Thursday, January 16 at the home of Mrs. V. L. Gibson. A good, miscellaneous program has been arranged for Thursday. Present were Mr. and Mrs.

SHEEP DISEASE IS EXPENSIVE

Parasite Costs Breeders Big Sum Annually, O. S. C. Leader Declares

McMINNVILLE, Ore., Jan. 15. (Special)—Parasitic diseases among animals is costing Oregon farmers approximately $240,000 annually, Dr. J. N. Shaw, Oregon State college research head, told members of the Yamhill County Sheep and Goat Breeders' association at their annual meeting here.

Dr. Shaw outlined plans for the halting of both parasitic and infectious diseases which have made heavy inroads into Oregon stock during the past year. He dealt especially with the liver fluke among sheep and with shipping fever. He explained methods of contracting the diseases.

Grain Urged for Lambs
A discussion of marketing led by Harry Lindgren, also of Oregon state college, was of value to the members. The poor outlook for the sheep market was declared to be partly the fault of the raisers, he declared. Not enough attention has been paid to the fattening of lambs. This has resulted in reduction of the consumption of meat. He suggested a grain ration for the lambs.

War on marauding dogs, especially police dogs, was declared during the meeting. The members resolved to do all in their power to aid in passing legislation against roving dogs.

Russell Heads Growers
Officers chosen for the year include: Walter Russell, McMinnville, president; James Burdett, McMinnville, first vice president; Alec Ross, Dayton, second vice president; Ralph Butts, Newberg, secretary; and Jacob Duerst, treasurer. The executive committee appointed by the president included Peter Zimmerman, Yamhill, John Vernard, McMinnville; George Foster, Dayton; Arthur Christensen, Broadmeade; and Asa Nichols, Dayton.

Rowell Family Given Surprise By Many Friends
RICKREALL, Jan. 15.—A surprise party on the Rowell family was held at their home Saturday night. There were four tables of five hundred.

Those attending the party were Mr. and Mrs. Kellogg and daughter La Vern, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Pence and daughter Betty June, Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Claude Larkin, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Beaver.

Refreshments were served at midnight.
